

Perfection Witch Hazel Almond Cream

It is not a beautifier; it only preserves beauty. It makes the skin like velvet and keeps it so.

Cures chaps in a night. Softens and heals like magic and there is nothing about it you could find fault with. No grease, or stickiness; it is absorbed almost instantly. No other lotion has so large a local sale.

PRICE 25c

Tales of the Town

Hall for cheaper soles and heels.

Hair cut only 25c at Bishop's Barber Shop.

Prof. P. M. Stroud and family expect to leave Wednesday for Newport to spend a month at the coast.

Leave orders with Walker & Holbrook, phone 70, for wood sawing. Here to saw all winter.

Miss Nell Jones returned to Portland Friday evening after spending her vacation with her relatives here.

Have your hay weighed on our scales on 2nd street and it will save you money. Springfield Feed Company.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Carman of Eugene, went to Foley Springs today for the benefit of Mr. Carman's health.

Miss Marion Harper, Mrs. William Rouse and Thurman Riggs went to Portland Friday evening for a few days visit.

Frank Winzenried, nephew of John Winzenried, arrived yesterday from Portland and will remain for a several day's visit.

Robert Strodie, wife and son Gregory, came down from Harborsburg by automobile Sunday for a visit at the Sidwell home.

Mr. and Mrs. George Berntrner of Falls City, formerly in business in Coburg, visited Mr. and Mrs. George Catching last week.

Try Conkey's Fly Knocker. It's the best on the market. We can furnish this at eastern prices this year. Buy it at the Feed Store.

For sometime past the local barbers have been charging 35 cents for a hair cut and today have returned to the old price of 25 cents.

A. D. Ruddiman left Saturday for Newport to spend a month's vacation. His wife and little daughter have been there for the past several weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Omer McBee and family, T. M. Grubbs, Miss Maud Grubbs and Philo Wilcox were also among those who attended the McBee family reunion a week ago.

Elmer T. Harlow, son of the county commissioner, Mahlon Harlow, and Hazel E. McKay, formerly of Eugene, were married in Portland Friday of last week. They will reside on the Harlow ranch northwest of Springfield.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Totten expect to leave Tuesday morning for a two week's visit with Mrs. Totten's granddaughter, Mrs. R. A. Traver of Sluslaw. Mr. and Mrs. Totten have recently been compelled to leave Newport on account of Mrs. Totten's ill

Hall for cheaper soles and heels.

25c for a hair cut at Bishop's shop.

Ralph Walker made a business trip to Irving Saturday.

Have your suit made to measure at Jenkins' Fourth St.

Tom Carney of Thurston was in Springfield on business Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Sidwell returned Friday from a visit at Coburg.

Miss Marie Platt spent Friday at Hayden Bridge with Miss Frances Bartlett.

Henry Adrian is suffering severely from a felon on one of the fingers of his right hand.

Ira Fuller, who lives on L street near Mill, has been quite ill for the past few days.

2200 all-wool, up-to-date fabrics to choose from at Jenkins' Place, Fourth Street.

Mrs. J. A. Godman went to Marcola Sunday to visit her daughter, Mrs. C. T. Wilson.

Mrs. R. P. Reading, who has been seriously sick for some time, is somewhat improved.

Dr. W. C. Rebhan's residence at Sixth and C streets is receiving a new coat of paint.

Try a sack of eastern Oregon flour at $1.50 a sack, $5.80 a barrel. This flour guaranteed. SNEED & SONS.

I. D. Larimer and Lew Larson motored to Foley Springs Saturday evening and spent Sunday at that popular resort.

Good reliable fire insurance. No assessments; no membership fee. Pay once and you are done. H. E. Walker at the City Hall.

A window in the grocery department of Cox & Cox store was broken this morning when a cabbage was accidentally thrown against the glass.

M. M. Peery and wife, O. B. Kelsey, wife and son and Dr. and Mrs. Rebhan went up to Blue River Saturday and remained until Sunday night.

Mrs. P. A. Woolley and daughter, Miss Chloie, visited Mrs. Pelcher in Eugene Thursday. The Woolleys and Pelchers were neighbors in Aitkin, Minnesota, several years ago.

Riverside Dairy, retail and wholesale milk and cream. Prices of milk, Quarts 15 for $1. Pints 28 for $1. By the gallon 25 cents. Cream, pints, 20 cents one-half pints 10 cents.

Miss Marie DePue left this morning for Florence with Eugene friends, and will take the pleasant walking trip up the Oregon coast to Newport, for a visit here of two weeks.

