What a disagreeable little disease is the mumps, always coming on at the wrong time, and we are not the only ones that say its disagreeable as well as disappointing, either. Oh well—it could be worse, they have it on both sides in some countries.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Goodman and children, Julia and John, of Dexter, visited with Mr. Goodman's mother, Mrs. J. B. Goodman, Monday and Tuesday. They were accompanied home by Miss Beatrice Tidd, of Eugene, and Mrs. Goodman.

A load of lumber fell striking and pinning down Harry Neet, Monday, when the chains of the monorail, at the B-K mill broke, because of too big a load. Harry was pretty badly bruised, and it was thought for a time that his hip was dislocated, but he seems to be moving around pretty well once more, slow but sure.

COMMON WITCHHAZEL FINE FOR SORE EYES

It is surprising how quickly eye inflammation is helped by common witch-hazel, camphor, hydrastis, etc., as mixed in Lavoptik eye wash. Mrs. Burns' Letter

Here is a letter that is certain to prove of interest to people in this vicinity, as cases of this sort occur in almost every neighborhood, and people should know what to do in like circumstances.

SAVANNAH, MO., Oct. 12, 1916.

"I used a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic and Diarrhoea Remedy about nine years ago, and it cured me of flux (dysentery). I had another attack of the same complaint some three or four years ago and a few doses of this remedy cured me. I have recommended Chamberlain's Colic and Diarrhoea Remedy to dozens of people since I first used it."
