

Along With Autumn Comes Coughs and Colds

The first cough of the season is apt to prove annoying and if neglected may become serious.

Use Penslar White Pine and Spruce Balsam

It will get at the foundation of the trouble and remove the cause. It is free from opiates and is as safe for children as adults.

Price 25c and 50c

"See Our Window"

State of Ohio, City of Toledo, Lucas County, Frank J. Cheney makes oath that he is senior partner of the firm of F. J. Cheney & Co., doing business in the City of Toledo, County and State aforesaid, and that said firm will pay the sum of ONE HUNDRED DOLLARS for each and every case of Catarrh that cannot be cured by the use of HALL'S CATARRH CURE.

Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Walker spent the week end in Salem. Harold Peery spent the week end pheasant hunting at Scio. M. C. Bressler went to his ranch, 15 miles out of Salem Friday.

Mrs. Helen Quiner of Eugene was a Springfield business visitor Saturday. Marion Adams returned to the Fischer Boutin camp near Marcola yesterday. Norman Anderson returned Thursday from an extended trip through Canada.

C. H. Jensen of Spokane is employed in the drygoods section of the Cox and Cox store. Miss Ethelyn Powers is employed as "extra" stenographer at the office of the Springfield News.

Mrs. Mark Young and little son, of Portland, are visiting at the home of Ira Young and family. Big Dance, Tuesday, October 3, in the Stevens Hall—Prize Dance—Everybody welcome.

Mrs. W. P. Elliott of Fall Creek had planned to leave the Springfield hospital for her home today. Mrs. Carl Yancey of Marcola, who is in the Springfield hospital, will be able to return to her home soon.

Mrs. Grace Harbit and daughter, Miss Naomi, returned the last of the week from the Jim Seavey hop yard. Harry Kiefer, local bricklayer, has just completed a chimney at the Tillie Luther residence on 5th and G streets.

Mrs. Paul Brattain spent Thursday with Mr. and Mrs. John Renny at the Renny cottage, "Edgewood", at Blue River. Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Skeels and Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Wilson spent the week end in Cottage Grove, visiting relatives.

Mrs. N. W. Emery left Saturday morning for Portland to be with her mother, Mrs. W. M. Masse, who is seriously ill. R. C. Howard purchased the Henry Coghill property on Eighth and C streets Friday, and intends fixing it up for a home.

Mrs. W. F. McBee and son, Merle, of Fall Creek, returned Friday from The Dalles, where they have been visiting relatives. No use to be sick when Dr. Murphy the magnetic healer is in our midst, office is 395 Main street, Springfield, Oregon.

Merrill Digwiddle of Brownsville, passed through Springfield on his way home this morning, after spending a few days with friends in Eugene. W. E. Knott and George Crawford of Hayden Bridge will leave tomorrow for Stanford, Montana, to spend two or three weeks on business.

The attendance of scholars at the Glenwood school in West Springfield is not as large as last year and they are mostly all small children. The little son of Mr. and Mrs. H. Piquet underwent an operation for the removal of tonsils and adenoids, one day late last week.

J. E. Murphey of Springfield received a thoroughbred Neubin billy goat, which was bred at Madison, Nebraska, today. The goat is a splendid specimen and is only a year old. The family of H. E. Lee, of West Springfield, moved to Sheridan Friday, where they will make their new home.

The team scales of the Springfield Feed company have been moved from South Second and Main street to the company's warehouse on the railroad and South Second. The Southern Pacific construction stock which was used in the building of the Willamette Pacific railroad has been pastured out between Natron and Oakridge.

Mrs. Billie Lightfoot and son, Billie, of Portland arrived Saturday to visit with Mrs. Lightfoot's father, P. H. Emery. Mr. Lightfoot arrived Sunday. Mrs. Louie Jacobs and son Rudolph who have been visiting in this city for some time with Mrs. Jacob's daughter, Mrs. James Stewart, returned home to Klamath Falls Saturday.

Mrs. Harry Shahan, who underwent an operation for appendicitis and complications at the Eugene hospital late last week, is reported to be doing very nicely. Miss D. Whelpley returned the last of the week from Grants Pass where she has been visiting several weeks with a sister. Miss Whelpley will make her home here with another sister, Mrs. E. J. Reynolds.

