MANY EARN TWO-BITS; DARK MEANS HINTED AT

Local Rebekas Have Original Methods For Securing Cash But Seem Timid About Telling

"Well, I got 10 cents for helping put in wood; then I mowed and raked a man's garden for which I received 15 cents but I had to pay a nickel of that to an assistant. Then I made some candy to earn that back again. This is the way one woman earned her quarter for the Rebekas "Experience" social last Monday night.

There seems to be some dark mystery about the affair, however, for she was the only one who could account for, or was induced to tell how she earned the cash, and she didn't tell until after being assured that her name wouldn't be used.

However there are dark hints of splitting kindlings, selling suckers and such, inducing someone to buy a show ticket, tending office for a day, and of hauling five of the sisters to lodge in an auto for a nickel apiece.

Anyway, the social was a success as regards both fun and finances. There were about 50 present, and $13 was taken in. Before the "experiences" were told, Mrs. Mabel Kennedy was initiated into the order.
