

Monster Money RAISING SALE

The Cold Blooded Facts Are--We Must Raise Money.

We are sorry this condition exists. We are sorry we are unable to take the profits we are entitled to, especially just at this time, just at the beginning of the spring season, just at a time when our spring goods are arriving, but it matters not to the buying public why this is necessary. We are asking no sympathy. All you are interested in is, how much money you can save. This we are going to leave to G. W. Kennett. We have placed our entire stock in his hands. He has signed an agreement with us to raise us $3000 by Saturday night, April 13th. We have placed no reserve on the prices he shall make. It is up to him to raise the money. Everything in our entire stock will be included in this slaughter of prices. Wolf & Miller, Springfield, Oregon.

It has always been the policy of this firm to carry nothing but the very best merchandise obtainable, and most of this stock was bought before the extreme advance in prices. All will be priced for quick selling for the money must be raised.

I have signed a contract with Wolf & Miller to raise for them $3,000 by Saturday night, April 13th. I realize what this means. I realize that drastic measures must be used to accomplish this. I realize that prices must be made that will force the buying. They have turned over their entire stock to me, have placed no reserve on the prices I shall make, so the cost of the goods will be forgotten. Prices will be made that will astonish you. Everything will be included. This will be your opportunity to supply your wants for the entire season. Goods will be displayed for your convenience and marked in plain figures. Everything possible will be done to make this sale the greatest sale ever given in Springfield, for I am going to fulfill my agreement.
