University of Orents SPRINGFIELD NEWS THE

Autered Patruary 21, 1978, at Soringfield, Oregon, assecond-

SPRINGFIELD, LANE COUNTY, OREGON. THURSDAY, MARCH 22, 1917.

JAMES H. HARPER CIVIL WAR VETERAN AND PIONEER, DEAD

Springfield Resident Dies Suddenly Monday Afternoon While at Work.

HAD LIVED HERE 15 YEARS

Funeral Held Yesterday; Deceased is Survived By Wife, 4 Children, 2 Brothers And a Sister.

James Henry Harper, a civil war veteran, and a ploneer of the early sixties, for 15 years a resident of Springfield, was found dead Monday afternoon in the barn on the home place, Mill and C street. Mr. Harper had been with his brother in law Andrew Peery, in the garden and from there went into the barn to sort pota His absence was thought noth toes. ing of particular until about 5:3) when a search was made.

Mrs. Harper had seen him about 3:30 in the afternoon and he was ap parently in good health at that time. Upon going to the barn they found . his lifeless body prostrate were he had fallen beside his work. He ata a hearty dinner at noon and was in good spirits and joking as was his usual custom.

Mr. Harper was born in Hancock county, Indiana, February 16, 1838. When a child he moved with his pie ents to Illinois. In 1861 he came to Oregon with an emmigrant train. Re turning to Illinois in 1865 he enlisted in Company I, 18th Illinois Infantry serving as first sergeant until the close of the war.

He was married to Isabelle Peery November 11, 1869 at Rosefield Illinois Returning west with his family he first located in Seattle and later moved to Oregon where he has since re He is survived by a widow, sided. Isabelle Harper and four children, A. E. Harper and Miss Marian Harper of phrates rivers, last Sunday morning. Springfield; Mrs. Ida McKerman, of Vancouver, B. C., and Mrs. Josie Whitebeck of Portland, two brothers, William Harper of Grinnell, Kansas; and I. M. Harper of Trivoli, Illinois; The speaker introduced the lecture Mrs. Elizabeth Stone of Strafford, Missouri. The funeral services were held at other views illustrating the countries cellent music.

YOUNG OLD FOLKS TO HOP Ladies of G. A. R. Guarantee Nothing New at Old Time Ball

Attractive posters about the town are the forerunners of an "honest to goodness" big time which is to begin at 8:30 p. m. next Friday night in the old Opera house on the corner of Third and Main streets, when gray haired jadies and gentlemen and their sons and daughters and grandsons and granddaughters are all going to prove that a person is only so old as he feels, which ought to make the average age about 17 on that occasion. It is seldom nowodays that when folks plan to give a dance, they go hunt a "caller," but they not only got A caller for this ball, they got two of Joe Hill and William Donaldson 'em. will tell you when to "swing that gal, that pretty little gal, that girl you left behind you."

There is to be real music, too, for this old fashioned ball which is for the benefit of the local Ladies of the G. A. R. Dan Fischer, R. D. Wilson, E. W. Collins, Cecil Calkins, J.S.Lorzh and Al Montgomery will take turns inddling, and Mrs. Charles Hardt, Irzond" on the plano.

A decorating committee compose! of Mrs. Katherine Horton, Mrs. Al Montgomery, Mrs. J. P. Fry, and Mrs. C. F. Eggimann, will transform the old hall into a bower of beauty folk's won't know it when they see it.

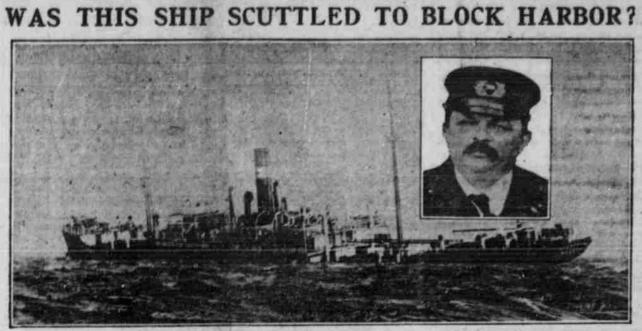

The program of dances for the even ing is being copied exactly from a ball program printed and used in 1886.

Talks on Ancient Egyptian Tablets

Springfieldians Hear U. Professor Lecture on Recently Unearthed Inscriptions

C. L. Scott's Sunday school class members and number of other Spring did too, Mrs. Driver said. field folks heard Professor A. R. Sweet ser, professor of botany at the University of Oregon, who talked on the ancient Babylonian tablets, recently unearthed from the ruined cities of the plain between the Tigres and Eu-The talk was given in Professor Sweet ser's regular Sunday school class room in the basement of the M. E. church in Eugene.

by steropticon views showing the

The port authorities of Charleston. S. C., think it was the intention of Captain Klattenhoff (above) to sink the German steamer Liebenfels in an endeavor to block the harbor, but that it sank too soon to do the required damage.

