SOCIAL NOTES

The Emanon club held a delightful session Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Silas Gay. Sewing occupied the hours devoted to social conversation.

Miss Florence Coffin was the hostess of the G. T. club at its revels last Thursday evening, when a patriotic motif prevailed. There were a number of guests of the club, who included Miss Frances Bartlett, Miss Ruth Scott, Miss Chloe Woolley, Miss Grace Male, Miss Lucile Copenhaver and Miss Verna Morria (Iowa). The club members in attendance were Miss Olive Smith, Miss Lacy Copenhaver, Miss Edna Swarts, Miss Alice Kester, Miss Lillian Gorrie, and Miss Coffin.

The installation of officers of the Juanita Rebekah lodge on Monday evening was also the occasion of a very enjoyable luncheon served by the brother Rebekahs as a surprise to the ladies. The service was greatly complimented. There were a score or more Rebekahs over from Eugene. District Deputy President Pearl Clark and Deputy Grand Marshal Jennie Fry were the installing officers and inducted the following into various chairs: noble grand, Rosa Montgomery; vice-grand, Lucy Cranmer; secretary, Nellie Richmond; warden, Effie Staniger; conductor, Chloe Durrin; chaplain, Georgia Hayden; right supporter of noble grand, Bertie Walker; left supporter of noble grand, Jennie Fry; right supporter of vice grand, Alice Kester; left supporter of vice grand, Mattie Reynolds; outside guardian, Mary Roberts; inside guardian, Hannah Hill.

Trevor Nelson, Harvey Clark and Johnny Bowman of West Springfield were fined $25 each in the Eugene justice court on Tuesday for stealing some chickens from Mrs. Collins. Vernon Meats was sent to the reform school for participation in the same affair.

While coming to visit her daughter, Mrs. W. A. Dill last Tuesday, Mrs. F. A. Wetherbee of Eugene, slipped on a rough sidewalk on Seventh street near A and tore such a gash in her knee that a surgeon had to take several stitches to close the wound. Mrs. Wetherbee will be confined to the house for a few days yet.

Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Montgomery of Hardsburg came on last Sunday to visit Mr. Montgomery's brother, J. S. Montgomery and nephew, Al Montgomery. They returned Monday. Mr. Montgomery, Sr. had made a number of trips to Hardsburg for visits, but this was the first time in 30 years that Al. had seen his uncle.
