ROCK CRUSHER TO BEGIN OPERATIONS AT AN EARLY DATE

Has Large Contract From County for the Hayden Bridge Road

WILL BEGIN THIS WEEK

Plant is Being Overhauled, Rewired and Put in First-Class Condition for Operating

The Springfield rock crusher which has been idle since last fall is being overhauled and will resume operations in a day or two under the name of the Springfield Gravel Products company with David Linn of Eugene as manager.

The plant of the Springfield Sand and Gravel company, located on the river bank just west of Main street, became involved in financial difficulties and suspended operation last fall, and on February 23rd was sold to satisfy creditors. Mark Prindle, of Payette, Idaho, was the purchaser and he immediately resold it to David Linn of the Eugene Sand and Gravel company.

The plant is thoroughly equipped with crushers, motors, and screens for doing a big business, and Mr. Linn is overhauling it preparatory to beginning operations at once. The machinery has been overhauled, the plant rewired, and the spouts on the bunkers raised to aid in loading the rock. This repair work will be completed in time for the rock crusher to begin work either tomorrow or Saturday.

The plant will employ about six men. A large amount of rock has been sold to the county, which will haul it away with their big caterpillar and trucks, the plant only crushing it for them. Most of it will go on the Hayden bridge road. The city of Springfield will also be furnished with crushed rock from this plant.

The special Easter sermons, both in the morning and evening were uplifting and appropriate for the occasion. Rev. Walter Bailey, pastor of the Baptist church, spoke on the Easter subject for his morning sermon. Several beautiful songs were rendered. ## "THE LIBERTY BOND IS VICTORY'S WAND"

SUBSCRIBING for Liberty Bonds does not mean giving anything. It does not mean even sacrificing—unless you call it that to spend more needfully here and use more heedfully there. It means safe, sane, sensible, substantial INVESTMENT, backed by the best security in the world—our whole United States, and from which you will receive reasonable income in INTEREST. Compare this degree of patriotism with the kind that is taking our sons, brothers, husbands and fathers across the seas to probable hardship and possible death. The balance is in their favor if you were to mortgage your entire financial future in order that they may be backed up with those supplies which represent the means for both PREPAREDNESS and PROTECTION. The third Liberty Loan is at hand. Don't wait to be personally solicited for your subscriptions. Go to your bank and VOLUNTEER YOUR DOLLARS. LIBERTY LOAN COMMITTEE.

Dunham performed the ceremony. The ceremony was witnessed by only a few relatives and close friends of the couple, who were served with light refreshments following the service. ### Many Beautiful Floral Pieces

Rev. J. S. McCallum in Charge; Express Sympathy

The funeral of Stanley Lamar, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Strubbin of this city, was held Tuesday morning at ten o'clock from Walker Chapel. Reverend J. S. McCallum pastor of the Christian church had charge of the ceremony.

A quartet, Mrs. J. C. Holbrook, Miss Ethelyn Powers, E. E. Morrisc, and E. V. Hutchinson accompanied by Mrs. A. B. Van Valzah sang "God Will Take Care of You." After the scripture reading by Rev. McCallum the quartet sang "Tis So Sweet to Trust in Jesus."

"It is appointed unto man once to die," said Rev. McCallum in his sermon. Death comes sooner or later, and when death comes to a child nothing is more consoling than the knowledge that Jesus blessed the children and said "Suffer little children to come unto me, for of such is the kingdom of Heaven."

"We trust in Jesus and believe in him. We follow his instructions, place our life in his safe keeping, and we will not be deceived. So we know it will be well with the soul of a child because of the teachings of Jesus. Our body is our temple, which is perishable, the soul dwells within and it is eternal. There can be no permanent family on earth because disease always comes, but Jesus rose from the dead to establish an eternal family in Heaven, and he has prepared a place there for each of us.

"There can be no question about the salvation of the soul of a child, and that it will form a part of the great family in eternity around the throne of God. For the child has never sinned. It is absolutely pure. So it will be with every faithful, true disciple of God. Jesus died that we might have life, divine life, and live forever more."

After a prayer by Rev. McCallum the quartet sang "Asleep in Jesus." The tiny casket was embowered with many beautiful floral pieces.