MOST INTERESTING

Baptist Wheeled-church Where One Method of Combating High Nightly Meetings Are Held, Described.

"Milk baths are good for rheuma tism," consoled Mrs. W. C. Driver, as she wiped off the sour liquid she had States. It is discussed in the edijust thrown over a traveling man who tions of every newspaper and maga loomed in sight around the end of the chapel car just as she had given the refuse a throw. You see, in the chapel car, "Good Will," where Reverend and Mrs. Driver live, there isn't of children to support and educate, it an awful lot of room, and this laci dent is only one of the many the worthy couple can tell. But they laugh at them all-and the drummer

"Good Will" and Mr. and Mrs. Driver arrived here Saturday and will, living and a partial solution of the He said we have the lowest standard remain over Easter Sunday. One hundred people can be seated comfortably in the chapej to attend the services which are held nightly. And one dosen't feel like he is in a boycar either, for the miniature church is very cozy and pretty. The interior is finished in solid oak, the ais'e and rostrum are carpeted, a handsome and manufacturing and mining village oak and leather pulpit settee with of the United States there are approxia baptistry hidden underneath are very pretty to look at in front. Then tween the ages of nine and sixteen. too, there is the chapel organ donated Most of them are idle more than half six sister cars, at which the Reverend than 1,000 hours in the year, and aland Mrs. Driver preside at the special lowing 10 hours a day for sleep, are song fests and the half hour concerts out of school more than 4,000 waking which are given every evening. The hours, more than an average of nine car is kept warm by a baker heater fed by coke and connected with a circulating water system, and is light ed with big gasoline hanging lights and also electric lights which can !... attached to regular electric system whenever wished. In the back of the car, there is a bookcase and shelve where a free traveling library is kept Six potted plants and a vase of long In the rear end (or the front end ) of the car is Mr. and Mrs. Driver' home, and a cozier one can scarce'y be imagined. Of course, a dozen or more fat people might not be exactly at ease, but with three or four folks, the livnig room does not seem crowded Nearly all the furniture folds up or fits into or under something else when occasion arises. The dining table can be pushed back flat against the wall, a "comfy" looking leather davenport makes a bed at night, and an unestentatious crack in the low ceiling above reveals the other sleeping place-an upper berth. Like the chapel, the living rooms (it really is rooms for there are three of them) are finished in oak. Pillows, pictures, tionary mirrors, help make the "home" a real one. The kitchenette, and combination storeroom and lavatory, are fitted with all conveniences, as are the cupboards thing is as neat as a pin and there is a place for everything from clean ed linen to kitchen soap. The first chapel car was built 27 years ago by the American Baptist Publication society, and others were built from time to time until now there are seven. The last one was constructed the year before last at a cost of $25,000. This one was financed by some wealthy California people who named it in memory of a dead

GROW CROPS

Cost of Living Says Educator.

"High cost of living" is on the lip of all people in all cities, towns, suburban communities, and manufactur ing and mining villages in the United zine. To millions of laboring people and professional people on small salaries it is a very real thing. To hundreds of thousands with large families has come to be a fearful thing, torture and death.

Such is the statement of Dr. P. P. Claxton, commissioner of education in thus mould public opinion. the department of the interior, in a statement regarding the high cost of problems. Dr. Claxton said:

"Is there a remedy? There is partial remedy at least, but not wholly in investigations or legislation. This remedy is so simple and close at hand that, as is so frequently the case, it is overlooked. In the schools of the cities, towns, suburban communities mately 6,000,000 Doys and girls D

U. PROFESSOR TALKS HERE Dr. J. H. Gilbert Is Speaker for Meth odist Brotherhood Meeting.

Dr. J. H. Gilbert was the speaker at the regular monthly meeting of the Methodist Brothehood Monday night. He chose for his subject: "Education and Public Opinion," and after de fining what is meant by education Dr. Gilbert showed how the educated class commands a control over the less fortunate in politics, society and religion. "But power has been leak ing down into the hands of the com mon people" he said and then cited the recent revolt in Russia as an ex ample of how public opinion becomes powerful.

The man who thinks, whose thoughts cross, moulds public opinion which shapes the future of a free people. The statesman of today must not thwart but inform the people and

Dr. Gilbert condemned our ballot system as being too easy to encumber. of business morality of any civilized nation in the world.

A banquet was served by the ladies of the church before the lecture.

