Makes Clubbing Arrangement With

The Oregon Farmer

Offers Unusual Opportunity to Its Readers

AMONG our large circle of readers there are a great many who are interested directly or indirectly in fruit growing, dairying and other branches of farming. All of these naturally wish to keep in close touch with agricultural activities throughout the state; and to know about any fight which is being waged for the measures Oregon farmers want and against all sorts of schemes that are detrimental to the people and agricultural interests of this state.

We have, therefore, made a special clubbing arrangement with THE OREGON FARMER whereby any farmer or fruitgrower, who is not one of our regular subscribers and who is not now a subscriber to THE OREGON FARMER, will be entitled to receive THE OREGON FARMER in combination with this paper at the same rate as for this paper alone.

This offer applies to all those who renew or extend their subscriptions as well as to all new subscribers. If you are interested directly or indirectly in Oregon agriculture, do not miss this unusual opportunity, but send your order in now.

THE OREGON FARMER is the one farm paper which is devoting itself exclusively to the farming activities and interests of Oregon. It has a big organization gathering the news of importance to farmers, dairymen, fruitgrowers, stockraisers and poultrymen; and it has the backbone to attack wrongful methods and combinations and bad legislation, and support honest leaders and beneficial measures. We are confident that our readers will congratulate us on our being able to make this splendid and attractive clubbing offer.

SOCIAL EVENTS

GRADUATES ARE THE GUESTS OF MR. AND MRS. R. L. KIRK

A picture gallery was the chief feature of this year's annual reception to the graduating class by Superintendent and Mrs. Robert L. Kirk. It was on Thursday evening that the merriment occurred, and merriment is the right term, for the ludicrous "snaps" of some of the worthy seniors' profiles. Although the similarity between the originals and the "photos" was hardly recognizable in some cases Miss Grace Thomas succeeded in guessing quite a number, and in winning the prize—a box of stationery—from the other competitors. After the prize was bestowed, stunts were performed by different groups or the guests. Later dainty refreshments of ices, cakes, and candies in the pink and green class colors were much enjoyed. As additional guests, beside the members of the class, Mr. and Mrs. Kirk entertained Miss Nora J. Sorensen, Miss Vera Williams, and Walter Moore.

ALUMNI ENTERTAINS SENIORS

The annual banquet and reception given by the Alumni for the graduating class of the high school was given last Saturday evening in the parlors of the Methodist church. The guests were received by the reception committee, composed of Lola Barr, Marjorie Machen, and Clinton Conley. A delightful three-course dinner was served. The tables were artistically decorated with honeysuckles and carnations, the class colors predominating, and hand painted place cards were used to mark the places. One of the novel entertainments of the evening was an examination. Questions in grammar, geography, writing, history and domestic science were given out and the person answering correctly the most received the prize.

MRS. LENHART ENTERTAINS KENSINGTON CLUB

Instead of the usual meeting last Thursday afternoon the Kensington Club was entertained at Coburg Bridge with a picnic by Mrs. Lenhart. The afternoon was spent in a jolly good time and strange rumors have been brought to our ears about rather "kid-dish" stunts being indulged in. Dainty refreshments were served. The guests of the club were: Mrs. Paul Brattain, Mrs. Mae Stevenson, Mrs. D. Crites, and Mrs. W. L. Dunlap. The members present were: Mrs. L. May, Mrs. Lyon, Mrs. Fred Bressler, Mrs. J. F. Goddard, Mrs. N. W. Emery, Mrs. W. F. Walker, Mrs. J. C. Holbrook, Mrs. Whitney, Mrs. C. E. Swarts, and Miss Edna Swarts.

ENTERTAIN IN HONOR OF TEACHER

On Wednesday evening was one of the most delightful social occasions of the week when Superintendent and Mrs. R. L. Kirk entertained at dinner in honor of their son Charles' teacher Miss Grace Walker. The center piece was attractively made of red, white and blue flowers and hand painted place cards marked the places. The additional guests were the Misses Merl Nimmo, Mary Rouse and Anne McCormick, and Mrs. L. K. Page.

INTERMEDIATE CLASS MEETS

Twenty members of the Intermediate class of the Christian church met with their teacher, Delbert Bucknum, at the home of Helen Stevens on Mill and E. streets Thursday evening. A business and social evening was followed by a lunch. Games were enjoyed upon the spacious lawn and a good time is reported.

