

GET YOUR THANKSGIVING
POST CARDS

NOW

1 CENT EACH
10 CENTS PER DOZEN

Day and Night Phone 31

Tales of the Town

Gainey Jacoby of Jasper was in Springfield this morning.

Mrs. Wence Hileman of Marcola was in Springfield Saturday.

Do you want dry feet. Come see Hall the Shoe Doctor, Fifth and Main.

Mrs. J. F. Volgamore of Marcola was in Springfield on business Saturday.

E. A. Baker of the Anti-Saloon league spoke at the Methodist church Sunday morning.

Get your Thanksgiving linen at a bargain offered by COX & COX for six days only.

Miss Allie Sharp and Mrs. D. Mitchell of Albany were in Springfield Saturday visiting friends.

Our Thanksgiving Special—Regular $1.35 large Size OVAL OAK ROASTER, while they last, 69 cents each.

HAYDEN & METCALF.

Jaunka Rebekah lodge announces an entertainment and special to be given in their hall Tuesday evening, November 30. A general invitation is extended to the public to attend.

Miss Myrtle Copenhaver, principal of the Wendling schools, came down Friday evening and will be at home until after Thanksgiving. She is attending teachers' institute in Eugene this week.

L. L. Woods and a Mr. Hartwig arrived Friday to visit Mr. Wood's parents and possibly to locate here. Mr. Woods said it felt "mighty good to jump from where everything was frozen up and still freezing, into a climate like ours."

Go to the Palace of Sweets to buy peanuts, 5 cents a quart.

Oren W. Hays, principal of the schools at Mapleton, is visiting relatives in Springfield.

COX & COX are offering some real bargains in Thanksgiving linen for six days only.

Home made Hot Tamales 15 cents—2 for 25 cents, at the Palace of Sweets.

The Methodist Home Missionary society will meet tomorrow at the home of Mrs. W. H. Pollard.

Have discontinued giving out Fidelity Stamps. Bring in your books and see about premiums. COX & COX.

Mrs. Walter Price of Marcola spent Saturday in Springfield at the home of her brother, Dr. and Mrs. W. H. Pollard. She returned home Sunday.

Train No. 98, from Albany and Brownsville, was over an hour late in arriving last evening. It had been late in getting down from Oakridge in the morning.

Oliver Johnson damaged his big touring car Saturday afternoon when he collided with a street car at Eleventh and Oak streets. One wheel was broken and the steering gear disarranged.

Rev. Mr. Deschner of the Portland Industrial Home, occupied the pulpit at the Methodist church Sunday evening. He was connected for eight years with the Morgan Memorial Institute of Boston. His address was very well received.

Mrs. Fred Montgomery, who is teaching school at Camp Creek, is down for the institute, which is being held in Eugene. Mrs. Sarah Elliott, who is keeping house for Mrs. Montgomery, is here for a visit over Thanksgiving with her daughter, Mrs. J. E. Edwards.

V. C. Proudfoot was last week sent to Springfield to take the evening trick as operator at the S. P. station. With the gravel trains leaving so early in the morning the day man could not remain on duty until they reported in the evening.

O. H. Jarrett, who assumes the superintendency of the local plant of the Booth-Kelly company, coming here from Wendling, took up his duties this morning. He has taken the Beadle house at Sixth and E streets, and has already moved his family from Wendling.

Work of cleaning out the fall-cn brick from the inside of the Booth-Kelly refuse burner was completed this morning, and it has been found that the iron shell was badly warped by the heat after the sections of brick fell in last week. It has not yet been announced whether this burner will be relined, or a new one constructed.

Miss Mabel Brabham is again confined to her bed.

James Seavey shipped a carload of hops today to points east.

Six days sale of Thanksgiving linen. See our display window. COX & COX.

Mrs. Ben Skinner of Wendling spent the week-end at the Sidwell home.

Miss Leora Tibbetts of Eugene spent Sunday at the Vin Williams home.

Nile Michael of Portland spent Saturday and Sunday with his parents here.

E. E. Paddock, a councilman in Independence, was in Springfield today on business and visiting at the Knapp home.

Oliver Beals of Shedd, Oregon, was in Springfield yesterday to see his brother, D. S. Beals, the cashier of the First National bank.

D. S. Beals received a letter yesterday from his wife who last week underwent an operation for appendicitis while visiting her parents at Pasadena, California. She writes that she expected to be out of the hospital.