'The Shoe Doctor' Needs More Room

Lydia Ann Barbre, wife of J. L. Barbre, died at 6:00 o'clock this morn ing at the Springfield hospital follow ing an operation performed there for acute stomach trouble last Saturday Mrs. Barbre has been poorly all winter and has been compelled to keep her bed for the last month. The operation was performed in the hope of affordin

DIEDTHISMORNI

WAS ILL A MOI

Was Unable to Rally From Operation Performed Saturday

for Stomach Trouble

WAS 61 YEARS OLD IN JULY

Husband and Five Children Survive;

Funeral Arrangements Walt on

Arrival of Absent Ones.

relief, and she recovered conscious ness quickly and her mind was clear all the time, but she had not enough vitality to rally from it.

Funeral services will be held at the Walkef chapel at 10 o'clock Sunday morning and interment will be made at Pleasant Hill.

Lydia Ann McFarland was born in Iowa, July 10, 1858, moving from that state to Minnesota when five 'years old. She came to Oregon in 1873, moving to Springfield 11 years ago last August. She was married to Joseph I. Barbre November 26, 1883, at Eugene.

Mrs. Barbre is survived by her hus band and five daughters: Mrs. Otto Hagenjos of Portland; Mrs. J. T. Rivett, of Lincoln Nebraska; Miss Vena Barbre, of Los Angeles; and Miss Irva Barbre, Mrs. Robert Schultz both of Springfield. Also three bro thers and one sister: W. L. McFarland of Austin, Minn; Albert McFarland of Ashland: Charles McFarland, of Eugene; and Mrs. Lucinda Thayer, of Los Angeles, survive as well as other distant relatives and a host of friends.

LOCAL CLUB PROMISED AID

Portland Chamber of Commerce Will

C. E. Sims Writes.

The editor of the News is in receipt of the following interesting letter fro C/ E. Sims: "Dear Sir: I wish to have my address changed from Baker, Oregon to Newbridge, Oregon. We have moved to Eagle Valley to live on b. of snow yet over here, and cold weather-down to zero the 14th. Hay is very scarce in this valley and the stock is suffering; they have no feed. There is also a wood famine. Can't get wood or coal at any price."

Superintendent Kirk Honored.

R. L. Kirk, superintendent of the Springfield schools, was one of the five Lane county people named on the committees of the Oregon State Teach ers' association which met in Salera Saturday. With Miss Ida M. Smith of Eugene, Professor Kirk will serve on the committee for the teachers' retirement fund.

Missionary to Speak Here.

field Methodist church at the usual Miss Holmes is considered a hour. very fine speaker-one of the best of the Columbia river branch. A "thank offering" will be taken.

Trades Ranch for Property Here.

Luella Demarist traded 101 acre ranch located west of Creswell to Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hardt of Spring field for their residence on south Secand Rows made the deal.

land of the Mesopotamia, and several

the W. F. Walker chapel at 2:00 and mounds where wonderful finds by the Estey company to this and the of the year. They are in school less o'clock yesterday afternoon, and in are made by archaeoligists who have terment was made in the Laurel Hill finally succeeded after years of work cemetery. Reverend J. W. Perkins with the authorities in getting perofficiated. All the children were mission to dig into the old ruined here,excepting the daughter who lives cities. Dozens of these cities have in Vancouver, who is ill. The funeral not yet been unearthed, one of the was largely attended by many old most famous of which is Ur of the friends from Springfield and vicinity Chaldees. Permission has never been who contributed the floral offerings, obtained from the Turkish government which were beautiful and profuse. The to unearth this ruin. Two men proci Christian church choir furnished ex inent in the work of excavating are Dr. Banks, who recently lectured at the University, and Mr. Hilprecht.

> The 12 tablets received by Professor Sweetser and with which he illas stemmed carnations complete the "urtrated his lecture, where found at nishings, Noppur, southeast of Babylon. The Temple Hill in the same locality yield ed some wonderfuj finds.

The tablets are some of them as ranch this summer. We have plenty old as 2250 B. C., and are in size from one and a half to four inches long, and Mr. Scott says more nearly resemble a worn down cake of soap than anything else he can think of. The writing is in cuneiform or wedge shaped characters which were pressed into the clay before it was baked.

The Rosetta stone which was found in 1799 in lower Egypt is the key by which the ancient inscriptions are read. This stone held an edict by an ancient king and was in three languages, one of which was known. "The findings of these ancient clay tablets and the possibility of reading rugs, dainty curtains, and even stathe records of the past furnishes us a wonderful confirmation of biblical his tory and a veritable fulfillment of the Miss Ada Holmes, a returned mis- scriptural assertion,"Truth shall spring sionary from Gujarat, India, will out of the earth," said Mr. Scott, who speak Sunday morning at the Spring is much interested in the findings and in the tiny vestibule. The whole will secure some of the tablets.

A Good Position.

Can be had by any ambitious young man or lady in the field of railway or commercial telegraphy. Since the passage of the eight hour law by Congress, it has created a demand for tlegraph operators. Positions paying from $75 to $80 per month, with many chances for advancement. It ond street. Mr. Hardt will move to will pay you to write Railway Tele his new home in the near future. Gore graph Inst. of Portland, Oregon, for full particulars.

