FARM MENUS SUGGESTED. Meal Plans for 2 Days and New Vegetable Soup Recipe Given.

Although the farm supplies the food of the world, there are times of the year when the diet on the farm becomes monotonous especially in the spring when fresh vegetables are not available. The family tires of the same foods served over and over.

Canning and drying of extra vegetables and fruit in season will make much greater variety possible. The following menus may suggest some variety.

(1) Breakfast: Stewed dried fruit; Oatmeal; Bacon and omelet; Brown bread toast; Coffee. Dinner: Fried Ham; Baked Potatoes; Stewed tomatoes; Bread and butter; Baked apples; Ginger bread; Milk.

(2) Breakfast: Cream of Wheat; Sausage and fried apples; Whole wheat muffins; Coffee. Dinner: Vegetable Soup; Chicken with Dumplings; Buttered carrots; Cabbage Salad; Pumpkin Pie; Milk.

Super: Baked Beans; Brown Bread; Cookies; Tea. Many substitutes can be made in the above menus but it is wise to try to avoid too much meat or too many fried foods and to endeavor to give variety by cooking all available fruits and vegetables in different ways.

Try this vegetable soup: 1/2 cup carrots 1/2 onion 1/2 cup turnips 1 qt. water 1/2 cup celery 5 tablespoons butter 1/2 cup potatoes Salt and pepper.

Cut all vegetables into fine pieces before measuring. Mix and cook in the butter for five minutes stirring constantly. Add potatoes, cover and cook two minutes. Add water and boil for one hour, or until vegetables are soft. More water may be necessary. Season with salt and pepper; and serve.

How to Prevent Croup. When the child is subject to attacks of croup, see to it that he eats a light evening meal, as an overloaded stomach may bring on an attack, also watch for the first symptom—hoarseness, and give Chamberlain's Cough Remedy as soon as the child becomes hoarse. Obtainable everywhere.

A WALL STREET TIP
Tire prices are far worse than food prices. If you MUST HAVE THEM the high prices must be paid. They may not be as high NOW as LATER. The sooner you invest the better. The most truthful information goes wrong once in a while. Could you lose on this at any rate? Now is the time to buy!
