AT THE
BELL THEATRE

PROGRAM FOR THE CURRENT WEEK.

SATURDAY, MARCH 8:
May Allison in "Her Inspiration." This story is laid in New York and the mountains of Kentucky. It has mystery, surprises and an ending that is unexpected as it is pleasing.

SUNDAY, MARCH 9:
Mary Pickford in "M'Liss." A beautiful love theme which Bret Harte has woven around the brawny days of the California Gold Rush affords "Our Mary" a chance to entertain you as she never did before. Don't forget the matinee at 2:00 p. m.

TUESDAY, MARCH 11:
Jack Pickford in "Huck and Tom." Lovers of Mark Twain's immortal Tom will remember the adventure of the grave robbers, the painkiller which Tom administered to the cat and the finding of the robbers gold in the cave. This picture will appeal to boys and girls from 7 to 70. Don't miss it.

Jazz.

It is a far cry from the Golden Age, when the gods dwelt among men, to the Age of Jazz, when the gods flee and cover up their ears, but in the long jumps that get us nowhere, and the high hurdles that serve no purpose but to unsettle the markets, we are all to the mustard.

The underlying theory of Jazz is to think the worst of the popular taste and then conform everything to that conception.

It isn't confined to music, however. We have Jazz Poetry, or free verse, and Jazz Dancing, which is the free verse of motion. A thousand churches show forth in their exteriors the Jazz Architecture of the day, and their pulpits resound with Jazz Theology. We pour out our millions to give our youth a Jazz Education, while reform wracks itself far and wide in the production of Jazz Politics.

As for Jazz Drama—

We read about releases. It is a technical term, but everybody understands what it means. It means that things are being let loose upon us.

In behalf of the patrons of the Springfield Public Library, the Library Board wish to express their thanks for the wood donated to the Library by the Booth-Kelly Lumber company; also for the hauling.
