NO OLIVE BRANCH.

The Teuton dove of peace has returned to its ark a sadly bedraggled looking biped and minus any sign indicative of a secure landing place for its storm-beaten ship of state.

There appears to be no psychological moment left for launching anything that might bring relief to a once mighty nation now slipping on the slimy ooze of its barbarous guilt. But there is plenty of the spirit of retaliation in the allied nations to give her one more kick in the slats to hasten the slipping and get the dirty job over as quickly as possible. It is far from being through choice that we are thus engaged. It is necessity that urges us on.

President Wilson has sounded the tocsin that spells death to the vilest menace that has ever threatened the march of civilization. The red light of German autocracy must be snuffed out forever.

The divine right of kings to rule has been dispelled as chaff before the wind of divine justice. Such an ending could have long ago been foretold. No man—be he peasant or king—can flaunt his iniquity in the face of One God and escape the visitation of His righteous wrath. Many have tried it, but a world's history is spotted with those who were broken on the wheel of His vengeance at last. The solemn obligation of stewardship cannot rest so lightly as to be amenable only to the laws of man.

The news every day from the battlefield is stirring. It stirs the hearts of civilization with elation everywhere. It stirs the blackened hearts of the arch-conspirators of a world's peace with the chill of a retribution somewhat laggard, but sure. The desolation of the outcast from men settles round about them like a pall. The unvarnished epithet of "Liar" is being flung into their ears by the very subjects that once did them homage. Their foes scorn to treat with the scum. The race is nearly run. The piteous and whimper of the beaten, ringing bully is heard around the world. Kamerad! Kamerad! Listen to it, and heed not, lest in this world where shall go unavenged the piteous scream of little babes impaled upon the bayonet; the despairing cry of a young maiden as her white, quivering flesh yielded in a frenzy of fear and agony to the brutal assault of a lustful Hun; the wholesale murder of non-combatant men, women and children huddled together to face the fire of machine guns; the martyrs of the Lusitania and the helpless wounded in hospitals; the mangling and death of those who wore the crimson badge of mercy; the crucifixion of Canadian soldiers in a manner so fiendish that the Son of Man would have forgotten His own agony, if he could have beheld them, in that darkened hour upon Calvary.

That the world may never know the like of it again, we will pay the price to end it now!

To turn the tide when all the world seemed lost,
We gave our sons that liberty might hold;
'Tis not for us, or them, to count the cost,
As each blue star turns to shining gold.

IN A THOUSAND YEARS.

What days these are. How eagerly those of a thousand years hence will peer into the pages of our history and read again and again the tale that's written there. Will they sense the "What of the times in which we lived?" Can they discern in the peace of those happier years the mettle of our hearts today? The things that have tried us—a war that men shall probably never witness the like of again; a whole nation's armies committed to crimes so wantonly cruel in execution that men's hearts turn cold with the horror of it and then grow hot with the fires of vengeance; as if the hotocaust of war across the sea was not enough, we must needs fight against pestilential disease stalking everywhere; what with other minor disasters in America added to the famine and suffering of other peoples in other lands, will posterity say as they read the tragic story? Will they pause to contemplate the blessings they enjoy that were born of sacrifice to high ideals—of principles that came through unscathed to endure to the end? One of the darkest and one of the brightest pages of human history is soon to be written.

As a supposedly civilized nation, Germany was obligated to conserve the peace of nations instead of deliberately destroying it. It was nothing short of international treachery and it is high time international law was framed to punish traitors to an international peace.

The more we see of German diplomacy the more we feel that there will be a perpetual grin scrawled upon the pages of the world's history.

German war lords are beginning to find out that the intellectual standards of other nations are unlike those of Russia.

Austria is paying dearly for the most dastardly ultimatum a strong nation ever delivered to a weaker one.

With three colors in the Star Spangled Banner, the only one we see plainly these days is "RED."

The News reputation for truth as a purveyor of news is saved. The bridge crew made good.

Welcome, little streetcar, to our fair city.

NOTICE OF SHERIFF'S SALE ON EXECUTION.