(Continued on page two.) Current Brits and the State hours a day, not counting Sundays.

National and state laws make it impossible for most of them to do any profitable work in mill, mine or ship, and many of them are forming habits of idleness and falling into vice. Even during the vacation months only about 10 per cent have any profitable employ ment; only about 5 per cent of them go away from their homes except for a few days. Still, they must live and be fed and clothed.

"For four millions of these there is access to back yards,side yards,front. yards, and vacant lots, which might be cultivated as small gardens for the growth of vegetables and small fruits Many live where space could be readl-ly had for chickens, ducks, or pigeon And there are not less than 6.000,000 older boys and girls and adult men and women for whom an hour or two for work each day in a garden would be the best form of recreation and rest from the routine of their daily labor in office or shop or mill or mine, and who might easily find time for it.

"With some intelligent direction, these school children and older boys easily produce on the available land will arrive soon after the first. an average of $75 each in vegotables and fruits for their own tables or for sale in their immediate neighborhoods; fresh and crisp thru all the growing months and wholesomely can ned and preserved for use in winter. without cost of transportation or stor ments.

rest and recreation in the open air and the joy of watching things grow." ! utes.

William Balling to share the second

W. A. Hall Will Move to Beaver Herndon Building April 1 and Increase Stock.

W. A. Hall, the shoe doctor, will on April 1, move from the small shop in the Seavey and Rowe building on Main street between Fifth and Sixth which he has occupied for four years to the recently vacated Beaver Hern don store on Main, between Fourth and Fifth. Mr. Hall will handle ladies'. Misses' and childrens' shoes in addition to the complete line of men's and boy's shoes carried, and vigorous protest to the proper govern will still conduct a repair shop.

Mr. Hall's business has grown grad ually and continually ever since ha first bought two old benches, the good will, and trade of James Corsaw nearly four years ago, until now when the increase practically demands larg er quarters. A little at a time the 'shoe doctor" has added to his equip ment until now he has a complete sot of repair machinery.

The Beaver Herndon store room is being fixed up for the new tenant, a partition is being built in so the re pair shop can be kept separate from the shoe store, and shelves will by constructed on three sides. O. B. Kessey owns the building. Mr. Hall and girls and men and women might has ordered 50 cases of shoes which

Girl is Struck by Car.

What might have been a tragedy occurred about two o'clock yesterday afternoon, when through a misunderstanding, Miss Druce Barnes was run This would add $750,000.000 to the into by a Ford automobile driven by pest form of food supply of the country Phillip Saul, who resides two miles east of town. Miss Barnes and Mrs. age and without profits of middle men. Ben Skinner started to cross the street The estimate is very conservative, going south from Eggimann's candy as has been shown by many experi- kitchen, while the car containing Mr. and Mrs. Saul and baby was proceed-"In addition to the economic pro- ing west. The young women turned fits, there would be for the children and Mr. Saul also turned the car to health and strength, removal from avoid them but Miss Barns was struck of the regular U. S. army, and is statemptation to vice, and education of and carried a little way on the fender tioned at Fort Sam Huston at Antonio the best type; and for older persons. She received some minor bruises and was badly frightened for a few min- very fine examination, receiving 33rd in response to a recent telegram sent the Portland Chamber of Com merce, the Springfield Business Men's club has just received the following letter:

Work Against Appeal in S. P. Case

Mr. E. E. Kepner, Secretary, Busi ness Men's Club, Springfield, Oregon. Dear Sir: Your wire of recent date, asking us to protest against appeal from the decision of the District Court in Utah in respect to the Central and Southern Pacific dissolution, has been put before our full Board of Directors. I have been authorized to make a mental department, pursuant to your request, and we will follow the mat ter up with energy to carry out tha purpose you have indicated.

Yours very tuly, W. D. B. Dodson, Executive Secretary.

Randall Scott Honored

Randall Scott, a junior, was elected president of the University of Oregon Young Men's Christfan association. Clinton Thienes, who was nominated for the place, withdrew in his opponent's favor. Mr. Scott has been ad. tive in the campus work since his connection with the association.

John Tate Visiting Here.

John Tate, of Vida, is visiting at the home of his daughter, Mrs. L. E. Danks and family. The old home of Mr. Tate, an old land mark of the upper McKenzie valley was destroyed. by fire recently. The fire was caused from a defective flue and nothing was saved from the home excepting a couple of sacks of flour. His sons, Mar ion and Lewis are camping in a tent while a new home will be erected.

Dr. Van Valzah in Army.

Dr. S. L. Van Valzah, son of Mrs. Bernice Van Valzah of this city, who has been spending the winter in Wash ington, is now with the medical corps. Texas. Dr. Van Valzah passed a place out of a class of 69.

VOL. XVI. NO. 16.