JACOB M'KENNEY RETURNS FROM OVERSEAS DUTY.

Jacob McKenney, son of Mrs. H. C. McKenney, a former resident of this city, but now of Coburg, was in town this week visiting his sister, Mrs. I. Casteel.

Mr. McKenney enlisted in the navy about three years ago at Bremerton, and just recently received his honorable discharge in Philadelphia. During the past year Mr. McKenney has been in French waters, serving on the American torpedo boat Stewart.

OBITUARY NOTICE.

Sarah Elmira Sims was born in Malone, New York, May 12, 1830, and died after a 12 days' illness in Springfield, Ore., April 28 1919.

When very young she moved with her father's family, she being the youngest of 11 children, to Laport, Ind., where she received her education and grew to womanhood.

In 1846 she was married to Tyree Doran, who died in 1895. From this union nine children were born—Frances, John, Frank and Mary (Mrs. Wilson having died); Joseph, of Portland, Ore.; Leonard, of Stanley, N. D.; Nettie E. (Mrs. Bertlett), Charles and Judson, of Springfield, who live to mourn her loss; also 24 grandchildren and 12 great-grandchildren.

Mrs. Doran joined the Methodist Episcopal church when she was 16 years of age, later joining the Free Methodists. She has been a very devout Christian for many years and lived a life worthy of being an example for any one.

Though she suffered greatly, she bore it as only a Christian could, saying, "Not my will but Thine be done."

Grandma Doran has lived in Springfield for 15 years and has many friends who will mourn her loss.

The funeral was held from the Walker Chapel Tuesday, April 29, and interment took place in Laurel Hill cemetery.

DO YOU ENJOY LIFE?

A man in good physical condition is almost certain to enjoy life, while the bilious and dyspeptic are despondent, do not enjoy their meals and feel miserable a good share of the time. This ill feeling is nearly always unnecessary. A few doses of Chamberlain's Tablets to tone up the stomach, improve the digestion and regulate the bowels is all that is needed. Try it.

The Talk of the Town—I know it will be, but I cannot help it. I have to raise some money in a short time, and the only way to get it is to sell some real estate. And as I cannot wait for the natural demand for lots for home building, although this demand is now growing daily, I have to make sales by putting the prices so low that even those that never thought of buying either for home building or as an investment, will take advantage of it and pick up an easy piece of money.

I will sell 25 lots in Emerald Heights Addition to Springfield by cutting the prices square in two, although these prices were low before. And these 25 lots are not picked out for the purpose. You may have your choice of all the unsold lots in the Addition. It is to be cash, however, and no installment plan. But my creditor has agreed to take Liberty Bonds from me at par, consequently I can accept them from you at par. You will get warranty deed and a perfect and registered title.

The pre-war prices on these lots, none less than 50-ft. front, were from $125 to $325. If you hurry you will now get two lots for the price of one.

I know it will cause some consternation in real estate circles and I also know that all those that have bought in this Addition and seem well satisfied dislike this slaughter sale; but I cannot help it.

I do not need to point out to you what Springfield will be when we get back to normal conditions again—what the finishing of the Natron Cut-off will mean to Springfield when the empire of Eastern Oregon is linked up with us; nor do I need to say that Emerald Heights is the ideal residence section of this city, because I expect to sell these few lots here among you who all know these things.

The sale will commence Monday, May 12th, and I will be at the Main Garage Sunday, the 11th, to show property to those that cannot get away on work days.

SIMON KLOYDAHL.

Have you ever heard this?

"My baking powder," says the smooth solicitor, "costs less than Royal."

But he omits to say that it often leaves a bitter taste, that food made with it is likely to stale in a day and that it contains alum, which is condemned by many medical authorities for use in food.

England and France prohibit the sale of alum baking powders.

ROYAL Baking Powder

is made from Cream of Tartar derived from grapes

SPEED ARTIST MUST PAY FOR DAMAGE HE DID TO CAR

Through placing his car in a garage in Cottage Grove for repairs, which were made necessary by colliding with a small Saxon machine driven by F. Michael, of Eugene, on the curve just this side of the overhead electric car crossing in West Springfield two weeks ago, James Lemon, head sawyer in the Western Lumber mill at Cottage Grove, was apprehended by Sheriff Fred Stickle, who made the "sport" come through with sufficient funds to pay for repairing Mr. Michael's car, which was badly damaged by the impact.

Mr. Lemon was driving a very heavy car at reckless speed around the curve and met Mr. Michael's going toward Eugene on a leisurely gait. The big car struck the light car side-wise, but did not stop to ascertain how badly it was damaged or whether the driver was injured. Mr. Michael reported the matter to Sheriff Stickle, and the latter, by making inquiry in Cottage Grove learned of the placing in a garage there of a machine for minor repairs, and an investigation resulted as above.
