

LIVESTOCK MARKET

North Portland, Ore., Mar. 7.—A limited supply of cattle came forward with bulk of offerings showing good quality. Five loads of pulp fed steers went over the scales at 7.90, the highest price paid on this class of stuff during the year. A load of grain fed steers brought 7.70 indicating the market a good quarter higher in the cattle division. Cows and bulls steady. A light run of 2100 head of swine came to a good strong market. The market advanced 15 cents, making the top 8.30. Bulk went at 8.25 to 8.30. The market as strong as it opened. A handful of nondescript lambs was all that appeared on the market Monday. Lamb and sheep market strong. All classes of stuff hold at previous quotations.

INSTRUCTIONS—Results as to standing of votes will be issued after 30 days. No votes accepted as less than regular price of paper concerned in this contest. No one connected with this paper, or belonging to the immediate families of the merchants co-operating, will be allowed to become a candidate in this contest or work for contestants. Votes, after being counted, cannot be transferred to another. Be sure to know for whom you are going to vote before coming to the ballot box, as the editor or anyone else will not give you any information on the subject. The key to the ballot box will be in possession of the awarding committee during the contest. For the first thirty days the paper will run a 25-vote coupon, which can be voted free for any lady contestant. Contest to run about 90 days. CONTEST WILL END MONDAY, MAY 15, 1916. The right to postpone date of closing is reserved if sufficient cause should occur. Ten days prior to closing contest, the judges will carefully lock or seal ballot box and take same to the bank, where the same will be in a place where voting can be done during business hours and locked in a vault at night until close of contest, when the judges will take charge and count same and announce the young ladies winning in their turn. The last ten days all voting must be done in a sealed box at the bank. If you do not wish anyone to know for whom you are voting, place your cash for subscription, together with your coupon in a sealed envelope, which will be furnished you, and put same in ballot box. This will give everyone a square deal.

THIS CONTEST WILL CLOSE MAY 15, 1916.
