

Girls Attention

When writing to your "Soldier Boy" use our special Patriotic Stationery.

Something new
PRICES 50c and $1.00

Everybody get the habit. See our window display

PHONE
31

Town and Vicinity

Mrs. Spencer Ross is spending the week in Seattle with friends.

Nice and Miller's delivery truck has received a new coat of red paint.

George Spores of Spores Siding was in Springfield yesterday.

Wanted: Casaca bark, Oats, Wheat Hay, etc. Bring in your grain samples and we will make you an offer. Springfield Feed company.

Del Hinson left Sunday for Shedd, where he is employed.

Verdon May is clerking in the Nice and Miller Grocery store.

J. Slike, of Mabel made a business trip to Springfield yesterday.

Men, get your hats, caps, shirts, shoes, all kinds of toggery at Wolf and Miller's Clothing store.

J. J. Ross of Portland made a business visit to Springfield yesterday.

Fred Thompson of Salem visited at the G. Miller home Tuesday evening.

Robert Hayes a former Springfield boy, spent Sunday in town. He motored up from Harrisburg.

Rubber gloves 35 cents a pair at Peery's

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Martin at the Mercy hospital in Eugene Tuesday evening a six pound son.

J. J. Kirby returned to Springfield yesterday after having spent several weeks in San Francisco.

Pearl Whiteley who has been in Roseburg for some time past has returned to Springfield for a few days.

Eggmann's for quality always.

Fenner and France Travis will leave Saturday for a two weeks camping trip above Mabel.

Miss Edith Holcomb left Sunday for Northport, Washington, where she will spend the summer visiting relatives.

Johnson's Best Flour $2.70. Cupid Hardwheat Patent $2.85. Why pay more? Every sack guaranteed, Springfield Feed Company.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Barr, of Sheridan, spent Tuesday evening at the home of Mr. Barr's sister, Mrs. Curtis Hayden.

W. H. Brewster, who is traveling in the interests of the play "The Birth of a Nation" stopped at the Elite hotel Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. James Harris and Frank Rowel, of Dallas, spent Sunday at the E. E. Morrison home. The party made the trip by auto.

Your money back if Corn Solvent falls to get that corn, 25 cents at Peery's.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Skinner left Sunday for their home in Marshfield. They visited for a week at the homes of Robert Sidwell and Ben Skinner.

Fred Watson, an Albany insurance man, and J. P. Fry made a business trip to the W. F. Gibson Mill at Pengra Tuesday.

Edna Swarts and Estella Martin enjoyed supper on the J. W. Coffin lawn as the guests of Florence Coffin last evening.

Mrs. D. Crouch and daughter Thelma left yesterday evening for North Yakima, Washington where they will make their home.

F. D. Smith, of Watterville, spent yesterday in town.

Mr. and Mrs. George Settle left today for Oakland, Oregon, where they will visit Mr. Settle's son, Ed Settle, for several days. Mr. Settle is falling in health and feels that a few days on the farm will do him good.

Mrs. Frank Sinnott and brother James Phillips and Miss Allie Sharp of Portland are spending a week with Oliver Johnson. The party left Tuesday morning on a fishing trip up the McKenzie.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur McCracken who have been living at Oakridge for several months left yesterday for Portland where Mr. McCracken has a position with the Southern Pacific company.

Self-filling fountain pens $1.00 at Peery's.

At the home of the officiating minister Rev. A. L. Crim in Eugene at 7 p. m., July 7, 1917, H. F. McIlwaine, of Leaburg, and Mrs. Eva L. Fischer, of Eugene were married.

William A. Jordan and family, of Bickleton, Washington, and Evan C. Jordan, of Pasco, Washington, are visiting the brother, D. S. Jordan, and family. Evan C. Jordan is a paralytic and has not seen his brother D. S. Jordan, for about eleven years.

A work train was engaged Sunday in picking up old rails on the Wendling branch of the Southern Pacific railway. The steel is being sold to a logging company for use near Tillamook.

