BOOKS FOR FIGHTING FORCES

More than half a million books already have been furnished soldiers and sailors in training camps and in France by the American Library Association. War Service and the flow is steadily increasing according to the director of this work.

A campaign for funds inaugurated by the association last autumn netted more than $1,500,000 and real results in the tangible shape of books and comfortable libraries are being felt by the soldiers and sailors. The Carnegie Corporation gave $320,000 for the erection of camp libraries. Nearly all camps now have libraries and in the others the buildings are in course of construction. The reading rooms each accommodate 250 men.

For the men in France the association has organized distributing stations at all points of embarkation, where books are assorted for shipment abroad. Soon every soldier who steps on a transport will carry a book with him, which he and his companions will read on the way across, after which it will be forwarded to the men back of the trenches. No attempt will be made to establish libraries in France, but the association will have representatives there to supervise the work of distribution.

CHILDREN SHOULD BUY STAMPS

C. S. Jackson, State Director of War Savings Campaign has returned from a visit in Washington and other eastern cities full of enthusiasm for the prosecution of the War Savings Campaign in this state. Mr. Jackson says there is no doubt about the ultimate success of the two billion dollar War Savings Drive during 1918 but that it cannot be put over unless the people give to it the same patriotic support that has attended all other big "drives" since the war began. "One thing I wish to emphasize" said Mr. Jackson, "and it is along the line I talked over with Secretary McAdoo. It is that the school houses of the country as community centers should be made the base from which the War Savings Drive is carried on. This campaign offers the one opportunity for children and people of smaller means to contribute their vital bit to the war's prosecution. My survey of conditions in the East convinces me that in the War Savings drive the appeal of the country is to the people who work. The thousand dollar limitation placed upon the value of stamps any one person can own means in the ultimate that these stamps have got to be bought by the rank and file of our people. This campaign is not one in which the rich can do more than their little bit and it presents a case in which the little fellow so called, can do a very big bit.

Groceries Is Our Line

We have been endeavoring to sell groceries on their merit and on the square. One price to everybody regardless of their social or financial standing in the community.

We have tried to meet our competitors on the square. We are not giving away groceries as a premium to sell dry goods. We have used no gum shoe method in stalking our trade. We have been open and on the square.

Our regular patrons, by the way, have been approached in all kinds of ways and inducements thrown out for them to switch their trade to other places. Most of them have remained loyal however which fact we appreciate.

We aim to handle only first class goods. We place as small a margin on them as is consistent with good business. We rectify any mistake that may be made. We aim to please the public and satisfied customers is our best advertisement. We have to live with ourselves and give an account to ourselves, and to our God, for our conduct. Any time that we cannot conscientiously do this we will quit the business.

We want a larger patronage. We are now equipped so as to be able to handle a much larger business. Our help is efficient, our delivery is competent to handle any amount of trade that may come.

Increased trade means lowering of price. I ask a more general response from the people of Springfield and vicinity. You will find our prices right. We handle a complete line of groceries and provisions.

"Yours for a Square Deal."

Makes Clubbing Arrangement With

The Oregon Farmer

Offers Unusual Opportunity to Its Readers

AMONG our large circle of readers there are a great many who are interested directly or indirectly in fruit growing, dairying and other branches of farming. All of these naturally wish to keep in close touch with agricultural activities throughout the state; and to know about any fight which is being waged for the measures Oregon farmers want and against all sorts of schemes that are detrimental to the people and agricultural interests of this state.

We have, therefore, made a special clubbing arrangement with THE OREGON FARMER whereby any farmer or fruitgrower, who is one of our regular subscribers and who is not now a subscriber to THE OREGON FARMER, will be entitled to receive THE OREGON FARMER in combination with this paper at the same rate as for this paper alone.

This offer applies to all those who renew or extend their subscriptions as well as to all new subscribers. If you are interested directly or indirectly in Oregon agriculture, do not miss this unusual opportunity, but send your order in now.

THE OREGON FARMER is the one farm paper which is devoting itself exclusively to the farming activities and interests of Oregon. It has a big organization gathering the news of importance to farmers, dairymen, fruitgrowers, stockraisers and poultrymen; and it has the backbone to attack wrongful methods and combinations and bad legislation, and support honest leaders and beneficial measures. We are confident that our readers will congratulate us on our being able to make this splendid and attractive clubbing offer.
