THANKSGIVING.

WITH the growth of the nation there has been corresponding growth in responsibility. The raw experiment of a nation framed from the skeleton colonies of the eastern seaboard has proved the greatest success in government the world has ever known.

The fatherhood of God and the brotherhood of man—these were the leading conceptions of the Pilgrim Fathers. They are the leading conceptions of the sons of those fathers today.

Peace, provision, protection—these are the prized possessions of a nation whose one aim is to exalt the ends of human liberty, to extend human democracy and to exalt the ideals of human equality.

THE Harvard-Yale football game was on at the stadium, and a demonstration of the Sound Absorber was shortly to be on.

Hon. William Gazukes, the millionaire, who seemed to be renewing his youth, sat chatting excitedly with the inventor and a party of friends.

Young men, swinging their arms to get the Ellis to yell together, looked in surprise that there was no response.

Everyone was wondering what was the matter. Plainly the leaders had been heard in the first place, but there was no response.

A trio behind the footlights was waiting expectantly for an introduction to their song.

People were surprised. Although those in the front seats could see the bows passing over the instruments, there was no sound.

Harvard's night at the theaters—when she wins—are dreaded perhaps as much by conductors as by the actors, who know that interruptions may be expected at the most inopportune times.

All this had taken but a few moments, although the time seemed an eternity to the men who occupied the entire second row.

When things went smoothly again, the star improvised: "This was no fancy of Nancy's, neither was it a fancy of ours."

Hon. William Gazukes then whispered to the inventor: "I am convinced of the satisfactory working of the marvelous sound absorber."

the sound waves assembled in the bowl. For, as the inventor argued, we cannot prevent the creation of noises, but we can in a great measure stop them from annoying us.

Not caring to attract attention, the men had hooked the plates across their inner coats at the chest, hanging them from the front edges of their overcoat sleeve holes, and allowing the flaps of their coats to hang out and hide them from the side view.

Harvard rooters were busy, alternately with Yale's. The game stood 6-0 for Harvard at the first half.

The Crismon had emitted in one roar "Rah rah rah! Rah rah rah! Rah rah rah! Har-ward!" and Yale was getting ready.

a pandemonium would result. How funny it would be to see the quotation men running back and forth before the board as the prices came in, but with no noise in the pit.

"I rather think, though," said the millionaire, "that it would not be so roaringly funny, when we were put out."

That evening at the performance of "Nancy's Fancies," the party was close to the orchestra. During the second act one of the conspirators leaned toward the millionaire, when, as previously arranged, they all turned on the absorbers suspended over their vests, and endeavored to whisper.

"They can't imagine what's the matter." But the joke was on him, for he could not hear his own voice, and Mr. Gazukes could only guess at what he meant.

The Fellow who argued with Jim the other night ran up against the shock of his life.

Jim knows tobacco. And before he got through, Jim made the fellow admit that Real Gravelly tastes better and gives a satisfaction you can't get out of ordinary tobacco. A small chew of Gravelly lasts so much longer that it costs nothing extra to chew this class of tobacco.

It goes further—that's why you can get the good taste of this class of tobacco without extra cost.
