

Oh! Pickles...

We have everything in the way of spices that will make those pickles delicious.

Dill Seed
Cumin Seed
Mustard, White, Black, and Powdered.
Celery Seed
Allspice
Mace
Paprika
Pepper, Black and White
Cinnamon
Cloves
Capsicum Pods
Bay Leaves
Turmeric Powder
Mixed Spices, etc.
Mrs. Price's Canning Powders.

Tales of the Town

—Hall for cheaper soles and heels.

—Colgate's Talcums 15c at Peery's.

Dr. and Mrs. J. R. Barr leave tonight for Portland on a business trip.

Mrs. Billings' residence at the corner of Mill and A streets has been reshingled.

A. S. Walker suffered another attack of his malady Monday and is quite low today.

Miss Bess Hutchinson of Eugene was a dinner guest today at the home of Mrs. M. L. France.

Mrs. E. Randall and children are in from Winberry to pick hops at the Anderson yard in Pruneville.

J. A. Ebbert, who suffered a stroke of paralysis the latter part of June, is reported as quite weak.

Ray Richards of Lebanon arrived Monday for a visit of a week or ten days with his cousin, Fern Sidwell.

Charles Smith came down from Marcola Wednesday to join a hunting party which was going up the McKenzie.

Mrs. John McFerrin of Portland is here for a visit with her daughter, Mrs. Elza Sutton and her son, E. E. Morrison.

—Good reliable fire insurance. No assessments; no membership fee. Pay once and you are done. H. E. Walker at the City Hall.

Two hundred bales of this season's hops have been brought in already for storage in the Morrison and Calkins warehouse.

Mrs. E. E. Lewman of Bryan, Colo., arrived Monday evening for a visit of several weeks with her mother, Mrs. W. J. Billings, and other relatives and friends in this vicinity.

Mrs. Beatrice Crouch and her daughter Thelma returned on Saturday from Yoncalla, where they had spent a week at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Applegate.

—Sale on Porch Furniture. $2.00 child swing $1.25, hung to suit. $6.50 Porch Swings $3.00, hung up. $5.00 Porch Seat $2.50. HAYDEN & METCALF Store, Springfield. Phone 83.

J. W. Machen left Cascade, Idaho, last week with several thousand sheep for the Chicago market. Mr. Machen has been doing quite an extensive business in sheep this season.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Chisman of Maltaband, Missouri, and Mrs. Eddie Quisberry of Central City, who have been visiting at the Z. Mountjoy home, started for home yesterday. They will stop in Montana for a visit.

A carload of household goods was unloaded today for Dick Adams and family, who have arrived from Pendleton, and will make their home in the vicinity of Springfield, when they find a suitable location. For the present they are staying with his brother-in-law, G. L. Dunn, who lives in the Douglas Gardens.

—Be a Booster for your own town. Buy Knoxall Flour, at all groceries, at only $1.45 a sack.

Frank Rudrauff, one of the proprietors of the Bell theatre, was confined to his home today by reason of illness.

Special eighth grade examinations are being held today and tomorrow at the Lincoln building under the direction of H. C. Ethell.

Mrs. J. F. Miles and daughter, Mary Susan, of Marshall, Missouri, are visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. N. Williams on Sixth and C streets.

Ten hogs from W. H. Sanders of Jasper, consigned to Portland, were transferred today from the Oakridge train to the Eugene train here. The ten hogs weighed dressed, 1211 pounds.

Mrs. Jack Littell returned to her home in Portland after a visit with relatives here for several weeks. Mr. Littell was here on business for the internal revenue office and went with Mrs. Littell.

Chief of Police Staniger was out today with the oil wagon re-line east Main street which is getting dusty under the heavy auto travel. A grader will be taken out to drag back some of the dust that is blown out by the rapid passage of cars.

—A new Colgate soap at Peery.

For butter wrappers phone Springfield 2.

—Save 1-3 by buying Rexall School Tablets at Peery's.

—Will the party who found lady's white jacket in Walker's Grove after I. O. O. F. picnic please leave at News Office.

Thurman Riggs returned Monday from a week's vacation spent in the southern part of the state around Medford and other points.

Mrs. M. Y. Warner of Eugene was in Springfield Wednesday on her way home after an outing in camp on the farm of her brother, Grant Hyland, at Reserve.

A score of members of the Eugene camp, Woodmen of the World, attended the meeting of the Springfield camp Tuesday evening and helped with a lively program. Light refreshments were served.

—You don't have to pay a big price to get a good flour, we have an Eastern Oregon flour at $1.40 Sk. or $5.40 Bbl. Try a sack, you can't lose if it don't please, we will refund your money. Mrs. E. V. Sneed & Sons.