Mrs. Vina McLean was last week named as administratrix of the estate of her mother, Mrs. Louisa Witter, who died February 8, 1901. She was the wife of J. T. Witter, who died here a few weeks ago.

Mrs. Emma Morrison was last week named as the administratrix of the estate of her husband, Thomas J. Morrison, deceased. Elza Sutton, D. A. Elkins and Elmer Morrison were named to appraise the property.

An exceptionally large number of people are now going to the mountains, and about the 15th of the present month when the deer season opens, will see a large number of sportsmen leaving for their favorite retreats.

F. S. Harding and wife of Weiser, Idaho, were in Springfield last week visiting Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Grubbs. The ladies are sisters. Mr. Harding was the editor of the Weiser American until President Wilson picked out a postoffice for him. E. F. McBee of Eugene, formerly of Springfield, is a nephew.

C. W. Lyon came over Thursday from Walton to look after business and visit old friends. He reports conditions as flourishing there, and says the Bell telephone company has a gang of thirteen men busy stringing wire for the system that will have its terminus at Florence. The Western Union telegraph poles are being used by the Bell company.

J. L. Clark was up from Salem Sunday.

M. J. McKlin returned Saturday from Thurston, where he had been on a fishing trip.

Mrs. M. J. McKlin returned on Sunday from Trent, where she had been visiting her sister, Mrs. H. B. Rhodes.

Miss Elolah Newman went to Santa Clara this afternoon for a visit of a week or ten days with Miss Mabel Brabham.

Grading of G street from 8th to 10th, was completed last week and the placing of the crushed rock will begin at once.

Attention, Farmers. The Springfield Flour mill has twine and sacks. Bring in your wheat. We will store free of charge.

Mrs. O. C. Wolf returned to her home at Albany Friday after a visit of some time at the home of her father, A. S. Walker.

The M. E. Ladies Aid will give an ice cream social and entertainment at the church Tuesday afternoon and evening of next week.

I. Cline and his son, Fred Cline, formerly in the milk business, have re-established a milk route, and are now serving customers both morning and evening.

A. A. Lowe of Portland spent Thursday evening with the J. W. Coffin family. Mr. Lowe, who is an old friend of the Coffins, is chief clerk for F. R. Burckhalter, superintendent of the S. P. railroad.

A. J. Armstrong and son of Cottage Grove came down Saturday to visit Mrs. Jeanette Richardson. Mr. Armstrong's mother, Mr. Armstrong returned to the Grove today, but the lad will visit his grandmother for a time.

When Ciricillo's bank was appearing in Butte, Montana, last week, a wind storm wrecked the tent and injured players and members of the audience. This is the band that appeared in the Eugene Chautauqua early in July.

L. F. McDaniel returned last Thursday evening from Corning, Calif., and will remain here for a while at least. Mr. McDaniel has property interests there but found the climate too hot and decided to again locate in the Willamette valley.

Capt. C. J. Dodd of Springfield was elected vice-president of the Iowa association which held its annual picnic in Eugene last Thursday. S. W. Taylor, county treasurer, was elected president. Rev. H. C. Ethell was also present from Springfield.

Springfield's contingent of students at the Oregon State Normal school at Monmouth returned home Friday afternoon after attending the summer school. They were Miss Grace Walker, Miss Opal Holverson, Miss Helen Barkman, Miss Shirley Moore, Miss Maude Moore, Miss Leona Moore.

A new schedule went into effect on the Willamette-Pacific yesterday, the train leaving Eugene at 7:20 a. m. instead of 8, but returning at the same time. The run has been extended to Cushman, where the railroad crosses the Sluslaw to go down the coast, and is 12 miles farther than the previous run.

We will receive a large shipment of Johnson's Best Flour soon and will be glad to book orders for those who wish to lay in a supply of the "old wheat" flour. This is a fine Blend, milled in Albany and we guarantee every sack of it. When it comes to price we have a surprise for you. One farmer purchased 40 sacks of this flour last winter. Let us book your order at once. Remember it is the "China Pheasant" brand. Springfield Feed Company.

George Koeneke has bought the lumber used for the forms of the Bud McPherson concrete building and he is now moving the material to his farm, recently purchased in the Douglas Gardens, where he will erect a barn. Removal of the material improves the appearance of the lot at Fifth and Main.

A car of 40,000 feet of lumber was received from Marcola today for the new hop house being constructed by John Seavey at his ranch southeast of Springfield. The furnaces are being made in Eugene. Thomas Humphrey is hauling the lumber to the ranch.

Half a dozen outfit cars which had been stored on a siding near Natron for several months, were brought to Springfield yesterday to be repaired and sent on to California, where they are to be used.