Purchased Half Interest

R. M. Mitchell, of Westport, Oregon, has bought Will Bishop's interest with Mark V. Endicott. Mr. Mitchell has been a barber for 27 years. He and Mrs. Mitchell and their son arrived here Tuesday, and moved into the Fitzgerald residence on Sixth and B streets. Mr. Mitchell started work in the shop Wednesday morning.

To Cut Out Danger Spot

The county court has taken steps to do away with the dangerous road crossing near Creswell where Frank Sly and four children were killed a year or two ago. A road is to be built to connect with one of the streets of Creswell so that vehicles will not be compelled to cross the railroad at that point.

Travelers Find Snow

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Clark, are in receipt of a letter from Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Davis, who left here a few days ago in their car enroute for points in the east. They report the roads as being very bad; on the morning of June 3, ice froze one-half inch thick on the water pail. They also found it snowing when they arrived at Burns.

ACTIVITIES OF OTHER COMMUNITIES TOLD BY CORRESPONDENTS

LANDAX

June 6.—Arthur Edwards of Signal, Oregon, narrowly escaped death Thursday when the top of a small halm fell about 200 feet caused by the falling of another tree that the two brothers had just cut. Arthur stepped back about 30 feet thinking he was out of danger. He was thrown 20 feet by the huge limb.

A. Miller and family from Reserve were visiting his son, Hiram, Sunday. Farmers are having fine weather to plant garden.

Frank Hinfrey of Landax was badly cut by an axe, near Landax last week. Mrs. Hiram Miller who is taking care of his arm said he will be able to work in a few days.

Wilson Darling and daughter who motored from California were visiting friends around this community.

Business is good here. There are about five gasoline saws at work near Signal.

COBURG

June 6.—N. J. Nelson Jr. and wife returned from Corvallis Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Anderson and daughters Misses Elsie and Lilly, Mr. and Mrs. M. V. Endicott of Springfield, and Mr. and Charles Tyler motored to Leaburg Sunday, returning the same day.

Mrs. N. H. Fair has been ill for several days, but is improving now.

S. L. Tonneson motored to Eugene Monday on business.

H. M. Anderson, Sam Green and Jay Hopkins are jurors for the jury held in Eugene this month.

Clarence Anderson motored to Eugene Wednesday on business.

Mrs. Tressie Hurden was a business caller in Eugene Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Leo Sidwell motored to Springfield Sunday.

The Western Oregon Round-up and Patriotic Celebration will be held in Albany, July 2, 3, and 4th.

HELP WIN THE WAR Fight--Economize--Conserve--Produce BUT FIRST OF ALL Buy a Liberty Loan Bond

Liberty Loan Bonds are the safest investment in the world today. They are issued by the United States Government and are a mortgage on the United States of America—our country—the richest country in the world. They are Uncle Sam's promise to pay, and he is worth $225,000,000,000.

Liberty Loan Bonds pay 3 1/2% interest and they may be had in any of the following denominations: $50, $100, $500, $1000, $5000, $10,000, $50,000 and $100,000. You can make a first payment as low as one dollar and have until August 30 to pay the balance. Most big business houses will accept Liberty Loan Bonds same as cash in payment for merchandise.

A MESSAGE FROM SECRETARY W. G. M'ADOO

"Wars cannot be conducted without money. It is the first thing to be provided. In this war it is the most immediate help—the most effective help that we can give. We must not be content with a subscription of two billion dollars—we must over-subscribe this loan as an indication that America is stirred to the depths and aroused to the summit of her greatness in the cause of freedom. Let us not endanger success by complacent optimism. Let us not satisfy ourselves with the reflection that some one else will subscribe the required amount. Let every man and woman in the land make it his or her business to subscribe to the Liberty Loan immediately, and if they cannot subscribe themselves, let them induce somebody else to subscribe. Provide the Government with the funds indispensably needed for the conduct of the war and give notice to the enemies of the United States that we have billions to sacrifice in the cause of Liberty.

"Buy a Liberty Bond today; do not put it off until tomorrow. Every dollar provided quickly and expended wisely will shorten the war and save human life."

W. G. M'ADOO, Secretary of the Treasury.
