SCHOOL NEWS.

MRS. SKINNER ENTERTAINS FOR U. OF O. GRADUATES

Chief among the social events of this week, and there have been many are affairs for Springfield's graduates from the University of Oregon, of whom the city is justly proud. One of the most thoroughly enjoyable of these was a picnic given by Mr. and Mrs. Ben F. Skinner at a point on the river back of the Springfield hill, on Tuesday evening. The happy party left town about 6:30, getting lunch ready immediately after arriving at the picnic spot. Wieners, roasted over the bonfire, sandwiches, salad, pickles, oranges, bananas, and orangeade, constituted the "eats." After lunch, the crowd sat around the camp fire, told stories, and performed stunts, managing to have a most enjoyable time. Those enjoying the occasion were: Miss Vera Perkins, Lola Barr, Marjorie Machen, Vera Nelson, and Opal Holverson, and Messers Chan Rychar, George Dick of Eugene, Clinton Conley, Russell Dimm, and John Ashworth.

ENTERTAIN U. GRADUATES WITH DINNER AND PARTY

Mr. and Mrs. Silas A. Gay were host and hostess at a most delicious four course dinner Monday evening, the affair being in honor of the Springfield graduates of the University of Oregon. California poppies and Scotch Bloom and foliage provided an appropriate color scheme of green and yellow—the Oregon colors. Place cards also helped carry out the decorative idea. Covers were laid for Misses Marjorie Machen, Lola Barr, Vera Perkins, Vera Nelson, Ester Furuset and Ethel Conley, and Messers Roy Cairns and Clinton Conley. Miss Marie De Pue and Walter Dimm who are also members of the graduating class, were unable to be present.

After dinner, a number of other guests joined those already assembled and a delightful "Roar" party was enjoyed. Ice cream and cake were served at the close of the evening. Guests for the party were: Misses Opal Holverson, Gertrude Williams, Ethelyn Powers, France Travis, Nell Nixon, and Messers Levi Neet, Fener Travis, Ivan McKinney, Claude Signor, Norman Anderson, Russell Dimm, Harold Perkins, Ted Stuart, and Roland Moshler.

NEEDLECRAFT CLUB HONORS FORMER MEMBER

On Tuesday afternoon, the members of the Needlecraft club met at the home of Mrs. Nina McPherson at the corner of Second and D streets, with Mrs. Julia Tomseth, who used to belong to the club as an honor guest. Mrs. Tomseth, who with her husband John Tomseth, who was for many years superintendent of the Booth Kelly mill here, was a former resident of Springfield, is now visiting here from Weed, California. Mrs. McPherson was assisted in serving on Tuesday afternoon by her sister, Vena Cox. Those present to renew old acquaintanceship with Mrs. Tomseth were: Della Peterson, Minnie Girard, Mamie Richmond, Vena Cox, Katherine Horton, Welma Suitsen, Sadie Nelson, Rosa Montgomery, Hannah Hill, Lilly Kiser, Cora Hinson, Emily Dority, Edith Larimer, and the hostess, Nina McPherson. Mrs. Horton will be hostess to the club at her out of town home a week from next Tuesday.

MRS. COX ENTERTAINS FRIENDS ON BIRTHDAY

On Saturday afternoon, Mrs. Norwood Cox was at home to twelve of her Eugene and Springfield friends at her home on A street. The Eugene ladies, all but one of whom writes Mrs. before her name now, were clerks at the Large Cloak and Suit House, or at Frank E. Dunn's store at the same time Mrs. Cox, then Miss Marie Williams, was employed at Dunn's. After a most en-

Joyable visit among themselves and with the hostess, the guests enjoyed a luncheon of delicious shrimp salad, salted crackers, nut-and-raisin bread sandwiches, coffee, ice cream and cake. Mrs. Cox's guests were: Mrs. Wayne Hurd, Mrs. Homer Sessions, Mrs. J. B. Sessions, Mrs. Clinton Godlove, Mrs. Burke Eaton, Mrs. Blanche Gano, Miss Eva Barton, Mrs. Homer Carson, Mrs. Frank McCracken, Mrs. Van Svarvred, all of Eugene; and Mesdames C. F. Eggmann and R. P. Mortensen of this city.

ANNUAL PICNIC ENJOYED

On Tuesday the high school students celebrated the close of the school year with an all-day picnic at Deadmond's Ferry, chief feature of said picnic being the "feed" at noon. Misses Vera Williams and Effie Rhodes, and Messers P. M. Stroud and Walter Moore went along to keep the peace.

Wieners and marshmallows formed the "piece de resistance" of a Junior party enjoyed in the grove behind the Springfield Flour mill after the Class Day exercises Monday evening. Chaparones were Miss Esther Campbell, Miss Vera Williams, Principal P. M. Stroud and Walter Moore.