George Koeneke has bought the lumber used for the forms of the Bud McPherson concrete building and he is now moving the material to his farm, recently purchased in the Douglas Gardens, where he will erect a barn. Removal of the material improves the appearance of the lot at Fifth and Main.

A car of 40,000 feet of lumber was received from Marcola today for the new hop house being constructed by John Seavey at his ranch southeast of Springfield. The furnaces are being made in Eugene. Thomas Humphrey is hauling the lumber to the ranch.

George Koeneke has bought the lumber used for the forms of the Bud McPherson concrete building and he is now moving the material to his farm, recently purchased in the Douglas Gardens, where he will erect a barn. Removal of the material improves the appearance of the lot at Fifth and Main.

A car of 40,000 feet of lumber was received from Marcola today for the new hop house being constructed by John Seavey at his ranch southeast of Springfield. The furnaces are being made in Eugene. Thomas Humphrey is hauling the lumber to the ranch.

George Koeneke has bought the lumber used for the forms of the Bud McPherson concrete building and he is now moving the material to his farm, recently purchased in the Douglas Gardens, where he will erect a barn. Removal of the material improves the appearance of the lot at Fifth and Main.

A car of 40,000 feet of lumber was received from Marcola today for the new hop house being constructed by John Seavey at his ranch southeast of Springfield. The furnaces are being made in Eugene. Thomas Humphrey is hauling the lumber to the ranch.

George Koeneke has bought the lumber used for the forms of the Bud McPherson concrete building and he is now moving the material to his farm, recently purchased in the Douglas Gardens, where he will erect a barn. Removal of the material improves the appearance of the lot at Fifth and Main.

A car of 40,000 feet of lumber was received from Marcola today for the new hop house being constructed by John Seavey at his ranch southeast of Springfield. The furnaces are being made in Eugene. Thomas Humphrey is hauling the lumber to the ranch.

George Koeneke has bought the lumber used for the forms of the Bud McPherson concrete building and he is now moving the material to his farm, recently purchased in the Douglas Gardens, where he will erect a barn. Removal of the material improves the appearance of the lot at Fifth and Main.

A car of 40,000 feet of lumber was received from Marcola today for the new hop house being constructed by John Seavey at his ranch southeast of Springfield. The furnaces are being made in Eugene. Thomas Humphrey is hauling the lumber to the ranch.

SOCIAL NOTES

Mrs. R. L. Kirk provided an afternoon of much pleasure for a dozen of the friends of her son Charles in honor of his ninth birthday anniversary. There was music on the graphophone, games, and a birthday cake with the requisite number of candles on it. Mrs. Kirk's guests were Joe Bally, Phil Putnam, Wilbur Brattain, Alfred Townsend, Marnil Newman, William Pollard, LaRue Stevenson Charles Marlette (Eugene) and Gene Marlette (Eugene).

The Gleaners will meet on Thursday afternoon with Mrs. Cecil Calkins on C street between Seventh and Eighth. All ladies welcome.

Mrs. F. R. Russell gave a very pleasant birthday party last Wednesday in honor of the birthday anniversaries of her daughters Olive, aged nine, and Vetra, aged 7. Sweet peas made beautiful the dining room where a two-course luncheon of cake, melon, punch and candy was served. Those present were Ruth France, Ruth Sales, Mareda Sales, Doris Myers, Viola Nelson. Fledith Scrivner and Mrs. France assisted Mrs. Russell.

When rain interfered with the plans for the Odd Fellows and Rebekahs picnic last Thursday evening, the affair was turned into an in-door event, and was held in the hall. The bountiful supper was served cafeteria style, after which there were lively games for the younger people and cards for the older ones.

A birthday dinner attended by five sisters was given Friday evening by Mr. and Mrs. George Catching in honor of her sister, Miss Cecil Snyder of Portland. Sweet peas and shasta daisies formed the scheme of decoration. The dinner guests were Mr. and Mrs. Catching, Miss Snyder, Mr. and Mrs. Vin Williams and their daughter Gertrude and son George, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Persley (Coquille), Mr. and Mrs. Sherman Heller of Eugene and Grandma Heller, William Swarts and Mr. Halverson.

Mrs. Zella Cantrell, Miss McIntosh of Eugene, John Ketels, and E. A. Halverson motored to the McKenzie above Vida Sunday.

The four engines used in the gravel service were sent to Portland last week when the ballasting operations were suspended.

A runaway team created a little stir on Seventh street on Saturday evening, but was caught on Main street without doing any damage.

