

BIGGER LIVE STOCK PROFITS

Can be made from every animal on your farm. You can rapidly increase the weight of your hogs, beef cattle and sheep—you can greatly increase the milk flow of your cows—you can get more work from your horses—through the use of

INTERNATIONAL STOCK FOOD TONIC 3 FEEDS FOR ONE CENT

Ask us about this dependable, 27 year old preparation. Let us tell you how it has made big extra profits and saved grain feed for thousands of farmers.

Town and Vicinity

Miss Mabel Duryee has been ill for a few days with a bilious attack.

Get your films developed at Peery's. Rubber gloves 35 cents a pair at Peery's.

Marvin Stevens, a Southern Pacific tunnel inspector, was in Springfield on Tuesday.

Land plaster and Cement at the Springfield Feed company.

A car of land plaster arrived at the Springfield Feed company's warehouse today.

Leslie Mack, Oregon Power electrical foreman, was in Junction City on business yesterday.

Good reliable fire insurance. No assessments; no membership fee. Pay once and you are done. H. E. Walker at the City Hall.

Clair McHenry left Monday noon for Melville, Montana, where he expects to have employment.

"Deke" Mulligan, left for San Francisco Wednesday evening, where he will spend the summer.

Mrs. Milo Atterbury of Oakridge is receiving medical treatment at the Springfield hospital.

Mrs. George Crawford, who resides near this city, is undergoing medical treatment at the Springfield hospital.

Delicious, refreshing ice cream sodas at Eggmann's.

Miss Mae Lyon is recovering very quickly from her recent operation, being up and around the house today.

Mrs. W. H. Beaman has taken a position as principal of the Florence high school for next year.

We have a small amount of King Phillip Seed Corn. This is a very quick maturing corn. Send in your order now. Springfield Feed company.

George Smith, who has been ill for some time, passed a bad night last night, his sister said.

Nandaes at Eggmann's can't be beat.

Tom Morely of Marcola, who has been receiving treatment at the local hospital, is recovering nicely from an attack of pneumonia.

Z. B. Dodson of Marcola, who suffered a broken leg when struck by a log some time ago, is doing nicely. He is at the Springfield hospital.

Self-filling fountain pens $1.00 at Peery's.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Wertz returned from Yoncalla Monday evening accompanied by their two little nieces.

Dr. W. O. Johnson from Marcola was in Springfield on business yesterday.

You Farmers, our Stock of Straps is getting low. Better fit up before they are all gone. Wolf & Miller.

Dr. W. C. Rebhan made a professional visit to Oakridge Tuesday evening.

T. J. Graves of McCoy is visiting his daughter, Mrs. W. C. Rebhan, and attending the Grand Lodge session.

Mrs. Posten is recovering from a recent operation performed at the Springfield hospital, and will soon be able to return home.

Born: To Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Perkins of Wendling, a baby daughter, on May 20.

Your money back if Corn Solvent fails to get that corn, 25 cents at Peery's.

The small daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Emory Atkinson is quite ill with stomach trouble.

Mrs. J. W. Baker's many friends will be grieved to hear that she has suffered a relapse and is again confined to bed.

The senior class of the Springfield high school went to Eugene Wednesday evening to pose for a class picture to be placed in the annual.

PURE MILK—Sweet Milk for the Baby Berry Cream and Whipping Cream always on hand. Brook Farm Dairy, Phone 10 F 3.

Milt Lyons of Marcola was admitted to the Springfield hospital on Tuesday to receive treatment for pneumonia.

L. A. Sehone, who resides on a Springfield rural route, is at the Springfield hospital to receive medical attention.

Hot water bottles guaranteed for two years at Peery's.

Mrs. B. A. Richards, who has been here for the past week, returned to her home at Wilder, Idaho, today.

Harve Lajole of Marcola was here yesterday to consult a physician, since he is suffering from appendicitis. Mrs. Lajole accompanied him.

George Smith, of Natron, who suffered a paralytic stroke some time ago is slightly improved, according to the local physician who is attending him.

Our Milk and Cream is not only Enclosed but used Exclusively by the Hospital and by our Leading Doctors. Honesty and Purity our motto. Brook Farm Dairy, Will Bishop, manager.

A. J. Price and family and Alvin Price and family of Marcola visited with Mr. and Mrs. M. V. Endicott on Sunday.

Word has been received here from F. Childs who is at Medford, saying that he will be pastor of the West Springfield Free Methodist church again next year.

Eggmann's for quality.

A California family traveling north stopped at the local auto grounds last evening. They state the roads are very bad through Pass Creek canyon.

Jimmy Reed left Tuesday evening for Richmond, California, and will spend a few days in Roseburg.

Garden Seeds, Fertilizers, Tomatoes, Cabbage and Cauliflower plants, Squash and wheel hoes, etc. We carry everything that is necessary to produce a good garden. Springfield Feed company.