Dr. and Mrs. W. H. Pollard and Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Smith drove to Lebanon in the former's car Saturday afternoon to attend the annual Methodist conference. The party returned home last evening. Workmen were busy Friday and Saturday tarring the cracks along the Main street carline, and in doing other small jobs to finish up the work of replanking the track which was begun some time ago.

Mrs. Grace Roberts and family have moved from Seventh and South Main street to the Robert Vitus residence on Fourth and C streets. Mrs. Roberts says moving was easy for the high school girls did the work. C. E. Swarts, O. B. Kessey, W. F. Walker, C. E. Wheaton, B. A. Washburne, E. E. Kepner, John Mullen, and Fenner Travis, attended a Republican rally held at Creswell Friday night. A fine time is reported.

The Christian Endeavor society of the Christian church will hold a "Corn Social" at the church Friday evening of this week. All young people of Springfield are invited to attend, on condition that they come clad in overalls or calico. True economy is what we save in the long run. The wise man feeds his cow to make it grow. He pastures his cow to get a good flow of milk and paints his house to make it last. It costs very little more now to paint a house than it did a year ago. Probably not more than $2.99 on an average. Make your home beautiful with the best paint on the market—Phoenix Pure Paint, Guaranteed. Sold by J. C. Holbrook.

Card of Thanks We wish in this way to express a little of the thankfulness that is in our hearts for the loving kindness of those who helped us when sorrow entered our home. The prayers, the words of comfort, the flowers, the loving hearts, the kind deeds, made our loss easier to bear. MR. AND MRS. G. W. CARSON CHARLES CARSON AND FAMILY JOHN CARSON AND FAMILY AMY CARSON IDA CARSON GEORGE CARSON

ONE DAY ONLY BELL THEATRE ONE DAY ONLY SPRINGFIELD THE WORLD'S GREATEST SPECTACLE—UNDER DIRECTION OF THOS. INCE "CIVILIZATION" ACCOMPANIED BY ORCHESTRA FEATURE CHORUS "BEAUTIFUL EFFECTS" SPECIAL MATINEE THURSDAY OCT. 5 "A REVELATION" RESERVE SEATS ON SALE AT KETELS SAME PRICES AS PORTLAND 25 50 75 DIRECT FROM A FOUR WEEKS RUN AT THE HELIG IN PORTLAND

Town and Vicinity

Water wings at Peery's. Z. T. Kintley is in town from Jasper today.

Mrs. S. D. Farrier of Lawler spent Friday in town. C. I. Gorrie of Douglas Gardens spent Friday in town.

Mrs. M. E. Garrison of Marcola spent yesterday in town. Bert Miller of Marcola, returned to Swishome Friday.

Eddie Martin went to Wendling Friday on business. S. H. Tilton reopened the fish market on Fifth street.

Keep the flies off the cows with "Fly Bouncer" 75c a gallon at Peery's. Mr. and Mrs. Truman Chase and family spent the weekend in Salem.

Earl Titus who underwent an operation Wednesday is getting along nicely. Born: To Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Johnson of Springfield, a 9-pound girl this morning.

Mrs. Will Darling who has been quite sick for a few days, is reported as doing nicely. Miss Helen Robinson of Kincaid Park was giving music lessons in Springfield Saturday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Tad Luckey and son drove to Salem to take in the fair the latter part of the week. Russell Dimm spent from Friday evening to Sunday evening visiting and seeing the state fair at Salem.

Hunting and trespassing is positively forbidden on the Brattain Estate. PAUL BRATTAIN

No use to be sick when Dr. Murphy the magnetic healer is in our midst, office is 395 Main street, Springfield, Oregon.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Burnett of Wendling, spent Friday in town, en route to Marcola where they will reside. Miss Pearl Snook returned home to Fall Creek this morning after a two days' visit here with her father and friends.

John Ashworth has resigned his position with the Booth-Kelly Lumber company and will leave soon for Weed, California.

H. W. Green of Portland is in Springfield on a few days' business trip. Mr. Green formerly owned a cafeteria in this city.

The 18-month-old child of Mr. and Mrs. R. N. Piquet of Mabel was operated on for tonsils and adenoids at the office of a local physician Thursday.

