Bereans Revel In Big Chicken Feed

Contest Losers Entertain Victors With Bountiful Eats And Good Program.

On Monday evening the losing side of the Berean class of the Christian church gave a banquet to the winning side. It was a bountiful chicken dinner and was arranged under the able direction of Harry Nixon, the losing side's captain, and was given in the Woodmen hall.

The guests arrived early and many were the ahs! and ohs! which the appetizing aromas from the kitchen brought forth. A novel idea was used in choosing partners for dinner. Slips of paper were handed to the boys on which the name of a girl had been written in invisible ink. The names were brought out when the papers were dampened.

The guests were seated at two long tables and oh! what a profusion of delicious roast chicken, mashed potatoes, chicken gravy, scalloped corn, pickles, vegetable salad, marvelous tutti frutti with whipped cream, coffee, and cake was set before them. Every one just ate and ate until he or she was perfectly willing to sit still and listen to toasts, although no one was very willing to make one. Mayor E. E. Morrison, the class teacher, was toastmaster; and those giving after-dinner talks were Harry Nixon, Roy Cairns, Rev. Chris Jensen, Beatrice Holbrook, Walter Dimm, Marjorie Knott, Roland Moshier, and Clinton Conley, the class president. After the guests had adjourned to the main hall a delightful program was rendered as follows: Piano solo, Marjorie Knott, Minute conversations, illustrated songs Reading, Ida Carson, Alphabets, girls' quartet, Ruby Senseney, France Travis, Marjorie Knott, and Ethelyn Powers.

Games occupied the remainder of the evening and it was a tired but happy and satisfied crowd of young people who wended their way home in the wee hours of the morning.

Those present were: Misses Beas Palmer, Harriet Vilas, Merle Nimmo, Amie Young, Nellie Nixon, Helen Roberts, Elva Lewis, Pearl Whitely, Opal Whitely, Anna Headburg, Bessie Webb, Minnie Beaver, Wanna McKinney, Edythe Holcombe, Ida Carson, Florence Furuset, Bee Holbrook, Marjorie Knott, Ruby Senseney, Jessie Rathburn, Gertrude Williams, Dora Nelson (Coburg), Ethelyn Powers, France Travis, Evelyn Ayr, Venita
