"When the moonshines Over in Coburg We'll be waiting At the st-st-(hic) Stillery door."

For 49 hours Six minutes and Seven seconds after The "Gimlet" was born Last week, We struggled Betwix Earthly existence and Celestial bliss. A life insurance man Hovered near And just to make him Feel bad, We made a bet with him, We bet on the "Gates Ajar" And he took the earthly end Of the wager. With an editor's usual luck When there's a chance To collect A jingling noise, We rallied from The last sinking spell— Lost the bet— And our hazy dream Of being squeezed Between two Soprano and alto Seraphims And horning in With our silvery tenor Occasionally, Was shattered. To rub it in The insurance shark Placed a notice that The next premium Was about due In our Trembling hands. So we are Back to work.

... Last Saturday— When the crisis Was fast approaching— We tripped into Ketels' Dope Foundry When the proprietor Was out to lunch And bought A bottle of medicine Since we have recovered, Mr. Ketels Has been spouting Around the village How "Tanlac" Restored us to health And made our Pallid countenance Look like A cherry frappe. Ketels found out today From his lady clerk That it was Lydia Pinkham's Vegetable Compound We purchased During his absence.

... Blessed is he Who tootheth His own horn.

BETTER HAVE THE BONDS OF THE UNITED STATES IN THE HANDS OF 30,000,000 ordinary citizens than concentrated in the hands of a few rich men. Think of that when Uncle Sam offers you a Victory Liberty Bond.

Don't think you have sacrificed because you may be paying for your interest-bearing Fourth Liberty Loan Bonds. These fellows back from France legless, armless or sightless don't think they have sacrificed. They simply think they did their duty.

The Victory Loan coming in April is the last Liberty Loan. Then the war is over for you. It will be still going on for 1,000,000 Americans in France.