A large shipment of beds just received, ordered from the East some time ago, real bargains let us show them to you. J. C. Holbrook.

Miss Hazel Minton, of Portland, arrived Friday evening to spend the summer at the home of her grandmother, Mrs. Harry Brummette. This is the first trip for the young lady to this valley.

Mrs. C. R. Wagner, of Portland, arrived Sunday afternoon to spend several weeks at the home of her parents Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Pease, who live on the Willamac Land company's farm near Hayden bridge.

Ice cold sodas and milk shakes at Eggmann's

Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Kirk and son Charles, left Tuesday morning by auto for Portland, where they will visit Mr. Kirk's father, John R. Kirk, of Kirkville, Mo., who is president of the Missouri normal school and is attending the N. E. A. convention held this week in Portland.

A Eugene Transfer Truck passed through Springfield yesterday with five road scrapers which will be used in the work being done on the county road between Hayden bridge and Fifth street.

Lubricating oil—special price, bring a big can. J. C. Holbrook.

Rev. Earl B. Cotton, pastor of the Marcola circuit of the Methodist Episcopal church, went to Salem Monday forenoon to meet his parents, who are moving there from Idaho. A sister will enter Willamette university at Salem.

Mr. and Mrs. Chester Elspass and Mrs. Elspass' sister, Hazel Rennie, returned to Turner yesterday. Mr. and Mrs. Elspass have been here since June 25, having come to spend the Fourth with Mr. and Mrs. H. Rennie.

The hotter the weather the fresher Eggmann's candies.

R. W. Makinson who recently returned from Truckee, California, is moving his household goods from his farm on Camp Creek to the house owned by E. E. Kepner on C street, between Fifth and Sixth streets.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Hutchinson and Lillian Mulligan returned last night from Vancouver where she has been visiting her brother and the boys from Springfield.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Meachem and son, Roy, leave today for Drain where they will visit Mr. Meachem's sister, Mrs. Grey.

John Winzenried who has been ill for several days with pleurisy is greatly improved.

Mrs. J. C. Dimm, who has been visiting in Seattle and Portland for several weeks returned today.

Reverend S. A. Danford, pastor of the Methodist church, will arrive Sunday at noon. Mr. Danford will preach at the evening service. The morning service will be in charge of Reverend James T. Moore.

Arthur Peterson is under the care of a local physician.

Ransom Miller of the Nice and Miller store is spending several days helping Will Bishop make hay.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Barnett, daughter, Nevada, Gladys Thompson, and Mabel Fandrem enjoyed a picnic supper on the river bank last evening.

Frank J. Norton, buyer for the Ever fresh Food company at Sutherlin, Oregon, is in town today buying up this season's berry crop.

Al Perkins shipped about 370 sheep to a Portland firm Tuesday.

The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Williams, of Los Angeles, who spent the summer here two years ago will be glad to hear that they will spend this summer here also at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. McCulloch.

Mrs. B. F. Wilson, mother of Mrs. C. B. Shotts, returned yesterday from Monmouth where she has been visiting her daughter since before the war.

CLIPPED FROM OLD PAPER

D. S. Jordan Has Notice Characteristic of Seventy Years Ago.

The notice for the sale which we print here was clipped from a Missouri paper by D. S. Jordan. Some of our readers may be interested to know how such sales were carried on in old slave days.

Public Sale

"State of Missouri, County of Pike—To Whom it May Concern: The undersigned will on Tuesday, September 29, A. D., 1846, sell at public outcry for cash on premises, where Coon creek crosses on the Missouri road, the following chattels to-wit: Nine yolk of oxen with yoke and chain, two wagons with beds, three nigger wenches, four buck niggers, three nigger boys, two prairie plows, twenty-five steel traps, one barrel pickled cabbage, one hoghead of tobacco, one lot nigger hoes, one spinning wheel, loom, three fox hounds, a lot of coon, mink and skunk skins and a lot of other articles. Am gwine to California. John Doe.

