The faculty committee in awarding the cup consists of Dean D. W. Morton, E. E. DeCou and C. H. Edmondson. The Koyl cup is awarded on the basis of scholarship, social activity, athletics and other things that contribute to make a rounded-out man. To get it is considered one of the highest honors that can be paid to a student. Winners of the cup in past years have been Herbert Lombard, Leslie Tooze and Nicolas Juareguy.

SOCIAL EVENTS. STUDENTS ENJOY PARTY. The domestic science and manual training classes of the Springfield high school report having a pleasant time at the home of Miss Avis Thompson, last Monday evening. The evening was spent in singing and enjoying the special music by Mr. Dan Fisher on the violin. About ten o'clock an ice cream "feed" was partaken of, and the boys declared that the girls were sure some "cooks" if they had frozen the delightful repast. Those present who belong to the classes were: Misses Ellen Lambert, Estel la Magill, Mattie Sergeant, Avis Thompson, and Messers. Glen Woolley, Ernest Moe, George Williams, Harry Hughes, Harry Fandrem, and invited guests were Miss Edna Duryee, Mr. Dan Fisher, and Mrs. L. Thompson. Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Horton were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Eggmann yesterday, following the Memorial day exercises at the cemetery.

ENTERTAIN JOINTLY. Mrs. Cora Hinson and Mrs. Katy Brumette were joint hostesses to the Pine Needle club at the home of Mrs. Hinson Tuesday afternoon. The following members were present: Mrs. Rosa Montgomery, Mrs. Emily Nystrom, Mrs. Della Peterson, Mrs. Julia Tomsoth, Mrs. Minnie Girard, and Mrs. Edith Larimer. Guests were: Mrs. I. D. Larson, and Mrs. Ella Frost. Mrs. Nina McPherson entertains the club at a special meeting next Tuesday afternoon in honor of Mrs. Julia Tomsoth, who is here from Weed, Cal. A noteworthy feature of Pine Needle meetings nowadays is that because of the war, refreshments are no longer served. ENJOY WIENER ROAST. Wieners and bread, pickles and marshmallows, proved to be good eating for a bunch of young folks who enjoyed a campfire lunch above the river bridge last night. The party included: Norton Pengra, Miss Iva Hill, Glen Woolley, Miss Audrey Perkins, Bill Hill, Miss Maude Gorrie, Miss Beatrice Holbrook, and Creed Brattain.

LOCAL U. O. SENIORS TO BE GIVEN DINNER. Invitations signed by Ted Stewart and Roy Cairns are out for a dinner to be given at the Palace of Sweets on Saturday evening in honor of the Springfield graduates of the University of Oregon. The graduates are: Misses Lola Barr, Marjorie Machen, Vera Perkins and Marie De Pue, and Mr. Clinton Conley. Additional guests for the affair will be Miss Esther Furuset, Norman Anderson, and Harold Perkins. Dr. and Mrs. Pollard were dinner guests at the home of Miss Margaret Morris last evening. O. B. Kessey's Mother Dead. Word has been received here of the death of Mrs. C. Kessey at Milford, Iowa, on Tuesday, at the age of 63 years. Her son O. B. Kessey, of this city who with a brother and his father survive, was at his mother's bedside when she died. It is not known just when Mrs. Kessey will start home with Mrs. Kessey and their son, Dwight, who preceded him East some time ago.

MAKES CLUBBING ARRANGEMENT WITH

THE OREGON FARMER

Offers Unusual Opportunity To Its Readers

AMONG our large circle of readers there are a great many who are interested directly or indirectly in fruit growing, dairying and other branches of farming. All of these naturally wish to keep in close touch with agricultural activities throughout the state; and to know about any fight which is being waged for the measures Oregon farmers want and against all sorts of schemes that are detrimental to the people and agricultural interests of this state.

We have, therefore, made a special clubbing arrangement with THE OREGON FARMER whereby any farmer or fruit-grower, who is one of our regular subscribers and who is not now a subscriber of THE OREGON FARMER, will be entitled to receive THE OREGON FARMER in combination with this paper at the same rate as for this paper alone.

This offer applies to all those who renew or extend their subscriptions as well as to all new subscribers. If you are interested directly or indirectly in Oregon agriculture, do not miss this unusual opportunity but send your order in now.

THE OREGON FARMER is the one farm paper which is devoting itself exclusively to the farming activities and interests of Oregon. It has a big organization gathering the news of importance to farmers, dairymen, fruitgrowers, stockraisers and poultrymen; and it has the backbone to attack wrongful methods and combinations and bad legislation, and support honest leaders and beneficial measures. We are confident that our readers will congratulate us on our being able to make this splendid and attractive clubbing offer.

The Springfield News, one year $1.50
Oregon Farmer, one year 1.00
2.50

By our special clubbing plan, both for 1.50
