

Try
A Box of the Famous

BLACK AND WHITE CHOCOLATES

40c AND 75c
A BOX

Exclusive Agents for Springfield.

Day and Night Phone 31

Tales of the Town

Joe Lusby spent the week-end in Coburg.

Mrs. Nettie McGilvray returned to her duties at the Cox & Cox store Saturday.

Mrs. N. L. Howard spent the week-end at Fall Creek with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Brown.

Mr. and Mrs. S. Young have received word from their son, Sam, Jr. who recently enlisted in the 67th battalion, Western Scouts of Canada, at Victoria, that he has been promoted to be lance corporal.

—Go to the Palace of Sweets to buy peanuts, 5 cents a quart.

Mrs. James Laxton, who has been sick for several weeks, is able to be up and about the house.

—Home made Hot Tamales 15 cents—2 for 25 cents, at the Palace of Sweets.

—Do you want dry feet. Come see Hall the Shoe Doctor, Fifth and Main.

Ruby Senseney suffered a bad sprain of her ankle last week, and is now able to get around without crutches.

Miss Bertha Harpole, who is teaching at Goldson, Oregon, spent Saturday and Sunday with her aunt, Mrs. James Laxton.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Walker went to Marcola Saturday. He returned in the afternoon. Mrs. Walker will be back this evening.

D. S. Beals, cashier of the First National bank, and John Ketels of the Ketels Drug store, spent Sunday with Dr. C. Harold Palmer at Mabel.

Born—On Sunday, November 14, 1915, at the Springfield hospital, to Mr. and Mrs. M. P. Cyr of Bellingham, Washington, a son, weight ten pounds.

Special social entertainment is being planned to follow the regular meeting of the United Artisans next Wednesday evening. Pumpkin pie, cider and doughnuts will be served.

Miss Elohah Newman, and her brothers, Theron and Marnil, went to Portland Friday to visit their father, C. T. Newman of Hamilton, Montana, who was on his way to San Francisco, Texas and Chicago on a business and pleasure trip.

D. Crouch returned home Friday from Spokane, for a short visit here.

—The W. C. T. U. will hold a food sale Saturday, November 20, at Nice & Miller's.

Mrs. J. L. Allen is still ill at the home of her son, J. A. Allen, D and First streets.

L. F. McDaniels spent the week-end at Creswell on business and visiting friends.

—It will pay you to read our adv. on another page of this issue. Springfield Feed, Co.

S. Cook of Harrisburg was in Springfield Saturday consulting a physician about Mrs. Cook's health.

—Have discontinued giving out Fidelity Stamps. Bring in your books and see about premiums. COX & COX.

Frank Bergman, suffering an attack of typhoid, was brought from Mabel yesterday for treatment at the Springfield hospital.

Mrs. N. A. Harbit and daughter Naomi, visited yesterday with the former's brother, S. W. B. Haynes and family of Eugene.

—Good reliable fire insurance. No assessments; no membership fee. Pay once and you are done. H. E. Walker at the City Hall.

J. E. Farrell, who underwent an operation at the Springfield hospital several weeks ago, was over from Eugene today on business.

George Jones and family moved last week from Mill street to the second story of the fire department building on F street between Sixth and Seventh.

Mrs. S. P. Gilmore and daughter Grace of Junction City were guests of Mrs. James Laxton on Sunday. Miss Grace is a student of the University of Oregon.

Mrs. Charles Hardt of Winnemucca, Nevada, arrived Saturday for a visit with friends in Springfield. She brought with her her mother, who has been staying with a son in Salem.

The Ladies of the G. A. R. will hold a called meeting this afternoon for the purpose of meeting the department president, Mrs. Anna Kornbrodt of Oak Grove and the department instructor, Mrs. Ada Tabor of Portland. These officers of the order are making a tour of the state and are visiting all circles from here to Albany.

C. W. Hanson was in from Thurston Saturday.

Fred W. Titus, the Marcola merchant, was in Springfield on business today.

Mrs. J. S. McKay is able to be out again after a three weeks' siege of the grip.

Mrs. Emma Olsen spent Sunday in Coburg with her daughter, Nora, who is central operator there.

Kenneth Park, who had his left arm broken while playing on a trapeze at school, is getting along nicely.

Mrs. W. A. Brassfield, who underwent an operation in Portland a few weeks ago, is now able to sit up.

Mrs. W. H. Pollard and family went to Portland Friday for a visit with relatives, and returned Sunday evening.

Paul Smith, formerly a resident of Coburg, was in Springfield Friday and Saturday calling on old acquaintances.

Mrs. Roy Jenkins and daughter Ealine, are expected here tonight from Portland. Her sister, Mrs. Harold Fox, will come with her.