A. D. Ruddiman left Saturday for Newport to spend a vacation of a month. John Sinner takes his place in charge of motive power in this part of the S. P. system.

O. C. Thurman, who lives in Douglas Gardens, is now bottling loganberry juice and has placed a quantity on the local market. It is of fine quality and is meeting with a ready sale.

The Oregon Power company is rebuilding the furnaces in its plant at Dallas, and when this work is completed, will rebuild two of the boilers here. The new grate bars have already been received.

Half a dozen outfit cars which had been stored on a siding near Natron for several months, were brought to Springfield yesterday to be repaired and sent on to California, where they are to be used.

George Koeneke has bought the lumber used for the forms of the Bud McPherson concrete building and he is now moving the material to his farm, recently purchased in the Douglas Gardens, where he will erect a barn. Removal of the material improves the appearance of the lot at Fifth and Main.

A car of 40,000 feet of lumber was received from Marcola today for the new hop house being constructed by John Seavey at his ranch southeast of Springfield. The furnaces are being made in Eugene. Thomas Humphrey is hauling the lumber to the ranch.

George Koeneke has bought the lumber used for the forms of the Bud McPherson concrete building and he is now moving the material to his farm, recently purchased in the Douglas Gardens, where he will erect a barn. Removal of the material improves the appearance of the lot at Fifth and Main.

A car of 40,000 feet of lumber was received from Marcola today for the new hop house being constructed by John Seavey at his ranch southeast of Springfield. The furnaces are being made in Eugene. Thomas Humphrey is hauling the lumber to the ranch.

George Koeneke has bought the lumber used for the forms of the Bud McPherson concrete building and he is now moving the material to his farm, recently purchased in the Douglas Gardens, where he will erect a barn. Removal of the material improves the appearance of the lot at Fifth and Main.

A car of 40,000 feet of lumber was received from Marcola today for the new hop house being constructed by John Seavey at his ranch southeast of Springfield. The furnaces are being made in Eugene. Thomas Humphrey is hauling the lumber to the ranch.

George Koeneke has bought the lumber used for the forms of the Bud McPherson concrete building and he is now moving the material to his farm, recently purchased in the Douglas Gardens, where he will erect a barn. Removal of the material improves the appearance of the lot at Fifth and Main.

A car of 40,000 feet of lumber was received from Marcola today for the new hop house being constructed by John Seavey at his ranch southeast of Springfield. The furnaces are being made in Eugene. Thomas Humphrey is hauling the lumber to the ranch.

George Koeneke has bought the lumber used for the forms of the Bud McPherson concrete building and he is now moving the material to his farm, recently purchased in the Douglas Gardens, where he will erect a barn. Removal of the material improves the appearance of the lot at Fifth and Main.

A car of 40,000 feet of lumber was received from Marcola today for the new hop house being constructed by John Seavey at his ranch southeast of Springfield. The furnaces are being made in Eugene. Thomas Humphrey is hauling the lumber to the ranch.

George Koeneke has bought the lumber used for the forms of the Bud McPherson concrete building and he is now moving the material to his farm, recently purchased in the Douglas Gardens, where he will erect a barn. Removal of the material improves the appearance of the lot at Fifth and Main.

A car of 40,000 feet of lumber was received from Marcola today for the new hop house being constructed by John Seavey at his ranch southeast of Springfield. The furnaces are being made in Eugene. Thomas Humphrey is hauling the lumber to the ranch.

George Koeneke has bought the lumber used for the forms of the Bud McPherson concrete building and he is now moving the material to his farm, recently purchased in the Douglas Gardens, where he will erect a barn. Removal of the material improves the appearance of the lot at Fifth and Main.

A car of 40,000 feet of lumber was received from Marcola today for the new hop house being constructed by John Seavey at his ranch southeast of Springfield. The furnaces are being made in Eugene. Thomas Humphrey is hauling the lumber to the ranch.

George Koeneke has bought the lumber used for the forms of the Bud McPherson concrete building and he is now moving the material to his farm, recently purchased in the Douglas Gardens, where he will erect a barn. Removal of the material improves the appearance of the lot at Fifth and Main.

A car of 40,000 feet of lumber was received from Marcola today for the new hop house being constructed by John Seavey at his ranch southeast of Springfield. The furnaces are being made in Eugene. Thomas Humphrey is hauling the lumber to the ranch.

George Koeneke has bought the lumber used for the forms of the Bud McPherson concrete building and he is now moving the material to his farm, recently purchased in the Douglas Gardens, where he will erect a barn. Removal of the material improves the appearance of the lot at Fifth and Main.