Mrs. W. P. Hills of Fall Creek, who was taken to the Eugene hospital Thursday morning with a bursted appendix and underwent an operation that afternoon, is reported to be doing fine.

Mrs. Price's canning powders at Peery's Drug Store.

A. C. Dixon of Eugene spent Friday in town on business. Joe Wakefield of Blue River was a Springfield visitor yesterday.

Mrs. Sylvester Snook and son, Bert, of Fall Creek are Springfield visitors. Mr. and Mrs. Harry Carson left Friday for their home in Marcola.

Roy Deffenbacher of Mapleton is spending two weeks here and in Co-burg. Johnnie Walsh of Jasper came down Friday to visit his mother, Mrs. Harry Brumette.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Smeed and little son of Waterville spent Friday in town. J. Welch and G. H. Gibbs were among those registered at the Springfield hotel yesterday.

Wylie James and family moved in yesterday from Pruneville to one of the Goslar houses on A street. E. C. Neal; C. Heaton, Drain; and R. E. Wilson, of Berkeley, Cal., were registered at the Elite Saturday.

A marriage license was issued to Guy Delatose Moshier and Miss Ira Knight, both of Springfield, on Friday. A marriage license was issued Friday by Stacy Russell, to Dr. Harold C. Palmer and Miss E. M. Barr, both of Mabel.

A big prize dance is advertised to be held here by Hyde's orchestra in the Stevens hall next Tuesday evening, October 3. Good reliable fire insurance. No assessments; no membership fee. Pay once and you are done. H. E. Walker at the City Hall.

A fairly large crowd attended and enjoyed the dance given in the Stevens hall here by the Gross orchestra of Eugene last Saturday night. Reverend and Mrs. James T. Moore and Miss Margaret Morris are expected home this evening after having been in attendance at the Methodist Conference at Lebanon.

All members of the United Artisans are requested to be present at the regular meeting Wednesday evening, as there is important business to transact. Many of the light sleepers in this community were rudely awakened early yesterday morning by the booming of shot guns, and after they had come to their senses sufficiently they realized that the pheasant season was on. Many of the hunters of Springfield sallied forth yesterday to get the first shots of the season—alas many came home only with a few shells less than before they started.

Those registered at the Springfield hotel Saturday include the following: F. T. Corbin, Salem; H. Drath, Salem; S. B. Larimer, Walla Walla, Washington; C. Willford and wife; Dan Crain, M. Workman, Mabel; D. R. Coleman, Burns; D. Walch; George Howe; C. Weaver, Thurston; D. C. Anderson and wife.

SOCIAL EVENTS

A number of people from Lebanon, Brownsville, Cottage Grove and Springfield met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Lyon yesterday morning and drove to the fish hatchery up the McKenzie. They were: Thad Sterling and family, Lebanon; Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Sterling, Andy Poe and family, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Gustavson of Brownsville; Dave Sterling and family of Cottage Grove; Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Lyon, Miss Mae Lyon, Mrs. Cantrell and Mr. Holverson of Springfield.

Mrs. Cleo Durrin and Mrs. Vina McLean served tea in the dining room of the Odd Fellows' hall last Saturday afternoon to the members of the Springfield Rebekah lodge who were assembled at that time to work on a quilt which is to be sent with a well filled box to the Odd Fellow and Rebekah home in Portland at Thanksgiving time. There were 10 members present, and all enjoyed the occasion greatly.

The Kensington club met at the home of Mrs. Walter Herndon Friday afternoon and the afternoon was spent doing fancy work, after which dainty refreshments were served. The guests of the club were Mrs. Alfred Blower, Miss Blower and Mrs. Herndon. Club members present were Mrs. W. H. Whitney, Mrs. Fred Walker, Mrs. Lawrence May, Mrs. H. A. Korf, Mrs. J. C. Holbrook and Miss Edna Swarts. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. O. B. Kessey, on A street.

After the Springfield chapter of the Knights and Ladies of Security, held installation last Thursday evening, a social hour and refreshments were enjoyed. Members of the Eugene lodge who were visitors were: Mrs. L. H. Elspass, president, and installing officer, L. H. Elspass, Mr. and Mrs. Uhl, Mr. and Mrs. B. B. McKinney, Mrs. Della Smith, Mrs. Margaret Kizer, Mrs. Sumner, Ray Chase, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Cross, Mrs. Collins, and Mrs. A. M. Simon.

