Arch W. Sexton, Defendant SUMMONS

To Arch W. Sexton, the above named defendent: IN THE NAME OF THE STATE OF OREGON, you are hereby required to appear and answer the complaint filed against you in the above entitled suit within six weeks from the date of the first publication of this summons, and if you fail to answer, for want thereof, plaintiff will take a decree against you as prayed for in the complaint, to-wit: That the marriage contract now existing between you and the plaintiff be dissolved and for an order giving to the plaintiff the exclusive care and custody of the two minor children of said marriage, to-wit: Erma Sexton and Fern Sexton, and for such other and further relief as to the court seem equitable in the premises, and for her costs and disbursements in this suit. This summons is published by order of the Hon. G. F. Skipworth, Judge of the above entitled court, which said order was dated at Eugene, Oregon, on the 26th day of December, 1916, commanding this summons to be published for six weeks in the Spring-field News, a newspaper of general circulation, published at Springfield, Lane county. Oregon. The date of Lane county. Oregon. The date of the first publication of this summon is the 28th day of December, 1916, L. M. TRAVIS, Attorney for plaintiff. Dec, 28; Jan. 4,11,18,25; Feb. 1,8.

Oregon Share Large to Start. Because of the minimum guarantees of $5000 to $10,000 to the smaller states, the appropriations for the first year exceed the round figures of $500 .-000, this excess decreasing from year to year, as the annual proportion of each state grows up to its minimum.

While Oregon's appropriations for salaries of teachers will increase in a few years beyond the $5000 minimum guarantee, its population in comparison to that of the United States is so small that its maximum allotment for teachers' training would reach only $7300 in 10 years, making necessary a special allotment of $2700 a year of federal funds from that time on to give Oregon the minimum guarantee of $10,000 a year for this purpose,