T. D. Franklin and wife, who at present are living on the James Seavey ranch, where Mr. Franklin is manager, are preparing to leave for a two months visit with relatives in Missouri. They expect to leave Friday.

Mrs. F. R. Russell left Sunday night for an extended visit with her mother, Mrs. Potter, in Oakland, California. Mrs. Potter was quite severely ill while in Springfield last spring, but since she went to California, she has been much better.

Mrs. Dr. Kester went to Portland Saturday evening to take Baby Jarvis home to Mrs. Kester's daughter, Mrs. E. G. Jarvis. Mrs. W. S. Thurlow, another daughter of Mrs. Kester returned to Portland with her. Mrs. Thurlow had been here for several weeks visiting with her mother. Mrs. Kester is expected home tonight.

E. E. Morrison of the Wesco Seed Co., this morning received edives that his company had received four gold medals at the San Francisco fair on their potatoes displayed from Washington, and a gold medal, two silver medals and an honorable mention for potatoes grown in Oregon. Limited display from this state prevented the winning of more honors.

Not half enough cars for the Booth-Kelly Lumber company's shipments from Springfield and Wendling mills are arriving, according to L. L. Lewis, the company's sales manager. For several weeks the shortage has been particularly felt. Mr. Lewis said yesterday that for a short time enough cars were supplied, but the shortage is as bad now as ever.

Ed. Heterbrand of Roseburg registered at the Elite Saturday night.

J. A. Allen of the firm of Bean & Allen, went to Leaburg on business Saturday.

M. C. Bressler went to Ashland on business last week, and is expected home this evening.

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. McCulloch left Saturday for San Francisco to visit the fair in its closing days.

Three converts of the Apostolic Faith mission were baptized in the Willamette river this morning.

Mrs. W. W. McDonald went to Oakland and Roseburg today for a visit with her parents over Thanksgiving.

Mrs. Welby Stevens, who has been very ill at her home on north Mill street, is now able to be up and about the house.

C. Olson of Mapleton, a former resident of Springfield, is here on business and for a visit with his daughter, Miss Sylvia Olson.

Good reliable fire insurance. No assessments; no membership fee. Pay once and you are done. H. E. Walker at the City Hall.

Mrs. W. L. McFarland, mother of Mrs. Roy Jenkins, who underwent an operation at the Eugene hospital last week, is reported as making rapid progress toward recovery.

Lloyd, Gabriel and C. S. Roberts, B. T. DeLoach and T. Adrian Winter, all students of the O. A. C., attended the Idillio dance in Springfield Saturday evening and remained over Sunday with friends here.

Mrs. Art Vallier fell on the sidewalk while going to the wood shed Saturday evening and was rendered unconscious when she struck the back of her head. She was reported as better today, although still confined to her bed.

Geo. Perkins and R. Simmering went to Portland today to visit a week with Mr. and Mrs. H. Cogill, former residents of Springfield. Mr. Simmering is here from Pentwater, Michigan, spending the winter with his daughter Mrs. Minnie Kahler.

Social Notes

One of the most successful affairs of the week was the Japanese Tea Garden, held on last Thursday at the home of Mrs. M. J. McKlin at Sixth and D. The spacious rooms were transformed into a bit of the Orient. Multitudes of chrysanthemums, cherry blossoms and oriental hangings were used in the decorations, together with curious and weird insects and imported turtles to give the desired atmosphere. Dainty Japanese maidens and matrons dispensed tea to the many callers who happened in between 2 and 9 o'clock, and lingered, loath to leave. They were favored with selections on the Victrola by Miss Eunice Parker. The ladies in charge of the tea were Mrs. H. E. Walker, Mrs. Silas Gay, Mrs. M. L. France, Mrs. M. J. McKlin, Mrs. L. E. Durrin, Mrs. McKinney, Mrs. John Parker, Mrs. A. A. Valentine, who gave of their time and services in the interest of the Ladies Aid of the Christian church.

On Thursday evening at 6:30 o'clock, November 18, 1915, at the home on Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Stitt on Broad street occurred the marriage of their daughter, Blanche C., to Mr. Guy C. Scheible, Rev. W. A. Wood officiating. The wedding was a quiet one, there being only the parents and sister, Mrs. J. B. Sowash, present to witness the ceremony, after which dinner was served. Mr. and Mrs. Scheible will be at home to their friends in Monmouth.—Monmouth Herald.

Mrs. Scheible is a sister of Mrs. C. E. Lenhart and has many friends in Springfield having lived with her sister here for some time.