Newport Oregon's Popular Beach Resort

An ideal outdoor retreat. Hunting, fishing, boating, surf-bathing, etc. Interesting visiting points in the neighborhood. Convenient camping grounds, electric light, pure water.

Low Season and Week-End Round-Trip Excursion Fares
Two Daily Trains from Albany
Ask for illustrated folder "Newport" giving list of hotels, rates, etc.

A Visit to the Two World Expositions

at San Francisco and San Diego is an event of a life-time and one you cannot afford to miss Special Fares in July to San Francisco, Los Angeles and San Diego on certain dates

Low Round Trip Fares Daily with stop-overs in either direction
Four Fine Trains Daily in Each Direction

Stop-Overs at Expositions
All tickets to the East via California permit stop-overs at San Francisco and San Diego to see the Expositions
Ask nearest Agent for "California and Its Two World Expositions," and "Way Side Notes Shasta Route."

SOUTHERN PACIFIC

John M. Scott, General Passenger Agent, Portland, Oregon

Classified Ads

For Sale, Rent, Wanted, Etc.

FOR SALE—1-6 hole range, almost new. If you want a good stove for a small price stop at the Feed Store and take a look at it.

FOUND—Belt knife in sheath. Call at this office, describe property and pay for this adv. and take knife. 48

R. O. A. hall for rent. Well ventilated and lighted, clean and warm. Kitchen and dining room attached. Rates reasonable. Apply to Fred Watke, Gilbert Davis or W. A. Hall.

FOR SALE—Timber claim, for $6,000. No incumbrance, clear title, 8,806,500 feet if taken inside of 6 weeks. Address A. P. Nilson, Springfield, Oregon. T-6t

FOR SALE—Team and buggy. Call 75-J. J. F. Martin City *1t

FOR SALE OR TRADE—Good 30-30 Savage rifle almost new. Will sell very cheap or trade for almost anything. Ad dress box 208, Springfield 52

CEDAR CHESTS—Large, new, spring upholstered couch chest, worth $15, sell for $8. Mrs. S. W. Beer, 1598 Moss St. Fairmount. Tel. 417-R. Eugene.

FOR SALE OR TRADE—New six room bungalow on improved lot 50x150, trees, outside city limits, city water, sewerage, wired for electric lights, one block from macadam street. Will trade for Springfield property. Address E. R. Spencer, Cottage Grove Oregon.

PRIVATE SALE—Extension table, rocker, iron beds, springs, mattress, dresser, garden tools etc. Bargains. 1598 Moss St., Fairmount. Tel. 417-R, Eugene.

LOST—Black music roll, containing three portfolios. Finder please return Mrs. Knapp, studio at corner of Fifth and C streets, Springfield. *1t

NU-BONE CORSETIERE—Mrs. Anna H. Uhl, 1798 Columbia Ave, Eugene. Phone 838-J. Hours 7 to 9 a. m. and 6 to 10 p. m. th54 t4*

FOUND—Curry comb and brush. Call at this office.

W. F. WALKER
UNDERTAKER
FUNERAL DIRECTOR
Office Phone 62; Residence 67-J
West Main St.

Commercial Printing at the News Office.

Information and Catalogues Free

International Correspondence Schools

A. E. CHAMBERS,
Manager
897 Willamette St. Cor. E 9th
Eugene, Oregon

It is planned to add about 7,000 acres to the Klamath reclamation work this year. Construction of jetties on the Sluslaw will begin this season.

See Edwards & Brattain

For Farm and City Property
Exchanges a Specialty
Springfield - Oregon
Phone 30

Office Ninth and Pearl Sts. stephone 300
DR. M. Y. SHAFFER, D.V.S.
VETERINARY SURGEON
AND DENTIST
Suite 2. Phone 888, EUGENE, ORE
Residence over Dodge's Store

Office in City Hall, Springfield, Ore.
HERBERT E. WALKER
NOTARY
PUBLIC

J. H. BOWER
Lawyer.
Phone 1221
831 Willamette St. Eugene, Oregon

Harness, Shoes, Glo vs

Harness and Shoes
Repaired at
The Harness Shop

O. R. Gullion, M.D.

Practice Limited to Eye, Ear, Nose and Throat.
Graduate Nurse Attending
306, White Temple, Eugene.

CAREFUL, CONSCIENTIOUS Dentistry

DR. J. E. RICHMOND
PHONES—Office, 3; Residence, 116-J
Over Commercial Bank,
Springfield, Oregon.

The Springfield Garage

H. SANDGATHE
Proprietor
Repairing a Specialty
Main, bet. Fourth and Fifth. Phone 11
SPRINGFIELD - OREGON