QUOTA STILL SKY IN SPRINGFIELD

Reports to Date Indicate Nearly Seven Thousand Dollars Yet Remain to Be Raised.

ENGINE IS ALSO LAGGING

Nearly Every Other Town in Lane County Have Already Made Good and in Some Cases Have Exceeded Their Quota.

The last hill to climb is always the hardest.

With less than $7,000 yet to be raised, Springfield has entered the last lap in the Fourth Liberty Loan race, tugging like a hound in the leash and straining every nerve to surmount the crest of the last hill.

At the top lies the coveted goal—sometimes a vague, shadowy, elusive thing—that many a good man has struggled to reach and fallen with every vital force spent in a final supreme effort.

But this is no time to even think of failure. Men and women, while hundreds of red-blooded American boys are making the supreme sacrifice "over there," it is up to you to make a supreme effort "over here."

That hydra-headed monster from a German hell that would seek to encircle the world with its slimy body and fasten its fangs in your throat, has been battered and wounded in a score of places.

BUT IT IS NOT YET DEAD.

We DARE NOT let it live.

Don't let it be said of Springfield that her people did not have the punch when the crisis came to win her own game.

Our quota is $43,344. Yesterday morning there had been reported by both banks to the News a grand total of $36,450. This is a fine showing for the length of time we have been on the job—BUT—the job is not finished.

The "zero" hour is striking—its time to go "over the top."
