DO YOU ENJOY LIFE.

A man in good physical condition is always certain to enjoy life, while the bilious and dyspeptic are despondent, do not enjoy their meals and feel miserable a good share of the time. This ill feeling is nearly always unnecessary. A few doses of Chamberlain's Tablets to tone up the stomach, improve the digestion and regulate the bowels is all that is needed. Try it.

TO DRIVE FOR FUNDS.

The Salvation Army will make a drive for funds to maintain and extend its home service the week of June 22nd.

PALS OUT THERE.

The guns had ceased their roar of death.

The nights are calm and still,
The moon looks down in calm survey
On the graves that dot the hill.

Our cause was right, we won the fight.

But, fellows, it don't seem fair
That we go back to the U. S. A.
And leave our pals out there.

I joined with Jim, I drilled with Tom,
I carried a pack with Joe;
We were bunkle mates when we left the states,
It seems but a week ago.

I stood with them in a front line trench
Just before the Verdun drive,
And we laughed and joked in confidence
That we'd all come out alive.

We went o'er the top in the first mad rush,
Through the wire and gas and d'n,
A seventy-five got Tom and Joe,
And a sniper's ball got Jim.

I saw them fall out and that was all—
Then on with the charging wave,
In the Argonne woods they answered the call
And they rest in a shell-hole grave.

There's peace tonight in the Verdun hills,
But, God! what a terrible toll,
It isn't war, it's the aftermath,
That burns and sears the soul.

We'll soon strike tents the rest of us,
Go back to the States again;
When we meet the mothers of Tom and Joe,
How can we answer them?

Will it ease the pain of a mother's heart
When we point to the East and say,
"They rest back there in the hills of France,
Where they died for the U. S. A."

The above poem, whose author is unknown, is taken from the Qu'est-ce que C'est, a paper published by the American students of the University of Toulouse, France.