The Ekklesian class of the Methodist Sunday school held a very enjoyable social and business session at the church Saturday evening. The class room was decorated with the colors of the University of Oregon and O. A. C., and the entertainment of the evening was provided by di-

WHEN IN NEED OF

HARDWARE, FURNITURE, A RANGE, HEATER, RUG, OR PAINTS AND OILS

SEE HOLBROOK & JOHNSON

WALKER & CAMPBELL

REAL ESTATE AND AUCTION ROOMS

First door north of Sikes Grocery, on east side of Fifth Street, Springfield.

We are prepared to handle any kind of property for cash or trade. We will also conduct an auction on each Saturday afternoon. If you have anything to sell, store it with us for sale. Call in and list your property with us for sale or trade. We will rent your property for you. Call in and see us.

Spot Cash Prices on Feed THIS WEEK ONLY

Bran, 60 lb.	$.85	Gr. Barley, 70 lb.	1.25
Shorts, 80 lb.	1.30	Oil Meal, 100 lb.	2.20
Millfeed, 70 lb.	1.00	Soy Bean Meal, 100 lb.	2.20
Dairy Feed, 80 lb.80	Ear Corn, 100 lb.	1.00
Gr Screenings, 80 lb.	1.00	Scratch food, 100 lb.	2.45
Molasses, 100 lb.	1.45	Cheat seed, 100 lb.	1.25
Beet Pulp, 100 lb.	1.30	Vetch Seed, 100 lb.	3.00
White Shorts, 80 lb.	1.40	Spuds, 100 lb.75
Alfalfa Meal and Middlings, 90 lb.	1.55	Johnson's Best flour.	1.20
Rolled Barley, 75 lb.	1.30	Cupid Best Patent.	1.50

SPRINGFIELD FEED COMPANY

George Richmond and Damen Clover of Coburg are in Springfield on business today.

Philip Hajas was brought to the Springfield hospital today from Mabel for treatment for typhoid fever.

Miss Minnie Knowles of Cottage Grove is spending the week at the P. A. Wooley home in east Springfield.

Riley Snodgrass resumed his run on the Wendling train this morning after spending ten days on a vacation.

Springfield Feed Company received one car of flour and feed from Portland and on car flour from Albany last week.

D. Crouch left this morning for the Coos Bay country, where he will be engaged in business for about three weeks.

W. H. McArthur, of Corning, Calif., is visiting at the home of C. E. Lyon. Mr. McArthur is looking over this section of the country with a view of locating.

Mrs. George Towsley of Manchester, Vermont, and Mrs. Belle Way of Eugene were guests of Mrs. W. A. Dill yesterday. Manchester is Mrs. Dill's home town.

Notice: Those desiring alfalfa hay delivered from the car should put their order in at once. We expect the car any day. Buy at the car and save drayage. SPRINGFIELD FEED CO.

Miss Lee of Albany and Byron Thompson of Brownsville, now attending O. A. C., came to Eugene Saturday for the big game and spent Saturday evening as the guests of Miss Beatrice Holbrook.

J. L. Crook, who recently sold his place here in Springfield is shipping his goods today and his family expects to leave in a few days for their new home at Sunnyside, Washington.

NOTICE FOR PUBLICATION Department of the Interior, U. S. Land Office at Roseburg, Oregon, November 16, 1915.

Notice is hereby given that James A. Resides of Vida, Oregon, who, on November 9, 1915, made Homestead Entry, Serial No. 87365, for Lots 6, 7 and 8 of Section 35, Township 16S, Range 2E, Willamette Meridian, has filed notice of intention to make Final Five-year Proof, to establish claim to the land above described, before I. P. Hewitt, U. S. Commissioner, at his office, at Eugene, Oregon, on the 29th day of December, 1915. As this land is in Sec. 38, a school section, the State of Oregon is especially cited in this notice.

Claimant names as witnesses: Carey W. Thompson, of Vida, Oregon; John W. Low, of Vida, Oregon; Michael Hanley, of Vida, Oregon; Abe Gilbert, of Eugene.

J. M. UPTON, Register. Nov. 18-Dec. 22

The Breakfast Shapes the Day

Load the stomach up with a breakfast of rich, greasy food, and you clog both digestion and mind.

For real work—real efficiency—try a breakfast of

Grape-Nuts

and Cream

Some fruit, an egg, toast, and a cup of hot Postum.

Then tackle the work ahead with vigor and a keen mind. There's joy in it.

Grape-Nuts is a food for winners.

"There's a Reason"

Sold by Grocers everywhere.