Henry Lyons returned to Marcola today after visiting for a few days with his brother, Milt, who is at the Springfield hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Key accompanied by their little daughter, Mary, of Waltherville, were shopping in town this morning.

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Ingalls motored to Portland Sunday to meet their daughter, Bernice, who is returning from the University of Washington. Miss Ingalls was one of the number of girls who received their credits in advance so that they might work in gardens or farms at home.

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Ingalls returned from Portland Tuesday accompanied by their daughter, Bernice, who has been attending the University of Washington, and Mrs. J. W. Deitel and children, of Portland. Mrs. Deitel will visit here for a week or two.

That good, clean, old Virginia SASSAFRAS in ten cent packages at Peery's.

Dr. Lee Wood of Amity visited with Doctors W. H. Pollard and W. C. Rebhan Tuesday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Sebrel of the Alsea country over on the coast, are here to attend the grand lodge session. They visited here Tuesday at the home of their cousin, N. W. Gay.

Mrs. T. J. McCracken left Monday for a brief visit with friends in Portland. Her daughter, Miss Leota will remain with Miss Avis Thompson during her absence.

Mrs. Fred Moshier of Portland, a sister-in-law of Mrs. Lawrence May arrived Tuesday evening and will remain for a short visit. Mr. and Mrs. Moshier formerly resided here.

Everything has raised but the price of good, fresh candy at Eggmann's.

The school at Natron closed yesterday, after a successful term. An appropriate program was arranged by the teacher, Miss Barbara Boller, of this city.

Mrs. Malinda J. Blair passed through Springfield Tuesday morning enroute to her home in Portland. She was returning from Medford, where she attended the Free Methodist conference.

Mrs. Mock, of Eugene, has been visiting at the home of her son, Guy Mock, and wife, who reside at the Douglas home in Douglas Gardens.

John Lamberty is expected to arrive here from Albany soon to join Mrs. Lamberty who has been visiting for some time at the home of N. A. Rowe. Mr. and Mrs. Lamberty then plan to enjoy a few days outing at one of the springs up the McKenzie river.

Died—At her home near Deadmond's ferry at 12:10 a. m. May 22, 1917, Miss Harde Aldrop, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. P. O. Aldrop, aged 20 years. The funeral will be held Saturday, with interment in the Coburg cemetery.

Fred Hinson has just completed a building 20x24, at the rear of his home, which is divided into three rooms, one for the garage, woodshed, and store house. He will commence the painting soon, also the laying of a cement approach.

Mrs. Ben F. Skinner returned Tuesday night from a ten days' visit in Portland with friends and relatives.

John Dimm Jr., is spending a few days vacation in Portland visiting at the home of his brother, Paul B. Dimm.

Mrs. P. C. Johnson, who has been visiting her brother, E. Wells and family, for the past four weeks, returned to her home Tuesday morning in Burt, Iowa. This is the first time in 41 years that Mr. Wells and his sister have visited each other.

A striking feature of the front window display of the Eggmann Candy Kitchen is an immense Rebekah lodge emblem, made of taffy in the national colors. The novelty was made by Charles F. Eggmann and will be presented to the members of the local lodge—Juanita Rebekah number 85—next Monday evening.

C. I. Gorrie, Jr., received a painful wound in the stomach Sunday evening when upon returning home and stabling his horse, he started on the run to the house, stumbled and fell upon the harrow which was in the barn lot. Fortunately the injury was lessened by the blunt end of the harrow teeth being in an upright position. He will be confined to his bed for several days.

Jesse Adrian who drives the auto stage up the McKenzie river each day smashed the bones of his right foot yesterday when he dropped a barrel of oil on the member. Mr. Adrian will probably be laid up for two or three weeks. He and W. Henry Adrian of the Springfield garage are brothers.

One shipment of markers for graves of old soldiers has been received and distributed, according to Frank Hesse, member of the J. W. Geary post. Another set is expected from government headquarters at Washington soon. The markers were distributed in the Odd Fellows', Masonic, Springfield and Pleasant Hill cemeteries. Every grave will be marked by Decoration Day.

When she slipped on a rock and fell last Sunday, Mrs. Dexter Sparks, of Blue River, broke her right arm near the wrist. She is in Eugene now having the arm attended to. Mr. Sparks was driving cattle across the river when he was thrown from his horse. Mrs. Sparks rushed to his aid and slipped and fell on a rock. The arm broke when she put it to the ground to keep from falling.

S. H. Heltzer of Stayton and Alfred D. Cringe of Portland, grand lodge visitors were visitors in Springfield yesterday. They state that the gardening in Springfield is far ahead of that in Portland.

