KEEPING UP TO THE TIMES

A representative of the News has been visiting the farmers that live a few miles east of Springfield during this week and has discovered it to be almost universal with our agriculturist neighbors to have their trading place in Eugene. He comes to market and drives right down Main street past the doors of the merchants of Springfield and adds about eight miles to his journey to get what he wants and to be able to have some modern conveniences of shopping that the Eugene merchants offer which the Springfield merchants have not given.

One lady said, "We used to do most all of our trading in Springfield because it was closer home, but we go to Eugene now." "Why do you go to Eugene," our representative questioned. "We can get better accommodations in Eugene. When we go shopping we take most of the day to it. We take our lunch along and we want some place to eat it. In Eugene the larger stores have rest rooms where we can go and be comfortable and eat our lunches and there is a free rest cottage in the park with a large porch. In Springfield we must sit in the wagon and eat our lunches in the hot sun or in the rain and must spend the remainder of the time walking the streets."

Another lady expressed herself something like this: "Well, we go to Eugene to do our trading now. We would rather go to Springfield because it is closer home and we would not lose so much time during the busy season on the farm. Before we start to town we can look over the papers and read the advertisements and see what bargains the merchants of Eugene are offering so that we can make our money go farther. The Springfield merchants expect us to go to their stores to look for the bargains and we haven't time to go from one store to the other to find them."

Another lady said, "We are not dealing with the Springfield merchants any more. We can get better bargains in Eugene and we can get better shopping accommodations there. A few months ago we took up this matter of shopping in a meeting of our ladies aid and decided to go to Eugene to do our trading."

Now Mr. Merchant what do you think of this attitude? We were rather shocked when we heard the report. Are we going to sit in our stores and let the trade that we should get go right past our very doors and then kick because business is not as good as it ought to be? Don't you think Springfield can offer as good accommodations as Eugene? Are we always going to sit on the second row and take just what is handed us? Why not give the farmer all the modern shopping privileges he deserves. Why not get together and furnish up a good commodious rest and lunch room for the farmer's wife and children.

And another thing, advertise! Tell the fellow that can't pass your store window every day of the new things and of the bargains you have to offer. Surely the Springfield merchants can offer good buys the same as can the Eugene merchants. If it doesn't pay to advertise in the town paper, find another means that does pay, only advertise. Proper advertising does bring big returns. Ask the big advertiser who was once a little advertiser, he knows. A little co-operation all around will bring dollars into the community.

AS GOOD AS A CHEW OF "SPEAR HEAD"

That Means the Supreme Degree of Rich, Luscious Tobacco Flavor

NO OTHER CHEW EQUALS IT

Nature varies the flavor she puts into the different grades of tobacco leaf—and the best of all is the flavor of choice red Burley that pleases you so mightily when you chew Spear Head.

The delicious fruity flavor of a chew of Spear Head is a revelation to the man who has never chewed or who has been chewing near-good tobacco.

For chewing is the one way to get all the wholesome, healthful, appetizing flavor of the tobacco leaf—providing you chew a high-grade plug like Spear Head.

No other tobacco can compare with Spear Head in the wholesome satisfaction it gives.

You get more savory sweetness in a chew of Spear Head than in a whole plug of ordinary tobacco.

And you get it in its purest form—Spear Head is made amid the most wholesome surroundings, in a great, new factory that's kept absolutely clean and sanitary.

Try this rich, mellow, satisfying, pure chew. Such a chew cannot be obtained in any other tobacco than Spear Head. In 10c cuts, wrapped in wax paper.