Notice is hereby given that by virtue of an execution and order of sale issued out of the Circuit Court in and for Lane county, Oregon, on the 19th day of October, 1918, upon a judgment an decree rendered therein on the 14th day of September, 1918, in favor of O. Q. Cartwright and against E. L. Gum, for the sum of $2,961.10, with interest at 8% per annum from September 14, 1918, and $200.00 attorney fees, and $24.40 costs, commanding me, in the name of the State of Oregon, in order to satisfy said judgment, and in accordance with said decree to sell the hereinafter described real estate, to-wit:

Lot numbered four in block numbered one in Kelsay's addition to Eugene, Lane county, Oregon, and also lot numbered three in block numbered three in Kelsay's first addition to Eugene City, in Lane county, Oregon.

Now therefore, in accordance with said execution, order and decree, I will, on Saturday, the 16th day of November, 1918, at 3 o'clock in the afternoon, at the southwest door of the county court house in Eugene, Lane county, Oregon, offer for sale and sell, subject to redemption, at public auction to the highest bidder for cash, all the interest of the above named E. L. Gum, his wife, Sarah Gum, L. C. Hughes and Elva Crozier, in and to the above described real property.

D. A. ELKINS,
Sheriff of Lane County, Oregon.

SUMMONS.

In the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon for the County of Lane. Nora Payne, plaintiff, vs. Matt Payne, defendant.

To Matt Payne, the above named defendant:

In the name of the State of Oregon you are hereby required to appear and answer the complaint filed against you in the above entitled court and cause on or before the 28th day of November, 1918, said date being the date and time specified by the court in the order for publication as the time for you to appear and answer, and if you fail so to appear and answer, for want thereof the plaintiff will apply to the court for the relief demanded in said complaint on file herein, and the whole thereof. The relief demanded is: Judgment and decree that the bonds of matrimony now existing between the plaintiff and defendant be forever dissolved and held for naught and that the plaintiff be awarded the care and custody of the two minor children, Claude Payne and Nelvin Payne, and for such other relief as to the court may seem meet and equitable.

This summons is published by the order of the Honorable G. F. Skipworth, Judge of the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon for the County of Lane, dated October 14, 1918.

The Grandoldope

It's surprising how many people That haven't seen the inside Of a church For ten years Regretted seeing them closed up.

We claim That this Epidemic vacation Is pretty soft For the teachers. But pretty tough When they can't Put in the time At the movies.

From now on Our affections Will be transferred From the ice man to Jimmy Laxton.

We managed to get Those new shoes from "Bill" Hall Saturday. They were marked $8, But he charged us nine. As "paper had gone up," He said. They looked like leather, though.

He saw that he had pulled A "boner." So he said they were "Vici kid" and Asked us to be the "goat" We are.

It's pretty near time For some Springfield boys To start going To Sunday school. And get in right With the teacher By Christmas.

We have declared An armistice With that Elongated pharmacist For one week only. We've run out of ammunition. But he doesn't know it.

It looks to us like Sylvanus Kingsley's front name Was extracted from Paul's epistle to the Romans And fastened on him When too feeble to protest. As outside of that he looks Like a Christian. P. S.—Sylvanus works As oiler of the Adding machine In the B-K office And gets a "salary," Not "wages."

In printing the News This week, We have mixed with the ink Equal parts of Boric Acid Listerine Chlorate of Lime Formaldehyde Peroxide Carbolic LePage's Glue Tanlac "P. P. P." (Peery's Pleasant Pills) "Three-in-One" Ayer's Almanac Lydia Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Aqua Fortis Spiritus Fermentis and E. Pluribus Unum. So, by gosh, if you Catch anything You can't blame us And say We did not do our duty In protecting you To the best of our ability.

Now brothers And sisters Inasmuch we've finished The evening gargle, Let us spray.

For sale—or rent—One gasolene vibrator.

THESE MEN STAND BEHIND PRESIDENT

Senator McNary and Governor Withycombe Have Record for Patriotic Endeavor.

Loyal and dependable support of the President and his prosecution of the war is the prime requisite demanded by all American citizens of every candidate for office at this time. With the war and win it now is the demand. Nobody has any time for the pacifist. Men of action are wanted. Officials in office who have measured up to these demands should be retained. They are on the job and intimately acquainted with the needs of the government. They know what has been done to expedite the war. They know what should be done to hasten the unconditional surrender of the Hun.