Mrs. Minnie Bradley arrived Tuesday from Seattle and will visit the remainder of the week with her sister, Mrs. John C. Parker and family. G. W. Millican of Waltherville recently sold the old opera house in this city and the lot on which it stands at Third and Main streets to the First National bank of Eugene.

BIG SALE

We have decided to close out our stock of Harness, Straps, and Snaps. Farmers this is the time to lay in a supply of Snaps and Buckles. During this sale we will also give you a liberal discount of 10 per cent on shoes. Sale will continue indefinitely. We will continue the oiling and repairing of harness and shoes. Wolf & Miller.

DAIRYMEN!

As previously announced, we began to make cheese Monday. It is going to be a big thing to the milk producer. Those that can, sell milk; those that can't, sell us your cream. We pay the highest price, pay on the Portland market and work on the co-operative basis. EUGENE FARMERS CREAMERY

BAPTIST CHURCH.

Sunday school 10 a. m. Preaching at 11 a. m. Arthur Pengra will speak at the morning service. B. Y. P. U. at 7 p. m. president, Homer Chase will lead the Young People's meeting. Walter Bailey will speak at the evening service.

CHRISTIAN CHURCH

Chris H. Jensen, pastor. Sunday school at 9:45 a. m. Morning service 11 o'clock. Endeavor meets at 7 o'clock. Evening service 8 o'clock. Subject of morning service: "A moral man's conversion." Evening sermon: "The mistakes of Lot." Something new in the way of Midweek services beginning next Wednesday evening. Watch for the announcement. We invite you to meet with us in all of these services.

SOCIAL EVENTS

SUNSHINE GIRLS REMEMBER THEIR TEACHER'S BIRTHDAY

A surprise party in honor of W. B. McKinney's birthday was given by the "Sunshine Girls," his Sunday school class, on the evening of Monday, May 21. Mr. McKinney received many beautiful presents. The evening was spent in playing Rook, after which punch, cake and fruits were enjoyed. Those present were: Geneva Skeels, Hazel Hayden, Alice Reynolds, Mina Bauer, Fern Travis, Laurel Griffin, Blanch Lathrop, Esther Galloway, Dorthea Holbrook, and Eva Manwaring.

MRS. SWARTS IS HOSTESS

Mrs. C. E. Swarts is entertaining the members of the Five Hundred club and Mesdames John Edwards, W. N. Long, H. W. Whitney, and B. A. Washburne as additional guests, at her home on Fifth and E streets this afternoon. Brightly-colored flowers make the rooms doubly inviting. Miss Edna Swarts is helping her mother serve.

Want Autos and Rigs.

The ladies of the G. A. R. circle and the men of the G. A. R. post desire that all who have automobiles and teams which they will donate to take the members to the cemetery on Decoration Day, May 30, meet at W. O. W. hall at 10 o'clock a. m. All children are requested to please gather flowers and bring them to the W. O. W. hall not later than 9:30.

Pure Food Products

We take considerable pride in the completeness of our stock of groceries.

Especially sanitary is our mode of handling perishable goods.

Our prices are as low as may be expected at this time of unsettled market conditions.

Try our prompt service.

Nice & Miller

Phone 41

HERBERT E. WALKER NOTARY PUBLIC Office in City Hall, Springfield, Ore.

W. F. WALKER UNDERTAKER FUNERAL DIRECTOR Office Phone 82; Residence 67-J West Main St.

Buy Your Shoes

AT A SHOE STORE Seven different styles in MEN'S WORK AND DRESS SHOES

At $3.50 a Pair

We have all sizes

35 WEST 8th ST. EUGENE, OREGON T. A. GILBERT

THE ADVENTURES OF THE PURPLE MASK

Who is the mysterious "somebody" that baffles the shrewd detective? Who was the "Raffles" that purloined the pearl necklace. Which was the real woman? Were there two? Or was the one woman so clever as to be able to fake a perfect double? Why did she or they wear a "Purple Mask" and what did the mask indicate? An! the questions seem queer to you but they are all explained in the greatest Universal Serial.

BELL THEATRE

Wednesday, May 30

We Have Moved

We wish to announce that we have moved to our new location at East Ninth and Pearl streets, where we are in a position to give better service than ever before. We also carry a complete line of having latest facilities, even to a ladies' rest room.

Overland and Willys-Knight Automobiles and Supplies

Sherman Hayes

E. Ninth and Pearl Sts. Eugene, Oregon

J. J. BROWNING

Creamery Block

Dealer in HAY, GRAIN, FLOUR, SEEDS, SALT, MILL FEED, OIL MEAL, SOY BEAN MEAL

ALFALFA MEAL (Sweet and Dry)

POULTRY SUPPLIES

ROLLED OATS, CHICK FEED

SEEDS

In Package or Bulk True to Name and Kind

Give Us A Trial