

Did You Ever Think Of It?

The success of the prescription depends entirely upon the order in which it is compounded.

You get best results when your prescriptions are compounded in this store, because of our safe, sure and accurate methods. We use nothing but the finest drugs and chemicals, and follow the doctor's directions with exactness.

Day and Night Phone 31

Tales of the Town

Hall for cheaper soles and heels.

A new Colgate soap at Perry.

Hubert Travis went to Portland Tuesday on a business trip.

Gore & Rowe this week sold two Astoria lots to a Mr. Cobine of Marcola.

Mrs. Ruedy of Portland was a registered guest at Elite hotel Monday night.

Cash Mead moved his household goods yesterday to his farm near Walterville.

Long & Cross delivered a furnace today to the union high school at Thurston.

Mr. and Mrs. Stroud Long of Camp Creek were in Springfield Wednesday on a short visit.

Having rented the cafeteria, have moved my office up stairs in the front rooms. J. P. Fry.

Mrs. M. Thompson returned to Portland today after visiting her sister, Mrs. Gilbert Miller, for several weeks.

James Withrow, who is hunting on the upper McKenzie, this week sent down a fine buck to be put in cold storage for him.

N. A. Rowe and T. L. Campbell went to Marcola and Mabel on business Tuesday, returning the same night.

Born—On Monday, September 20, 1915, to Mr. and Mrs. Ransom Miller, a son, weight 8 1-2 pounds.

J. F. Ames returned Tuesday from the harvest fields of eastern Washington, where he had been employed for the past three months.

No less than four road crews are at work along the McKenzie road, between Springfield and Vlda. They are putting the road in good shape for the winter.

Colgate's Talcums 15c at Peery's.

A. J. Smith of Marcola, was in Springfield today on business.

L. E. Durbin, machinist at the Oregon Power Co.'s plant, is on the sick list today.

The Powers house at Fifth and A streets, occupied by S. H. Baker, is being repainted.

Room for rent to gentleman in private family. Well ventilated and nicely furnished. Call at this office.

The W. C. T. U. will meet at the home of Mrs. J. B. Campbell on Friday afternoon Sept. 24, at 2:30. Please be there.

Madam LaMar, Clairvoyant, is still located at the Plymouth House, 363 Willamette street, Eugene. Rooms 14-15.

Paul Kelly, manager of the Willamette Poster Advertising Co., was in Springfield Tuesday interviewing members of the council.

Good reliable fire insurance. No assessments; no membership fee. Pay once and you are done. H. E. Walker at the City Hall.

Will Bishop this week installed three gas lamps in his barber shop, replacing electric lights. Gas is supposed to give a better light for his work.

Fred Bressler, manager of the M. C. Bressler & Co. store, has moved from B street near Fifth to the Tom Ohlsen house at Ninth and C streets.

G. C. Blower of the Cromwell School of Memory Training will give a demonstration of his system before the pupils of the local schools this afternoon.

Mrs. A. E. Ames and sons, Giles and Clifford of West Springfield returned on Friday from a visit of four weeks with her aunt, Mrs. J. Q. Rogers of Albany.

Cox & Cox sold 441 sacks of flour yesterday as the result of an advertisement in The News and a few circulars distributed early this week.

Henry Korf was elected by the Springfield Odd Fellows to attend the meeting in Eugene tonight to arrange preliminaries for next year's Odd Fellows' picnic.

Mrs. John R. Chezem of Pleasant Hill died at her home on Monday evening, September 20, aged 38 years. Funeral services were held at Goshen yesterday and interment made in the Laurel Grove cemetery.

Miss Mable Brabham of Santa Clara spent a few hours in Springfield Wednesday on business and calling on friends. The Brabham family expect to move back to Springfield in a couple weeks and occupy their old home on Mill and Main streets.

David Eby returned from Cottage Grove Monday night to be present at the meeting of the Lane County Pioneer association at the fair grounds today. When the association was formed five years ago Mr. Eby was elected its first president, and he has been re-elected each year ever since.

Hear the new Edison Disc Phonographs at Peery's.

Save 1-3 by buying Rexall School Tablets at Peery's.

Miss Mildred McKinney is employed at the Springfield Laundry.

George Campbell returned on Saturday from a trip to Foley Springs.

Miss Lillian Baker has been ill at her home today unable to attend school.

S. T. Wilson and family, who have been living in the Pruneville neighborhood, left today for Lodge Pole, Nebraska, to reside.

D. Crouch expects to leave in a few days for Spokane, after a week at home.

Mrs. John Fitzhugh of Coburg was a guest at the W. L. Dunlap home Tuesday night.

Mrs. Dr. Kester was called to Portland Tuesday owing to the poor health of her daughter Mrs. E. G. Jarvis.

J. F. Piror of Yoncalla who has been in Springfield on business for several days returned to his home today.

Miss Verna Tagg, instructor in the High school, was unable to attend classes today because of an attack of tonsillitis.

After October 1st you will find Wolf & Miller in the Odd Fellows building in the room occupied by Edwards & Brattain.

The 13 year old son of Mr. and G. W. Smith of Natron was taken to the hospital today suffering with an attack of appendicitis.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Richmond and family are now located on B street between 7th and 8th, having moved this week from Willamette Heights.

Mrs. I. H. Tison of Barview, Oregon arrived in Springfield Monday evening and will visit for two weeks at the home of parents Mr. and Mrs. Bauer.

Mrs. Hannah Hill was elected by the Rebekah lodge Monday evening as delegate to the meeting of Odd Fellows and Rebekahs in Eugene this evening to lay plans for next year's Odd Fellows' picnic.