B. G. Leedy, formerly master of the Oregon State Grange, and Mrs. Leedy of Corvallis, and Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Bond of Eugene and Mrs. Freeman and Mrs. Roseburg, called on Dr. and Mrs. Pollard Tuesday and also visited the Booth-Kelly mill. Dr. Pollard and Mr. Leedy formerly lived on adjoining farms.

—Save money by trading at the Feed Store. Our stock is large and complete and our prices are lower. We are equipped now to do any kind of Feed Grinding, Rolling and Cleaning. We can make your chicken feed and cow feed to order. A trial will prove our work superior.

Mrs. Eunice Reed expects to leave tomorrow morning for Oakland, California, for an extended visit with relatives and friends.

Miss Alice Staniger left yesterday afternoon for Elkton, Ore., where she has been engaged to teach the coming school year. Her school opens next Monday morning. Miss Staniger is a good teacher and the patrons of the Elkton schools will surely receive satisfactory service.

A. D. Ruddiman returned Monday from a month's vacation spent at Newport where his wife and little daughter Marjorie, have been since in June. The little girl is somewhat improved in health, but Mrs. Ruddiman will take her to Portland before returning home to consult a specialist. They expect to return about the 15th.

In just one month the pheasant season opens, and already the lovers of that sport are planning their campaign. The stories of the wonderful work of their dogs in past years has been revived, the number of birds secured in a day's work and many other interesting tales are being told. To date Harry Whitney and the old, old-time hunter, Henry McCollum, are leading in the number of birds brought down in one day.

SOCIAL NOTES

Miss Helen Stevenson was given a very pleasant birthday party Saturday afternoon at the home of her grandparents Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Baker, at Fifth and A streets. Games and a delicious luncheon passed away the time all too quickly. Those who enjoyed the afternoon were Dorris Sikes, Dorris Smith, Dorothy Holbrook, Edna Moe, Sylvia Strubin, Fern Travis, Velma Gore, Helen Stevenson.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Marion Biglow of Waltherville was a very pretty scene Sunday Aug. 29, when at high noon, their sister Miss Olive H. Biglow and Harold Kingsley Chase were united in marriage by Rev. J. H. Douglass. The bridal couple attended by Miss Jamie Shrode as bridesmaid and Elmo Chase as best man, entered the parlor to the strains of Mendelssohn's Wedding march played by Miss Jetty Shrode, and took their place beneath a large bell suspended from the center of an arch of white astors and carnations and cedar. The bride looked very charming in a gown of cream white satin with over lace, and her veil was held in place with a wreath of carnations and she carried a beautiful shower bouquet of white carnations. The bridesmaid's dress was silk crepe tissue and she carried a bouquet of pink roses. After the wedding a sumptuous three course wedding breakfast was served. Mrs. Biglow was assisted in serving by Miss Jettie Shrode and Miss Ruby Weaning.

The bride is the accomplished daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Biglow of Springfield and Mr. Chase is the oldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank B. Chase living two miles north-east of Springfield. Mr. and Mrs. Chase left for a short wedding trip up the McKenzie and upon their return will be at home in a new bungalow the groom has prepared on the river road North-east of Springfield.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank B. Chase have invitations out for a reception at their home Thursday evening in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Chase.

HOUD LAND PRODUCTS SHOW IN PORTLAND

(Continued from Page 1.)

be sent to Portland for display.

Special excursion rates will be given by the railroads leading into Portland. Many cities and towns of the state will have special days at the Exposition, and amusement features will be included in the daily programs. Lectures by experts on many subjects of interest have been arranged for.

—Madam LaMar, Clarivoyant, is still located at the Plymouth House, 363 Willamette street, Eugene. Rooms 14-15.

W. J. Barnes formerly of this place but who is now located in Berkeley, California, arrived in Springfield Tuesday and will spend the rest of the week here on business.

Rye Seven Feet Tall

The Western World has on display some rye—not in the liquid form, but the real grain stems—that is seven feet or more tall. It comes from the four acre patch grown by W. C. Dark near Bandon. It looks exceptionally fine and indicates a wonderful growth for this season of the year.

They also tell of a Caila Lilly grown near Bandon which measured five feet long from flower to end of stem, six inches across flower, and ten inches

In Order to Reduce My Stock of Suits I Will Give

A 20% Discount

On any Suit in the store. That means a saving of $3.50 to $5 on a Suit. Worth saving, isn't it? Come in and see if you can find anything that will fit you.