The Epworth League of the Methodist church entertained the young people of the congregation at their first party last Friday evening. The first part of the evening was taken up with a business meeting presided over by Randall Scott, president of the League. Routine business was disposed of and a nominating committee appointed to select a second and fourth vice president. The large number of young people who were present were entertained with guessing contests and popular games during the latter part of the evening. While the gaities were in progress the committee on refreshments doled forth with large schooners of fresh apple cider and fine big sugared sinkers.

Many Farmers Shop Here Saturday Among the farming folks who were shopping in Springfield Saturday were: Guy Mosier, Hayden Bridge; Andy Fischer, Waterville; W. A. Jack, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Ward, and R. W. Makenson, Camp Creek; George and Joe Hart, Cedar Flat; Tom Soleim, Camp Creek; W. T. D. Franklin, manager of the J. W. Seavey hop ranch; George Campbell, from his farm on the River Road; W. S. Dodd, Natron; Nels Gussler, Camp Creek; V. Dunton, Camp Creek.

Want 30,000 Yards of Gravel

C. R. Dean of the Dean and Brown Paving company of North Bend and W. H. Wann of the Murphy-Wann Building Material company of Marshfield were in Springfield yesterday trying to contract for some gravel. They have a large paving contract at Marshfield to complete this fall and need 30,000 yards of material for this purpose. The Springfield gravel company will probably bid for this contract.

Portland People Come Here to Live

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Walker of Portland and their daughter, Mrs. R. Letkowitz and small daughter, arrived here from Portland Thursday evening and will make this city their home. Mr. and Mrs. Walker are the parents of Mrs. F. A. Weselowska and of Miss Letkowitz of the Springfield Bakery. Three Springfield Men on Jury Among the jurymen for the October term selected Friday by County Clerk Russell and Sheriff Parker are Taylor Needham, Springfield number 2, farmer; G. W. Carson, Springfield, laborer; and R. A. Stephens, Springfield number 2, farmer. The October term convenes on the 16th.

Local Lodge Members Work on Box

A number of the local Rebekas were busy in the lodge room Saturday afternoon, sewing in names on quilt blocks. The quilt will be one item of this year's box from the Springfield Rebekah and Odd Fellow home in Portland. It was made by the local lodge women, who are giving members of either lodge an opportunity to have their names worked on one of the blocks by paying five cents. Get Limit of Birds in a Short Time. D. S. Beals of Springfield, John Bell of Eugene, and Will Beals of Shedd found fine pheasant hunting at Shedd, Linn county yesterday. Mr. Beals and Mr. Bell drove down Saturday evening and were joined at Shedd by Mr. Beals' brother. By about 10 o'clock the next morning, each had the limit number of birds, five. Mr. Beals says the pheasants are not so plentiful as they were last year.

Buys New Site and Fills It

C. A. Swarts of this city has just purchased a new 10 by 24 foot silo, and has had it installed at his ranch on the Natron road, about four and one half miles from Springfield. But better still, he was able to fill it immediately with fine yellow stock corn raised on the place, after which there were still 400 bushels left for the pigs. The silo was bought from the Fisher-Boutin Lumber company.

S. P. to Inspect Tracks

Things around the local railroad yards are beginning to take on their very best appearance. Track foreman, S. Jacobson, is having his men clean things up for the annual inspection which will take place the last of this week. The inspection train will leave Portland today and will go through Springfield Thursday or Friday of this week. A Good Position Can be had by any ambitious young man or young lady in the field of Railway or Commercial Telegraphy. Since the passage of the eight hour law by Congress, it has created a great demand for Telegraph Operators, Positions paying from $75. to $90 per month with many chances for advancement. It will pay you to write Railway Telegraph Ins't of Portland, Oregon, for full particulars.

QUALITY FIRST

Boys' School Shoes
Boys' Dress Shoes
Boys' High Top Shoes

Men's Work Shoes
Men's Dress Shoes
Men's High Top Shoes
Men's Sport Shoes

First Class Repairing

W. A. HALL

Main Between 5th and 6th