THE HOME MERCHANT Who is he?

He is the chap who gives you credit when you are financially broke, and carries your account until you are able to pay—

He is the chap who gives you back your money, or makes exchange when you are not satisfied with what you have bought—

He is the chap who stands behind his guarantee and makes restoration of all losses that you may sustain on the goods you buy—

He is the chap who meets you at the door with a handshake, and lets you out with a message to the kids and a real come-back again goodbye—

He is the chap who greets you on the street every day in the year and takes a neighborly interest in your family and your affairs—

He is the chap whose clerks and bookkeepers and other employees live in your town and spend their money with you and with other home town people—

He is the chap who pays heavy taxes to help support your town schools and build your streets, and maintain your fire departments and police departments, and parks, and lighting and water service—

He is the chap who helps support your cities, churches and hospitals and charity organizations and your lodges and commercial clubs, and who talks for your town, and boosts for your town every day in the year—

He is the chap who visits you when you are sick, sends flowers to your family when you die, and follows your body out among the trees and tombs, as far as human feet may tread with the dead—

He is the Home Merchant—your neighbor—your friend—your helper in time of need—

Don't you think you ought to trade with him, and be his friends and helper in HIS time of need?

Don't you know that every dollar that you send out of your town for merchandise is sent to strangers—to men who have never spent a dollar in your town?

You don't save much, frequently nothing, when you send your money out of town, and don't you know that the growth and prosperity of your town depends very largely upon the success and prosperity of the home merchants? Out-of-town people judge our city by the appearance of our stores and the degree of enterprise shown by our merchants, and our home merchants cannot succeed unless home folks give them loyal support.—Oregon Voter.

COUNTRY MUST BE SERVED
"Selective draft" does not mean the mere selection of the physically fit, the weeding out of the ablest for war service. It means that for the first time in the history, common sense and knowledge of our common needs will be brought to bear in conscription. The land must not lose its laborers, the factory

While they are thinking of the individual, they are also thinking of the country at large. There will be many an ardent lad bitterly disappointed because he will be bidden to stay behind while others go to the front, but he will know and understand the reason. He is best serving his country by remaining. The war means service for all. To each his allotted place. Wisdom must direct whether we shall go or stay. It is for us to accept the place allotted and do with all our might that task we are adjudged. America expects today everyone to do his duty. Duty has many forms, loyalty but one. Be loyal to your duty.—Ex.