—Get your re-cleaned seed grain at the Springfield Feed Store. Cheat, Winter Oats, Vetch and Field grasses. Prices lowest possible.

Mrs. Tom Olsen, formerly of Springfield, but now living in Eugene, was operated on at the hospital there again last week, and was able to be taken to her home again yesterday.

There will be no sessions of the public schools next week, for the teachers will be at the county institute in Eugene for the first three days of the week, and then comes Thanksgiving and "the day after."

Herbert Cox, accountant for the Booth-Kelly Co., accompanied by his wife, went to Coburg Friday to attend to some work for the company. Mrs. Cox's mother, Mrs. Clover, returned with them Sunday and will spend a week in Springfield.

The Springfield Feed company shipped a quantity of vetch seed from Marcola to Corvallis last week. Manager Lyon of the company says they have made several shipments of this kind this fall. The feed company, which started in business here only two years ago, has already built up a substantial business and is proving a valuable means of exchange for this section of the country.

WHEN IN NEED OF

HARDWARE, FURNITURE, A RANGE, HEATER, RUG, OR PAINTS AND OILS

SEE HOLBROOK & JOHNSON

A Hat Free
With a Suit of Clothes

We have just received shipments of the latest styles of men's and youths' All Wool Suits, which we have priced at $12.50 $15.00 $17.50 $20.00 $22.50 $25.00

With each one of these suits bought before November 24, we will give your choice of any $2.50 or $3.00 hat in the house.

C. E. SALES' Toggery

Mrs. W. S. Dodd of Natron was in Springfield today on a business trip.

Oliver Johnson went to Salem Friday on a business trip, and returned the same evening.

Charles Strubbin returned on Friday, from Warco county, where he has been spending the summer.

E. M. Reagan, Editor of the Albany Herald was in Springfield Saturday a short time on business.

—Look for our adv. marked "Special" on another page of this paper. Springfield Feed Company.

Kenneth DeLassuf of Cottage Grove spent the week-end in Springfield with his mother, Mrs. Riley Snodgrass.

Carl Fischer and J. E. McKibben of the Fischer-Boutin Lumber company, went to Sheridan yesterday on a business trip of several days.

Charles L. Wetzell, a resident of Eugene, and well known in Springfield, was here on business today. He had been spending the summer in eastern Oregon.

Rev. H. C. Ethell returned this morning from Wendling where he conducted services in the Methodist church last evening. He preached at Donna in the morning.

L. E. Durrin, machinist for the Oregon Power company, who has been at Dallas for several days, doing some repair work on the company's plant there, returned home Thursday night.

Edward Dillsaver of Douglas, Alaska, stopped off Saturday evening on his way home from San Francisco, to spend a few days with his friend, Dan Gore. Mr. Dillsaver will leave tomorrow for the north. He is much impressed by the situation and prospects of Springfield.

Lynn Lansbery suffered a bad cut in the palm of the hand last week while taking a cow out to pasture. He was leading the animal by a chain, when it ran, drawing the chain so rapidly through the hand that it was cut deeply. Several stitches were required to close the wound.

Mrs. A. D. Williams, who has been visiting for the past several months in Boston and other eastern cities, arrived Sunday to join her husband here. They are occupying the Robert Drury house on Fifth street. Their home is in Los Angeles, but Mr. Williams wanted to spend several months in Oregon so he could enjoy the hunting and fishing hereabouts. The Williams were dinner guests Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. McCulloch.

W. W. Killam, who has been living on south Second street, has leased the J. L. Crook ranch north of Springfield, and has bought the household goods, farm machinery and 285 pure stock Plymouth Rock and Rhode Island Red chickens, and will go to raising chickens. Mr. and Mrs. Crook leave in about two weeks for Sunnyside, Washington, where he has an alfalfa ranch.

D. O. Smith of Natron was in Springfield this morning on a business trip.

Fred Bressler of Bressler & Son, underwent an operation Saturday for the removal of his tonsils.

The doors of the Hampton store have been rehung so as to swing both inward and outward.

The Springfield Feed company expects to receive this week a car each of Johnson's Best and Cupid flours.

Cliff Weaver, who is taking a course in the school of pharmacy at Corvallis, spent the week-end in Springfield.

J. J. P. Myers was brought in from the James Seavey hop ranch Friday night and was operated on at once for appendicitis.

Riley Snodgrass, A. Middleton, and Harry Stewart left this morning for Gardiner on a fishing and hunting trip that will last all week.

Dale Tussing, formerly in the Springfield Feed company, has written Mr. Lyon from Brothers, Oregon, that he has his house built on his homestead and is ready for the winter.

A sink in Tom Abene's apartment became clogged Saturday afternoon and water soaked through the ceiling into the Racket store below. No particular damage was done.