C. L. Gano, for a number of years manager of the Eugene Coffee club, has leased the room in the Fry building formerly occupied by the cafeteria, and about October 1 will open a restaurant and lunch counter.

M. Fenwick returned Monday evening from Portland where he had been on business for the past ten days. He was able to get away for a portion of the land grant conference, attending in his capacity as member of the legislature.

Attorney Amor A. Tussing of Brownsville and Charles Slavins and the Messrs. Scott of Crawfordville, came to Springfield by automobile today on a business and pleasure trip. Attorney Tussing is father of Dale Tussing of the Springfield Feed store.

Henry Keeney and family of Holly, Oregon, on their way to Gold Hill for an outing, visit and hunting, passed through Springfield Wednesday and spent a few hours passing compliments on our town and people, and having a jolly good time. The party are making the trip by auto.

An interesting feature of the services for Sunday evening at the Baptist church will be a them of sermon by Rev. Ferris. There will also be special music. Theme of sermon by Rev. Ferris will be "Wanted." The young people will be especially interested in this service. Dr. Ferris has had very flattering offers for public work in this line and has been accounted in the east much above the average elocutionist.

Evan Masterson and family and Dan Gore and family returned Tuesday night from a weeks camping trip up the McKenzie. They spent a time at Blue River and went on to Belknap Springs before returning. The men of the party secured three fine deer, and all the fish they wanted. The women of the party also had an experience with big game when a six-point buck dashed between the tents, pitched a rod apart, and swam across the river.

Z. T. Collins who was hurt at the Booth-Kelley mill a week ago is getting along very nicely.

Misses Anna and Marie Chellone of Cottage Grove were in Springfield Wednesday on their way to Corvallis.

Leonard Hoover, an employe of the Booth-Kelley company, is very ill at his home here with an attack of appendicitis.

Mrs. Clay Parker of Landax visited last night with Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Dunlap and today went over to Eugene to attend the fair.

Steve Bowles, barber in Will Bishop's shop, left Tuesday for a hunting trip at Blue River. He left word he would stay until he had two deer.

H. A. Northrup, a representative of the Portland Oregonian accompanied by Mrs. Northrup, have been in Springfield for the past few days.

The Domestic Science class of the Springfield High school attended the Lane County Fair today and served refreshments to the fair crowds.

Mrs. C. Trotter of Walterville and sister Miss Grace Farnum came down this morning for a visit of a week or ten days with Mrs. Zella Cantrell.

William C. Young, son and daughter Hazel left Tuesday for Corvallis to pick hops in some of the late yards. They will visit friends there before returning.

Mayor C. L. Scott the past week installed a private water system at his place on east Main street. A motor-driven pump, with an automatic switch, has been installed.

REMEMBER, we can furnish you with a winter supply of Flour, Feed and Hay as cheaply as you can buy it of the farmer. Give us the business and help support an efficient medium of exchange. It is for the farmer's benefit as well as your own. We guarantee our stock, offer you free delivery and accommodations that you cannot get elsewhere. We save you money in the long run. Springfield Feed Company.

NOTICE FOR PUBLICATION Department of the Interior, U. S. Land Office at Roseburg, Oregon, September 20, 1915.

Notice is hereby given that Robert H. Nesbitt, of R. F. D. No. 1, Creswell, Ore., who, on November 4, 1913, made Adjoining Farm Homestead Entry, No. 09170, for Lot 5, Section 26, Township 18 S. Range 2 W, Willamette Meridian, has filed notice of intention to make Final Commutation Proof, to establish claim to the land above described, before I. E. Hewitt U. S. Commissioner, at his office, at Eugene, Oregon, on the 1st day of November, 1915.

Chaimant names as witnesses: Thomas J. Elliott, of R. F. D. No. 1, Creswell, Oregon; Levi Casleman, of R. F. D. No. 1, Creswell, Oregon; Fred Cook, of R. F. D. No. 1, Creswell, Oregon; Henry Nesbit, of R. F. D. No. 1, Creswell, Oregon. Date to Oct 28

Use the Fast, Frequent Trains of the Oregon Electric Railway to the 54th Annual State Fair

Week of September 27-October 2

Reduced Round Trip Fares

From all Oregon Electric Stations. Tickets sold daily, September 23 to October 2, Return Limit, October 6.

FROM:	TO:
Eugene	Corvallis
Payetteville	Forest Grove
Albany	Hillsboro
Harrisburg	Tualatin
Junction City	Tulsa
Tigard	Woodburn
Wilsonville	Donald
Oreco

Corresponding reductions from other points. Special Days—Monday, Children's; Tuesday, Women's, Good Roads; Wednesday, Salem, Woodmen's, State Societies; Thursday, Portland, Transportation, Elks; Friday, Press, Oregon Manufacturers, Scandinavian; Saturday, Shriners, Orange, Pioneers.

H. R. KNIGHT, Agent.

Grocery Buying Doesn't Require

the time and thought and attention that it used to.

Nowadays, at this modern store, we take care of the "worry part" of your grocery buying—we stand between you and impure foods and undesirable goods,—and the cost is no more than for inferior goods.

Get the Habit of Trading Here.

Larimer's

OREGON STATE FAIR

J. H. BOOTH, President

W. AL JONES, Secretary

SALEM, Monday to Saturday

Sept., 27th to Oct., 2nd.

Willamette Valley Day Wednesday

Fireworks Tuesday Night

COME AND CAMP

VEHICLES ADMITTED FREE