It is with a full knowledge of these facts that the Republican State Central Committee commends to the voters of the state every Republican nominee on the ticket. Senator McNary and Representative McArthur, Hawley and Sinnott have made good. They have subordinated politics and are working earnestly for the one great cause—win the war. Each has a 100 per cent record in his support of the President. Never have they faltered in backing up the President's war program. They have given him support at times when such Democratic leaders as Champ Clark, Kitchen and Dent balked and by their attitude imperiled the enactment of legislation vital to the successful prosecution of the war, foremost of which was the selective draft law.

Here at home, Governor Withycombe has cooperated with the President in every war activity. His zeal in patriotic work has been unbounded. He is intensely American. The unparalleled record Oregon has made in all war time activities and the alacrity with which the state has responded to every call for patriotic endeavor is due in part to the leadership of Governor Withycombe.

Both in the halls of Congress at Washington and in the Governor's office at Salem, the people of Oregon are fortunate in having experienced men with a record 100 per cent American—men who are standing behind the President for a vigorous prosecution of the war to a speedy and victorious conclusion.

Senator McNary, Representatives McArthur, Hawley and Sinnott, and Governor Withycombe should all be reelected. They are at their posts of duty. None is making a campaign. They are too busy serving their state and nation. They should be returned for continued service. Election of new and untried men, lacking in ability and experience to fit them for the positions, would not only be unwise at this time, but would fall far short of the patriotic duty of the voters of this state.

IS POLITICS ADJOURNED?

The extent to which politics has been adjourned by the Democrats in this state is best revealed by the facts. While United States Senator McNary is remaining at his post of duty at Washington, loyally backing up the President in his prosecution of the war, his opponent, Oswald West, is conducting an active campaign for the Senatorship. Press of official business, occasioned by war time activities, has made it necessary for Governor Withycombe to forego a personal campaign. He is remaining at his office in Salem attending to the business of the state and cooperating with the national administration in every war time activity. Not so with Walter M. Pierce, who opposes him for the Governorship. Mr. Pierce is and for weeks has been making a thorough canvass of the state urging his candidacy upon the voters. Sure! "Politics is adjourned"—for the Republicans.

What the Burns News said of Governor Withycombe in the primary campaign is equally true today: "The many level-headed actions of Governor Withycombe, coupled with his undaunted and unquestioned patriotism, with his tenacity of purpose to assist Oregon and its citizens in the fullest efficiency in domestic, commercial and military affairs, entitle him to the endorsement of the electorate of Oregon."

"In his price fixing bill, as in his career as Senator, Mr. McNary has shown his ability, his vision and his statesmanship. We are grateful to the state of Oregon for having given us such a Senator. He reflects credit upon his state and does honor to the nation."—United States Senator Johnson, former Governor of California.

"The attitude of Senator McNary on the temperance question in the United States Senate has been most satisfactory to the representatives of the Women's Christian Temperance Union at Washington, and we believe in justice to the Senator this fact should be known by his constituents."—Officers of National Women's Christian Temperance Union.

O. P. Hoff, Republican nominee for State Treasurer, is a broad-minded man of wide business experience with intimate knowledge of state affairs.

As you behold the glory of America in future years, do your part now so you may reflect the glory then.

"The food value of a quart of milk is the equivalent of three fourths of a pound of beef, two pounds of chicken or eight eggs. Compare the costs and milk wins." Dr. E. V. McCullom of John Hopkins University who visited Oregon not long ago made this statement. He adds "For the sake of your family's health, and for the reduction of your living expenses, use more dairy products, and then some more."

"The restricted use of milk would mean a serious loss of energy, and a serious menace to the winning of the war" says G. A. Morgan in Hoard's Dairyman.

"Shoes have gone up in price but we buy them. They are a necessity. Yet milk, the food that is necessary to everyone, because it goes up, is too often cut from the diet. Isn't that a little inconsistent?"

We must have pure fresh milk. Count it economy to see that each child in the family has at least a pint of milk a day. Get the milk habit. Encourage the dairymen to keep up his dairy. He is willing to do his share but he can't do everything without cooperation.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven Catarrh to be a constitutional disease, and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally, it acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials. Address: F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O. Sold by Druggists, etc. Take Hall's Family Pills for constipation.
