WHAT REALLY MATTERS.

"The American people," says a Food Administration bulletin, "must ask themselves this question in regard to wheat. What does it matter whether we eat barley, corn meal, or oatmeal bread, as compared with the winning of this war?"

"We have suddenly come to realize that it is not an easy battle to win; that there is even a possibility of a war to be lost. Every American should face this possibility."

"America must give and give of all that she has. France has suffered and bled for nearly four years. All this time she has been fighting our enemy, the enemy of all civilization. And now our own sacrifices have begun."

"We must make this sacrifice count for victory. We must give up our wheat to the allies. As a military weapon, wheat is as valuable as gunpowder; it is as necessary as shrapnel. The necessity for limiting ourselves now to one and one-half pounds of flour per person per week, and even of going without it entirely, must not find us slacking. We have corn, oats, barley and potatoes in plenty. Is going without wheat too great a price to pay for freedom? There can be no question. What really matters is to see that the armies are fed. It is up to America, and America must meet the crisis."

PLANS TO SUPPLY FARM WORKERS.

A special farm-service division is being established in most of the 100 offices of the United States Employment Service as one of the plans for meeting the labor requirements of the farmers. Special field agents are being sent into districts where acute farm-labor shortage exists or where unusually large numbers will be needed.

A weekly bulletin will be issued in which opportunities for farm employment and the needs of certain districts will be listed. Posters announcing the location of Federal and State employment offices are being hung in postoffices, railway stations, and other public places.

All third and fourth class postoffices, of which there are 55,000, are now authorized farm-labor employment offices. During the harvest season in certain states temporary offices will be opened in a number of cities for the purpose of furnishing accurate information as to where harvest hands are needed.

A weekly report of farm-labor conditions is being sent to the main office at Washington by all the branch offices and by many State employment offices.

THE AGRICULTURAL NEWS

The third copy of the Lane county Agricultural News is being sent to farmers over the country, who have subscribed for the publication. This publication is issued by the office of the county agriculturalist at Eugene, and contains many timely articles and suggestions of interest to farmers. Every farmer in the county should make it a point to get these publications.

HOW BEDE PROPOSES TO SAVE MILLIONS

Elbert Bede, candidate for joint senator, has expressed himself as follows: "I believe millions of dollars can be saved the counties of the State of Oregon, in the course of years, by substituting the registered mail for private carriers in handling election supplies and election returns. I believe that the delinquent taxpayer is entitled to relief. I believe that determined legislators can effect economies in state government that will mean millions of dollars in the course of years. I believe that counties should be divided into commissioner districts. I believe that determined legislators can save the taxpayers a lot of money with which to buy liberty bonds." Vote for Bede for joint senator. Paid adv.

A verdict in favor of the plaintiff in the sum of $68.70 was returned by a jury in the Eugene justice court last Wednesday afternoon in the case of William Bishop against R. C. Rush and George A. ### Parent-Teachers Elect officers

O. H. Foster, and Lieutenant J. E. Kuykendall, Address Meeting

The Parent-Teachers' meeting held last Thursday evening in the high school building was well attended, and an excellent program was given.

The program opened with a clarinet solo by Ray Alexander. C. A. Barnett sang, "A Laughing Song" and "The Red Cross Girl", and Frank Snodgrass of Eugene sang "I'll Take a Gun and Fight For You." Alf, Dillard was the accompanist.

O. H. Foster, Eugene attorney spoke on war conditions and our part in the war. He emphasized the fact that too many of us give to the war funds according to what our neighbors give. Mr. Foster said we should not do this, but should give all we can as often as we can.

Lieutenant J. E. Kuykendall, from Camp Lewis, spoke about German propaganda. The stories we hear about the mistreatment of our boys in the enemy prison camps and the hardships they undergo in our own camps are all lies, German propaganda, said Mr. Kuykendall, and we should pay no attention to them. He told the real facts about the treatment our boys get over there, and of the preparations made to offset these discomforts.

"Some people seem to think our boys are sent over to France green", said Mr. Kuykendall, "but they are not. Each man who goes across has been thoroughly tested and trained in gas attacks, grenade battles, and trench warfare. Only the capable trained men are sent over there; those fully trained and equipped to fight."

Election of officers was held and the following officers were elected: Mrs. C. A. Barnett, president; Mrs. Curtis Hayden, vice-president, and Miss Olive Smith, secretary.

High School Girl Is Laid to Rest

Many Beautiful Floral Pieces Express Sympathy; Interment in Laurel Hill

The funeral of Elva Jane Lewis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Lewis of this city who died Wednesday evening, was held Friday afternoon at 2:30 from the Walker chapel. Rev. J. S. McCallum pastor of the Christian church was in charge of the services.

Miss Lewis was born at Junction City July 9, 1898 and lived there for several years. She had lived in Springfield six years attending the grammar and high schools here. At the time of her death she was a senior and preparing to graduate from the teachers training course in the local high school.

The quartet of high school girls, Edna Duryee, Nellie Copenhaver, Iva Hill, and Eliza Copenhaver sang "The Homeland so dear" and "Face to Face."

"A man needs to be educated," said Rev. McCallum, "mentally, morally, physically and most important of all spiritually. A strong body is a blessing but without a strong mind it is almost valueless, and a strong mind is really dwarfed unless there is a spiritual education also."

"The one we are gathered here to honor was preparing to be a teacher. To be a true teacher we must sit at the feet of the great Teacher and learn from him. Jesus is the supreme teacher. He knows all things and all methods and he knows how to reach the inner man. We must not reject him, for if we shut him out we shut out the light that makes our lives beautiful and holy."

"We must seek eternal life, from the great Teacher, that we may live forever and have eternal life."

"It is important that we look after our minds and our bodies, but it is far more important that we look after our souls, our spiritual minds. Our religion is a religion of education, and we must learn of the great Teacher and believe."

"This young lady whom we now mourn, learned from Jesus, and loved him. It is this love which will go with her through the Valley of the Shadow, which is only a shadow, and on to the great reward."

The quartet then sang "Rock of Ages Cleft for Me." There were many beautiful floral pieces, tokens of sympathy from the many friends of the young woman. Several floral pieces were given by the junior and senior classes, the high school student body and the members of the faculty.

The pall bearers were Walter Gosler, Floyd Kester, Ben Davidson, Bill Hill, Jerry Van Valzah, and Verdon May, all students in Springfield high school. Interment was made in Laurel Hill cemetery.
