Appeal Is Made to Housewives

Women Are to Be Enlisted in Hoover Conservation Plan

W. B. Ayer, Federal Food Commissioner for Oregon, is desirous of enlisting the services of every Oregon housewife in the Hoover food conservation plan. With an earnest plea for its serious consideration, he has sent out the following message:

To the Women of Oregon
The greatest opportunity for patriotic service since the war commenced is offered to the housewives of this state.

The season of perishable fruits and vegetables is upon us.

The value of the thousands of war gardens planted in response to the president's appeal will depend upon the effort made now to preserve their products.

Let every housewife be a soldier in the food army. Can and dry everything not required for immediate use. Let nothing go to waste. Foods preserved for home use will release other supplies for our soldiers at the front. They will undoubtedly be high prices and scarcity of many articles next winter. Those who provide for the future now will have little to worry about then.

For recipes describing effective and inexpensive methods of canning, drying and pickling call upon Oregon Agricultural College or the Department of Agriculture at Washington. Many of these recipes supplied from official sources are being printed for your service in the daily newspapers.

Let there not be a minute's delay or the waste of a pound of food that can be preserved. Our boys are proud to fight for our homes and liberty; let no woman be too proud to do her bit in conserving the food supply.

Men Must Appear in Proper Manner

Five Per Cent of Conscripted Men Advised to Report According to Rules

Five per cent of the men conscripted for army service who were ordered to report to the local boards Tuesday were advised by the war department to present themselves as follows:

- Body thoroughly bathed.
- Hair cut very short.
- Finger and toenails cut short.
- In clean underwear, with two changes.

In old clothing that may be discarded.

With shaving outfit, comb and brush tooth brush and tooth powder, two bath towels, three hand towels and six handkerchiefs.

Preferably with personal articles in bundles rather than in suitcases or hand bags, since the latter cannot be kept in camps.

Lane County will not be represented in the first draft.

Tomatoes and grapes.
An Italian grape grower accidentally discovered that the presence of tomato plants in his vineyard made short work of the phylloxera, with which his vines were infested. This insect destroys both the root and the stem of the grapevine.

Masterpiece at Eugene Theatre

Film Pictures America's Future Together with a Powerful Love Theme

Those who see Thomas Dixon's masterpiece, "The Fall of a Nation," marvel at his stupendous imagination for creating situations in which the heart of the spectators throbs with intense anxiety.

The mightiest picture of genuine grit that the brain of man has yet conceived is realized in this thrilling film spectacle of America's future with a central love theme of engrossing power.

The blood curdles with hate as we see our country being attacked for no reason other than selfish ambition; then pride thins the blood and sends it gushing through the veins as we see the lovers kiss good-by and the hero lead his army from home to face the giant shell of steel, which is to go hurled at them by the Kaiser's powerful 42 centimetre guns.

As we see the most powerful of all guns sending forth shells loaded with explosive matter, and watch them burst in the midst of our men, the nerves tingle to the tips of the fingers. When an American rushes into an explosion, seizes the flag and carries it to the Kaiser's lines, we feel proud that we belong to a race of men that meet such obstacles with diamond grit—and prouder that our Government has contributed seven billion dollars, and a vast army, to establish a world democracy.

Can be seen at the Eugene theatre, Friday and Saturday, September 7 and 8.

WHAT SORT OF A DEAL HAS YOUR DENTIST GIVEN YOU?

- Did any of the tooth-tappers of your acquaintance ever look into your mouth without charging you for the privilege?
- Did any of 'em tell you what was wrong with your molars and instruct you about your dental apparatus without slapping a generous charge on the bill?
- Did any of them do anything so unbusinesslike as to make out first a carefully itemized estimate for you, showing just what work had to be done on each tooth and showing the cost of material and labor required on each?
- Did any of the professional practitioners in your experience ever act as if he was a business man, selling dentistry, or did he go at you as if you were an easy mark, to be kept in ignorance and then charged any old thing. Just because you didn't know better?
- Did any dental office, visited by you, select a specialist to do the particular work you required, or did the same man try to give you an equally good job whether it was plate work or crown work or filling or any of the six or seven branches of dentistry?
- Did any of the tusk-trimmers give you work that was guaranteed and repeatedly proved both painless and harmless?
- Did you always succeed in getting the best materials in the market at the lowest possible price to you, or did you just pay whatever the wise-looking dento-brigano told you to pay as he shoved his professional pistol up under your chin?
- Did any of the cuspid-cutters bother to see whether you kept your teeth in good condition and make you drop around once every six months to have your jaws given the once-over, free of charge?

The Oregon Farmer

Makes Clubbing Arrangement With
Offers Unusual Opportunity to Its Readers

AMONG our large circle of readers there are a great many who are interested directly or indirectly in fruit growing, dairying and other branches of farming. All of these naturally wish to keep in close touch with agricultural activities throughout the state; and to know about any fight which is being waged for the measures Oregon farmers want and against all sorts of schemes that are detrimental to the people and agricultural interests of this state.

We have, therefore, made a special clubbing arrangement with THE OREGON FARMER whereby any farmer or fruitgrower, who is one of our regular subscribers and who is not now a subscriber to THE OREGON FARMER, will be entitled to receive THE OREGON FARMER in combination with this paper at the same rate as for this paper alone.

This offer applies to all those who renew or extend their subscriptions as well as to all new subscribers. If you are interested directly or indirectly in Oregon agriculture, do not miss this unusual opportunity, but send your order in now.

THE OREGON FARMER is the one farm paper which is devoting itself exclusively to the farming activities and interests of Oregon. It has a big organization gathering the news of importance to farmers, dairymen, fruitgrowers, stockraisers and poultrymen; and it has the backbone to attack wrongful methods and combinations and bad legislation, and support honest leaders and beneficial measures. We are confident that our readers will congratulate us on our being able to make this splendid and attractive clubbing offer.
