OX TEAM PASSING THROUGH CREATES MUCH INTEREST.

Wednesday afternoon Mr. and Mrs. Dingman, residents of Glendale for many years, arrived here enroute to Rathdrum, Idaho, by ox team. Mr. Dingman crossed the plains with an ox team in 1877, and in 1878 settled on Spokane prairie, near where Rathdrum now stands. Later Mr. Dingman went to southern Oregon, but desiring to visit the old homestead in Idaho, the Dingmans conceived the plan of making the trip by ox team. The unique outfit created no little interest here. The oxen, weighing 1400 and 1480 pounds, are eight years old, and have been used in all kinds of farm work on the Dingman ranch near Glendale. They are perfectly broken. The team goes about 20 miles a day. Mr. and Mrs. Dingman expect to reach Portland in about a week.

George Spong returned to Springfield this week from Williston, N. D., his former home. He went to Williston with the expectation of remaining but changed his mind, and will now make his home here.

Bitter or Better Baking

A letter makes a great difference in a word. A word makes a great difference in baking powders.

If the little word "alum" appears on the label it may mean bitter baking.

If the word ROYAL stands out bold and strong, it surely means BETTER baking.

This is only one reason why it pays to use

Royal Baking Powder

Absolutely Pure

Made from Cream of Tartar derived from grapes

Royal Contains No Alum—Leaves No Bitter Taste

SPRINGFIELD HIGH TEAM

GROVE TOMORROW

The Springfield High School baseball team will cross bats with Cottage Grove tomorrow afternoon, and a hot game is looked for.

The local team visited Cottage Grove recently and were beaten in the game played there, and they propose to get even tomorrow by lambasting the daylighters out of the visiting team.

Miss Lillian Mulligan, who is employed by the Allen & Lewis company in Portland, spent the weekend here visiting with her brother, Ray Mulligan, who recently returned from Texas.