Richard Roe, Crier.

Free headcheese, apples and hard cider at noon.

Woodmen Install Officers

At the regular meeting of the Woodmen of the World Tuesday evening the following officers were installed: M. V. Endicott, Advisor Lieutenant; Oswald Olson, Escort; C. M. Neet, Watchman; H. C. Bird, Sentry; John Edwards, Manager. After the business meeting ice cream was served and a social time spent by the members.

Old Time Resident Dies

J. W. Ebbert, of Walla Walla, Washington, formerly a resident of Springfield died at his home this morning at 4:30 o'clock. Mr. Ebbert is the father of Mrs. Frank Powers and Mrs. John Winzenried of this place. The remains will be shipped to the Veatch undertaking parlors in Eugene and funeral arrangements made later.

CHRISTIAN CHURCH

Chris H. Jensen, Pastor
Sunday school at 9:45. Christian Endeavor 7 p. m. Morning service 11 o'clock, subject, "The Gospel of Christ." Evening service 8 o'clock subject "Neglected Opportunities." We welcome all. The coolest place in town on a warm Sunday evening is at Fourth and A streets.

Pasadena Teachers Visit Here

Miss Eva Wentworth and Miss Ernestine Machold, teachers in the Pasadena school, visited the Booth-Kelly mill today. They have been attending the meeting of the National Educational Association held this week in Portland. From here they left for Lorane where they will spend several weeks on Miss Wentworth's farm.

Has Joined Organization

Among those who have recently become members of the Zeta Kappa Psi, the only National forensic sorority is Miss Amy Carson of this place. The society is composed of debaters and public speakers only. Miss Carson was a member of the University of Oregon debating team last year.

Advertised Letters

The following letters remain in the Springfield post office uncalled for. W. B. Neckley, Esq., Mr. J. B. Walters Miss Effie Ralph. A charge of one cent will be made on all advertised letters. HARRY M. STEWART, Postmaster.

DAIRYMEN!

We paid 50c per pound for butterfat in the cheese factory last month. Does this interest you?

EUGENE FARMERS CREAMERY

Newport

Charming Resort
by the Sea

Those who seek rest, and seashore recreation, will find abundant opportunity at Newport.

Ample hotel accommodations, cottages or camping arrangements.

Low Round Trip Fares

Daily Trains—Each Direction

Ask our nearest agent for folder "Newport," or write

John M. Scott, General Passenger Agent

SOUTHERN PACIFIC LINES

You Want Full Value

for your money and that is our business to see that you get it if you trade at Hill's.

Prices on all merchandise will advance for some time to come—but it will be our aim to give you the best prices possible at our store. You can save money and we are anxious to serve you. Your patronage will be appreciated here

7oz. ROLL TOILET PAPER

A 10c value our price 5c.
10c package jar rubbers good heavy quality 5c.
Jar tops 20c doz.
Sun Bright cleanser . . 5c.
WARM WEATHER NEEDS
Union suits in Misses sizes 25c.
Ladies vests . 15c and 25c.

Straw hats 10, 15, and 25c.
Middy Blouses 95c up.
ARROW HEAD HOSIERY.
White and black 15c the pair this is a 25c value.
FISHING TACKLE
Outing supplies
Paper plates
Granite ware
Tin ware
Glass ware

HILL DEPARTMENT STORE

J. J. BROWNING

Creamery Block

Dealer in
HAY, GRAIN, FLOUR, SEEDS, SALT, MILL FEED,
OIL MEAL, SOY BEAN MEAL

ALFALFA MEAL
(Sweet and Dry)

POULTRY SUPPLIES

ROLLED OATS, CHICK FEED

SEEDS

In Package or Bulk
True to Name and Kind

Give Us A Trial

The Price of Fuel Is Going Up But the Cost of Gas Never Increases

We have many satisfied customers who are using

GAS for COOKING, and HEATING WATER

Telephone 58 and we will send a representative to explain

Oregon Power Co.

A. L. INGALLS, Manager.