Two carloads of steel rails were taken out the Wendling line last week for Montgomery brothers, who are building a logging spur from the railroad a mile and a half this side of Wendling.

Mrs. W. L. McFarland, of Mac's station on the P. E. & E. was taken to the Eugene hospital Saturday and will undergo at that institution today. Mrs. McFarland is the mother of Mrs. Roy Jenkins.

—Come to our Japanese Tea Garden, held at the home of Mrs. M. J. McKlin, Sixth and D streets, Thursday, November 18, from 2:30 until 9 P. M. Refreshments, 10c. Everybody invited.

A door has been cut in the partition between the recorder's and the police chief's office in the city hall. The city treasurer will probably use the chief's room, and thus do away with the necessity of carrying the record books a long distance to the vault each night.

The Baptist church desires the presence of their friends at a reception to be given their pastor and wife, Rev. W. N. Ferris and Dr. Keeney Ferris, in the church auditorium Wednesday, November 17, at 8:00 P. M. A program of good addresses, special music and a cordial welcome awaits you. Dr. Ford, Rev. N. W. Davis of the Eugene church will speak.

COMMITTEE.

I wish to thank the members of the Emanon club for the fine fruit sent my wife during her illness.

Gilbert Davis.

Bouncing Health and Active Brain

Come naturally with childhood, but in later years are usually the result of right living—

Proper Food Plays a Big Part

Many foods—especially those made from white flour—are woefully deficient in certain mineral salts which are essential to life, health and happiness.

To supply these vital mineral elements so often lacking in the usual daily diet, a food expert originated

Grape-Nuts

This food, made of choice wheat and malted barley, supplies all the nutriment of the grains, including the phosphate of potash, etc., required for the daily rebuilding of body and brain.

Grape-Nuts has a delicious, nut-like flavour—is ready to eat direct from the package with cream or good milk, and is complete nourishment.

"There's a Reason for Grape-Nuts"

Sold by Grocers everywhere.

Social Notes

The Needlecraft met at the home of Mrs. J. E. Richmond on Thursday evening. The meeting was called for the purpose of initiating three candidates, Mrs. Vin Williams, Mrs. Mae Stevenson and Mrs. A. M. Beaver into the mysteries of the club. Those present had a most enjoyable time. The hostess served dainty refreshments. Mrs. Richmond's guests were Mrs. M. J. Bally, Mrs. Carl Fischer, Mrs. R. L. Kirk, Mrs. George Catching, Mrs. H. E. Walker, Mrs. W. F. Walker, Mrs. J. P. Fry, Mrs. W. H. Pollard. The next regular meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Catching, December 9.

The Progressive Twenty-Two held a very enjoyable business and social meeting Friday evening at the home of Mrs. G. N. Griffin. After the routine of the evening, a fine two-course luncheon was served. The members present were: Mrs. William Donaldson, Mrs. W. F. Walker, Mrs. H. E. Walker, Mrs. M. G. Bally, Mrs. Vina McLean, Mrs. Hannah Hill, Mrs. L. E. Durrin, Mrs. J. P. Fry, Mrs. Al. Montgomery, Mrs. Jessie Newman, Mrs. J. E. Stanger, Miss Alice Kester. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Hill on December 10.

The Gleaners will meet with Mrs. Charles Stires Thursday afternoon. All ladies are welcome.

A joint social, given at the Baptist church Saturday evening by the Epworth League, the Baptist union and the Christian Endeavor, in honor of the extension committee of the University Y. M. C. A. was greatly enjoyed by the 120 or more who were present. Many novel games were played, and the committee in charge had so well completed its work that every one present had a very jolly time.

The Kensington club held one of its pleasant afternoon gatherings at the home of Mrs. H. W. Whitney on Thursday, spending the time with needlework, after which dainty refreshments were served. Mrs. W. L. Dunlap and Mrs. McGowan were club guests and the following members were present: Mrs. H. A. Korf, Mrs. C. E. Swarts, Mrs. C. E. Wheaton, Mrs. J. W. Coffin, Mrs. O. B. Kessey, Mrs. L. May, Mrs. N. W. Emery, Mrs. H. W. Whitney.

The Berean class of the Christian church was most pleasantly entertained at the home of Mrs. Arthur McCracken, Tenth and E streets, last Friday evening. After the business matters demanding the attention of the class had been considered, games were played, and light refreshments were served.

A large number of townspeople attended the meeting of the Springfield High school literary society Friday evening. An unusually good program was rendered.

Mrs. VanValzah's and Mr. Bartholomew's classes of the Methodist Sunday school will hold a social at the church on Wednesday evening.

The Knights and Ladies of Security will give a dance in the Reapers' hall Thanksgiving night, November 25.