GET ACQUAINTED PARTY IS GREAT SUCCESS

The Freshman reception held Friday evening in the basketball hall was a great success. Ask any "frosh" they will say they enjoyed themselves and were quite well treated even if they were a little green.

Everyone planned to get there early to see the freshman boys bring the senior girls and the senior boys bring the freshman girls, and as a result everyone got there early and then the fun began. Cards with tiny hearts pasted on them were given to everyone present and then they all got acquainted with each other by writing their names on these cards. Stunts were given by groups of students and faculty members, each group representing some famous man. We all agree that the chaucerian society just couldn't be beat. To see Mr. Kirk and Miss Dinsdale perform was a whole show in its self, and their fellow performers were just as fine. During these stunts Lincoln was assassinated, Washington crossed the Delaware on chairs and St. Valentine's heart was pierced by a chair round from Cupid's bow. The "Frosh" in charge of their training, gave us a circus. We all hope they got the dust off their suits. But the climax of the evening was the quiz. Hot chocolate and cookies were served to all, and after playing a few more games everyone departed for his or her home thankful to the committee in charge for the delightful time.

The hall was decorated in navy blue and white streamers and a large flag hung at one end of the room. The young people were chaperoned by R. L. Kirk, Miss Dinsdale, Mrs. Plank and Miss Lindsey.

BAPTIST YOUNG PEOPLE HAVE BUSINESS MEETING

The Baptist Young Peoples Union of the Baptist church met Friday evening at 7:30 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Chase of Pruneville. After a short business meeting, called by the president Clarence McClinic, a social time was enjoyed by all. Much merriment was caused by the comic valentines drawn from the valentine box. The partners for supper were chosen in a novel way. A large heart covered with tiny hearts was placed on the wall. Each small heart held a name which was shot at by the boys with small arrows, and the boys had as their partners the girl whose name they shot. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Clarence McClinic, Mr. and Mrs. Roy McClinic and children, Mr. and Mrs. Raines, Merl Chase, Clarence Chase, Russell Myers, Waldo Hardy, Gladys Chase, Maude Chase, Frank Hardy, Evert Chase, Bessie Spencer, Bertie Bruce, Carol Chase, Lila Miller, Keelie Patterson, Frank Patterson, Dorothy Chase, Nellie Baily, Doris Holand, Helen Bryan, Lule Courtright, Florence Shahan, Fay Cooley, Florence Patterson and Edna Patterson.

Publisher Bede Aspires to Office

Cottage Grove Editor Seeks Senatorship Nomination for Linn and Lane Counties

Cottage Grove, Ore., Feb. 16.—Elbert Bede, of this city, expects to be a candidate for the joint senatorship of Linn and Lane Counties. His platform will be short and pointed and read something like this: "A man who says what he thinks, thinks what he says, does what he says, keeps all promises and, therefore, makes few of them. Not afraid to say how he stands on any subject with which he is familiar, but believes a public office is a public trust and that a candidate who can't be trusted without making a definite promise upon everything likely to come before the legislature couldn't be trusted to keep his promises if he made them.

Mr. Bede was born in Iowa but lives in Oregon because he likes the latter state better. He has been in the newspaper business in one form or another for 37 years, having been born while advertising the fact that he had arrived. He has a family of three children, besides his wife. The girls are good looking, while the boy resembles his dad.

Mr. Bede has edited the Cottage Grove Sentinel for over six years, having survived several partners and numerous competitors. During that time The Sentinel has had the reputation of being a paper with the backbone to take whatever part in public affairs seemed to be for the best interests of the community and state. He has been president of the State Editorial Association, secretary of the Willamette Valley Editorial Association ever since its organization, served on the legislative committee of the editorial association during two sessions and was defeated four years ago for a position in the house by a few votes, afterwards refusing the Bull Moose nomination. He has served as both secretary and president of the Cottage Grove Commercial Club and was president of the Hughes club.

MAKES CLUBBING ARRANGEMENT WITH

THE OREGON FARMER

Offers Unusual Opportunity To Its Readers

AMONG our large circle of readers there are a great many who are interested directly or indirectly in fruit growing, dairying and other branches of farming. All of these naturally wish to keep in close touch with agricultural activities throughout the state; and to know about any fight which is being waged for the measures Oregon farmers want and against all sorts of schemes that are detrimental to the people and agricultural interests of this state.

We have, therefore, made a special clubbing arrangement with THE OREGON FARMER whereby any farmer or fruit-grower, who is one of our regular subscribers and who is not now a subscriber of THE OREGON FARMER, will be entitled to receive THE OREGON FARMER in combination with this paper at the same rate as for this paper alone.

This offer applies to all those who renew or extend their subscriptions as well as to all new subscribers. If you are interested directly or indirectly in Oregon agriculture, do not miss this unusual opportunity but send your order in now.

THE OREGON FARMER is the one farm paper which is devoting itself exclusively to the farming activities and interests of Oregon. It has a big organization gathering the news of importance to farmers, dairymen, fruitgrowers, stockraisers and poultrymen; and it has the backbone to attack wrongful methods and combinations and bad legislation, and support honest leaders and beneficial measures. We are confident that our readers will congratulate us on our being able to make this splendid and attractive clubbing offer.
