Prefers Chamberlain's

"In the course of a conversation with Chamberlain Medicine Co's representative today, we had occasion to discuss in a general way the merits of their different preparations. At his suggestion I take pleasure in expressing my estimation of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. I have a family of six children and have used this remedy in my home for years. I consider it the only cough remedy on the market, as I have tried nearly all kinds."—Earl C. Ross, Publisher Hamilton County Republican-News, S. Va. cize, Kan.

HIGH SCHOOL NOTES

By WANNA MCKINNEY

Another part of our high school has deserted us, a piece fell out of the assembly room stove Wednesday morning

Glen LeVee was a visitor here Tuesday morning. He is stationed with the 36th Ambulance company at Camp Lewis.

The members of Miss Lindsey's 27 class have begun work on a three act historical play based on events during the Revolutionary period. The class has been divided into three sections each of which will develop one act.

The new subjects which will be offered next semester are Algebra I, English I, History I, Economics, Commercial Geography and Penmanship-Spelling.

(Thora Boesen, in H7, "Ars sheep cattle")

Wednesday evening our team played the Eugene Junior High school basketball team on the local floor.

The game was fast from start to finish but was too scrappy to allow our boys to show their playing ability.

Nevertheless they put up a good fight and came out with the big end of a 29 to 22 score. The visitors brought a large number of rooters with them. Ray Alexander and Mr. L. A. Wright, of Eugene, were timekeepers, Maurice, of Eugene, was umpire, and John Dimm refereed. During the last half Dimm substituted for Kester as forward and Kester refereed.

The line ups were: Springfield, Davidson and Kester, forwards; Van Valzab, center; Hill and Gossler, guards; Junior High; Purdy and Highland, forwards; Lawrence, center; Farmer and Andrews, guards.

Margaret Tomseth is back in school after being absent all last week with a severe case of poison oak.

We are certainly proud of our basketball boys. A 29 to 22 victory with our old rival Junction City is a pleasant thing to think about.

A new student, Alice Marie Small, enrolled here Monday morning. Her former home was in White Fish, Montana. She is a member of the Sophomore class.

Friday the Domestic Science class told to stay at the high school building. They thought they were going to get off easy, but they didn't, they had a quiz.

Those posted in the tardy list this morning were Ella Boesen, Jerry Van and Lewis Gibbs.

We played Pleasant Hill on the Pleasant Hill floor Friday night. A large crowd of rooters from here accompanied the team.

Thora Boesen and Anna Gorrie spent Saturday at the former's home west of Eugene.

Margaret Tomseth and Wanna McKinney were Sunday guests at the home of Jean and Dutee Fischer.

Gladys Peterson was absent from school Monday morning.

"THE TRAIL OF THE LONESOME PINE"

A PLAY—NOT A MOVIE

See Devil Judd, Barefoot June, Retta Tolliver Old Hon, Uncle Billy, Jack Hale, Dore Tolliver.

Hear the song that never grows old.

See the thrilling climaxes and Beautiful Scenery.

A SUPERB ACTING COMPANY CHOSEN ESPECIALLY TO FIT THE PARTS ASSUMED. MARIE FULLER, H. RAY SNEDEKER, LOYD CLARKE, VIOLET LAVERNE, MORTIMER SNOW, AL MACDONALD, MARIE DEVERE AND OTHERS.

NOTE—Vaudeville, the real kind between each act of play. BEAUTIFUL SPECIAL SCENERY VERY REASONABLE PRICES

The poetic side of life in the Kentucky mountains is most beautifully portrayed in this famous play. The Lonesome Pine from which the story takes its name was a tall tree that stood in solitary splendor on a mountain top. The fame of the pine lured a young engineer through Kentucky to catch the train, and when he finally climbed to its shelter, he found not only the pine but the footprints of a girl, and the girl proved to be lovely and piquant, and the trail of these girlish footprints led the engineer a merry chase, and then—oh, well, you have most likely read the book, or if you haven't you will. The play as will be presented in your theatre by the Snedecker Company will be as interesting as the book.