We also have a full line of

Gloves for Hoppicking—Ladies and Mens

C. E. Sales, Toggery

A Call FOR TRAINED WORKERS

Business calls continually for trained young men and women. Trained workers are always in demand. It is they who receive the choice positions—who get the premium salaries. It is the young people who enter business trained for better service who become the department heads, the executives and proprietors.

Prepare for Success

A few months' training made possible the achievements of Rockefeller, of Vanderlip, of Perkins and thousands of other business men and women of today. A business training will open up even greater opportunities to you. You will not want to go through life serving in small jobs at poor pay, when only a few months' (time separates you from success. Decide now to be one of the successful business people of tomorrow. Be one of the dozens of young men and women that go forth from this school in the next year, trained for success. We can start you just as we have hundreds of others in a splendid paying position.

Let us tell you more about our courses. Call, phone or write today for more information.

Eugene Business College

137 E. 9th Street :: :: :: :: EUGENE, OREGO

KEEP YOUR EYE

On the Lane County News' Classified Column. It is the "mutual benefit salesman of Springfield, for it profits both buyer and seller.

Advertise if you want to sell; advertise for what you need. The Classified Column reaches the people you want to reach.

RATES LOW.

Lane County News

Grocery Buying Doesn't Require

the time and thought and attention that it used to.

Nowadays, at this modern store, we take care of the "worry part" of your grocery buying—we stand between you and impure foods and undesirable goods,—and the cost is no more than for inferior goods.

Get the Habit of Trading Here.

Larimer's

—REMEMBER, we can furnish you with a winter supply of Flour, Feed and Hay as cheaply as you can buy it of the farmer. Give us the business and help support an efficient medium of exchange. It is for the farmer's benefit as well as your own. We guarantee our stock, offer you free delivery and accommodations that you cannot get elsewhere. We save you money in the long run. Springfield Feed Company.

Two dozen or more of the members of the local lodge of Rebekahs were guests of the Bell theatre management Tuesday evening. The films included a Pathe news with three good Pacific coast events, including Governor Withycombe at the military camp at Gearhart, and the Shriners at Seattle. The feature of the evening was four extra reels showing resources of eastern Oregon, the trip of the steamers from Lewiston, Idaho, through the Cello canal to Astoria, with a large number of views of the Astoria water front, and the big docks at Flavel where the fast Hill liners sail.

—Wanted, everybody that reads this add to call at Walker & Holbrook Hardware and Furniture store and look over the fine assortment of Rugs just received and our Prices are the lowest ever quoted on anywhere near this quality of goods. Make your selection now. WALKER & HOLBROOK, Hardware and House Furnishers, Springfield.

Don't Get Wet

and carry around a load of water and a coil.

Tower's Fish Brand

Reflex Slicker

$3.00

sheds every drop. Easy fitting and strong at every point. Reflex Edges stop every drop from running in at the front.

Protector Hat, 75 cents

Satisfaction Guaranteed

Send for catalog

A. J. TOWER CO.

BOSTON

gon has filed in the Office of the County Clerk for said County, his "Certificate of Completion" of work on County Road No. 309-1/2, in accordance with Contract with Roylance and Messinger, who have completed said work and any person, firm, or corporation having objections to file, to the completion of said work are hereby notified to do so within two weeks from the date of this Notice, in the office of the County Clerk.

Dated September 2, 1915.

STACY M. RUSSELL, County Clerk.

NOTICE TO WOOD CONTRACTORS

Notice is hereby given that sealed bids will be received by H. E. Walker, Recorder of the Town of Springfield, Oregon, until 8 o'clock P. M. Monday September 13, 1915, for the delivery to the Town of Springfield, Oregon, at the City Hall in said town, Fifteen (15) Cord's of four foot wood. Bidders are requested to bid on either Oak, Ash, Maple and Fir.

Said wood to be delivered at the City Hall in said town within ten days after the letting of the contract.

Council reserves the right to reject any or all bids.

By order of the Common Council, Dated this 1st day of September 1915.

HERBERT E. WALKER, Town Recorder.

NOTICE

Notice is herewith given that the County Surveyor of Lane County, Ore-

NOTICE OF MEETING OF BOARD OF EQUALIZATION

Notice is hereby given that the Board of Equalization for Lane County, Oregon, will attend at the court house of said County on Monday, September 13th, 1915, and continue in session for one week.

Dated this 21st day of August, 1915.

Benj. F. Keeney, County Assessor.

Ekklesians Notice

The Ekklesians society of the M. E. church will hold its monthly social on the river bank west of town Friday evening. Every member is requested to bring a lunch and meet at 7 o'clock at the church. Friends are welcome.