Social Notes

Friends have been apprised of the approaching wedding of Miss Elsie Baker and Mr. Fred Hill, both of Marshfield, which will take place in June. Miss Baker's home is in Springfield, but for the last year or two she has resided in Marshfield and has won a large circle of admiring friends and acquaintances. Mr. Hill is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Walte Hill of Hall Avenue and is well known and liked by his many friends.—Marshfield Times.

Miss Ada Renne entertained several of her friends at her home Saturday evening. Various games were played until a late hour, at which time a delicious luncheon was served by the host. Those present were: Beatrice Roberts, Coral Shaban, Mary West, Dorris Lybarger, Pearl Miles, Margaret Gossler, Lena Brewer, Etta Vallier, Pearl Robert, Ada Renne, Walter Gossler, Horace Taylor, Hobart Keeney, Charles Rorneri, Chester Elspass, all young men from Eugene and Ralph Moshburg of Creswell.

The Five Hundred club were the guest of Mrs. Milton Bally and Mrs. Carl Fischer for eight o'clock dinner at the home of the latter on Wednesday evening. The hostesses were assisted in serving by Misses Jean and Dutee Fischer and Ray Bally. The club members present were: Mr. and Mrs. W. L. McCulloch, Mr. and Mrs. A. McKinzy, Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Peery, Dr. and Mrs. W. C. Rebhan, Mr. and Mrs. J. Stewart, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Stewart, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Swarts, Mr. and Mrs. C. Wheaton, Mrs. Edessa Cox, Mrs. H. Woods, Miss Edna Swarts. The guests of the club were: Mr. and Mrs. B. A. Washburne, Mr. and Mrs. Beaver, H. Adrain, Joe Bou-tin, (Bayfield, Wis.) The honors of the evening was carried away by W. L. McCulloch.

The Needlecraft held a most delightful session at the home of Mrs. Bean Thursday afternoon. The hostess served at the close of the afternoon. Mrs. Austin Cox, Mrs. R. P. Mortenson, Mrs. Walter Herndon, and Mrs. O. H. Arret were guests of the club.

Mrs. James Stewart was hostess of the N. G. O. Sewing club at its session Tuesday afternoon. The club entertained as guests Mrs. Guy Mock (Eugene), Mrs. W. F. Martin (Vancouver, B. C.), and Mrs. A. Coffin, Miss Edna Swarts. The next session will be held at the home of Mrs. F. W. Bressler.

Mr. Jennings may be no longer young in years. He could not be and have served his country in the Civil war. But he is a young man for one who offered his life for his country's sake. We do not think Mr. Jennings should be elected merely because he is a G. A. R. veteran, but his gray hairs should be respected and his service to his country should place him in a position above being laughed at. Mr. Jennings' candidacy, however, is a sincere one. I do not know the names of those who are backing him, but I do know that he was approached several times before he consented to become a candidate. Each time he refused and suggested someone else. Finally he yielded to members of the Lane County Taxpayers' league, who insisted that he make the race. He is, therefore, backed by the very people who are anxious to see a genuine reduction of taxes. Not only that, but Mr. Jennings has previously served as clerk, his record was a good one, and at this time he promises that the office shall be conducted economically.

The taxpayers of Lane county have absolutely nothing to lose by retiring Mr. Russell and they have many chances of gain by making a change in the office. There are other offices in which there should also be a change.

E. E. Morrison is having the old garage building at Mill and Main, which he used this winter for storing potatoes, cleaned out preparatory to turning it over to the owner, Mr. Klodahl of Eugene.

Easter exercises were held by the Juniors of the Christian church at the church last evening. The services were delayed a week by reason of the fact that the pastor, Rev. E. C. Wigmore, preached the anniversary sermon for the Odd Fellows and Rebekahs last Sunday.

Clerk's Office Expensive
Cottage Grove, Ore., April 26.
—To the Editor: Lane county taxpayers are stirred up over extravagance in public office as they have never been stirred before.

But it will do no good to get stirred up unless action follows. The most extravagantly conducted office in the court house, for the service rendered, is that of the county clerk.

Voters now have the opportunity to act and show how much they are stirred up.

I have been informed that Mr. Russell is laughing at the opposition that has come out against him, that he thinks the candidacy of A. C. Jennings a joke, that he is confident that no joke can pry him loose from his job which enables him to draw down $166.66 a month for doing little else than shaking hands and playing politics.

Mr. Russell may be a shrewd politician. He must be to have thus long fooled the hard working taxpayers of Lane county who toil and sweat to earn the money to pay an incompetent public servant $2,000 a year for doing little or nothing—but there is no shrewdness in making fun of the candidacy of a man of the standing of Mr. Jennings.

There will be initiation in the Royal Neighbors on Thursday evening. Every officer and members are requested to be present.

WOODMEN NOTICE
Neighbors the meeting tomorrow evening, Tuesday, will mark the end of our membership campaign, and we expect to have at least one initiation. We are also having a reception for all members of Springfield Camp who have belonged over fifteen years. These members are to have seats of honor at the banquet table. Be sure to come and enjoy the evening with us. You may draw the hat.

HERBERT E. WALKER,
Clerk.

FOR Public Service Commissioner WESTERN DISTRICT

FRED G. BUCHEL

REPUBLICAN CANDIDATE

WHAT THE PRESS SAYS
"He promises to conduct the office on business principles, to ferret out all unjust rates, and to give a square deal to public service corporations and the people alike. Such a platform merits support. Mr. Buchtel is deserving of official promotion, and the electors of the district might well rally to his candidacy, and nominate and elect him."—Daily Oregon Statesman, Salem.

Christy Mathewson
by Walt Mason

When Christy's dead a hundred years, the fans will still discuss his play, and sigh, while shedding briny tears, "There are no men like him today! He used the brains behind his brow, and gave the foe a fievous jar; the chroniclers have told us how he was for years and years a star. Great pitchers came and cut some grass, and died, and then forgotten were; he saw them come, and saw them pass, and still kicked up a mighty stir." The chroniclers will also tell how Christy, when a game was played, filled up the pipe he loved so well, to soothe his nerves, all tired and frayed. He smoked Tuxedo every time, the critic's smoke, the mild and rare, Tuxedo fragrant and sublime, the cool, sweet smoke beyond compare.
