MR. and MRS. J. I. BARBRE. SOCIETY By DOROTHY MILLER and LILLIAN MULLIGAN Last Monday the "remains" of the B. O. F. club returned from Camp Crawfish, on Fall Creek. If we may believe their assertions, they saw two rattlesnakes and three lizards, not to mention fleas, mosquitoes and bumble bees. They tell a great tale of Fall Creek hospitality. The entire club was invited to two dances, one swimming match, a community sing, three hayrack rides, to one dinner party, cherry tree frolic, fishing party, hunting expedition, and to a reception given in honor of the B. O. F. club. In return for these many kindnesses the girls entertained the inhabitants at a taffy pull on Friday night. The guests brought many appetizing parcels with them. The packages contained cherries, cabbage, string beans, side of bacon, two dozen roasting ears, three dozen eggs, two cans blackberry jam, ten pounds of sugar, three watermelons and ten muskmelons. One kindhearted gentleman of Springfield sent a box of Lowney's. Those in the club were: Miss Lena Newton (Pete), Miss Olive Smith (Joe), Dorris sikes (Gus), Marion White (Jimmie), Gladys Lepley (Bob) Audrey Perkins (Bill), Dorothy Miller (Jack), Grace Thomas (Tommy), Lucille Smith (Epaminondas), Lillian Mulligan (Irish). As this trip has proved to be such a success the club plans another, but more extensive, trip next year. A number of the little friends of Lucille Lambert gathered at her home on Fourth and C streets Tuesday afternoon to help celebrate her ninth birthday. The afternoon was spent playing games after which refreshments were served.
