

Bird of Paradise on Return Trip

Marion Hutchins, "Luana," is Successful Interpreter of Role

Success seems to crown the actress who essays the role of "Luana," the Hawaiian girl in Oliver Morosco's "The Bird of Paradise," which will again be presented in Eugene in the near future.

This season Marion Hutchins will be seen in the part. She has been under contract to A. H. Woods for the past five years. She only recently saw a performance of "The Bird of Paradise" and immediately asked Mr. Morosco to be allowed to enact the role this season. Mr. Morosco promptly acquiesced after seeing Miss Hutchins in support of John Mason in "Common Clay." It was with difficulty, however, that Miss Hutchins was able to obtain her release from the Woods' office due to the fact that Mr. Woods had her cast for a leading part in an important production. It was due to Mr. Morosco's efforts that Miss Hutchins will be seen in "The Bird of Paradise."

Miss Hutchins gives promise of being the best "Luana" ever seen in the play.

"The Bird of Paradise" with its picturesque stage settings, wailing and plaintive music and native Hawaiians will be the offering at the Eugene Theatre Wednesday February 6 for one night only.

It is when you have a severe cold that you appreciate the good qualities of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. Mrs. Frank Crocker, Pana, Ill., writes "Our five-year-old son Paul caught a severe cold last winter that settled on his lungs and he had terrible coughing spells. We were greatly worried about him as the medicine we gave him did not help him in the least. A neighbor spoke so highly of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy that I got a bottle of it. The first dose benefited him so much that I continued giving it to him until he was cured."

MAKES CLUBBING ARRANGEMENT WITH THE OREGON FARMER

Offers Unusual Opportunity To Its Readers

AMONG our large circle of readers there are a great many who are interested directly or indirectly in fruit growing, dairying and other branches of farming. All of these naturally wish to keep in close touch with agricultural activities throughout the state; and to know about any fight which is being waged for the measures Oregon farmers want and against all sorts of schemes that are detrimental to the people and agricultural interests of this state.

We have, therefore, made a special clubbing arrangement with THE OREGON FARMER whereby any farmer or fruit-grower, who is one of our regular subscribers and who is not now a subscriber of THE OREGON FARMER, will be entitled to receive THE OREGON FARMER in combination with this paper at the same rate as for this paper alone.

This offer applies to all those who renew or extend their subscriptions as well as to all new subscribers. If you are interested directly or indirectly in Oregon agriculture, do not miss this unusual opportunity but send your order in now.

THE OREGON FARMER is the one farm paper which is devoting itself exclusively to the farming activities and interests of Oregon. It has a big organization gathering the news of importance to farmers, dairymen, fruitgrowers, stockraisers and poultrymen; and it has the backbone to attack wrongful methods and combinations and bad legislation, and support honest leaders and beneficial measures. We are confident that our readers will congratulate us on our being able to make this splendid and attractive clubbing offer.
