WE'RE NOT SO HARD UP

Everybody, to listen to them tell it, is losing the race between the dear old purse and the speedy H. C. L. Old H. C. L. gathers speed at every lap, and family purse stumbles along, hardly in the race at all.

Anybody will tell you that it is "impossible," absolutely, for the majority of the families to live decently these days. And a lot of folks believe all this. Mob hysteria, that's all.

As a matter of fact the average family is living better today in this country than it ever did before, anywhere in the world.

And if you doubt it you go into the stores, go to the stores that sell jewelry and watches; or those that sell pork chops and bread, and ask whether business is good.

Ask the banks how balances compare with those of four years ago.

Ask employment agencies how wage schedules, and the number of unemployed, compare with the good old days of 1914.

And finally, go to the agents for four of the lower priced automobiles and inquire what the chances are for speedy delivery of a nice shiny automobile.

All over the country the demand for cheap cars is the greatest ever known, and buyers are waiting for weeks to secure their cars. These automobiles are purchased by workers, by farmers, by small business men.

A lot of this pessimism is simple hysteria; the cost of living is too high, that's granted, but the average American family is as near catching up with it as it ever was: and the average family, the country over, has more money, excess money for luxuries or the savings bank, than it ever had before.

And labor never found it easier to secure its demands. Not only for wages, but for shorter hours, better working conditions, a general square deal.

Don't get too sympathetic over your sad lot; remember 1907 or 1893, if you can, and you will feel considerably better.

WE'RE SORRY

Ford cars now have self starters. As Henry, at last accounts, was 190,000 cars behind his orders probably these few words of free advertising will not greatly affect his business.

And we do want to say something about Henry's cars. Besides making walking a pleasure Mr. Ford did a lot of things for all of us.

And now he is going to spoil it by putting a sputtering thing-amabob to do your cranking for you.

Personally one of the chief thrills we get out of our "automobile" is turning the handle that sticks out of its front piazza.

It requires no brawn nor brain to stomp on a button and make your engine wheeze.

But to properly crank a flivver is a fine art. The art crankist gives Betsy just one slight upheave, and she shorts.

He does not whirl the crank madly, nor does he puff, and pant, and sway in the roadway.

Just the slight upward touch of the true artist and the faithful Henry talks back to him every time.

And in the wintertime what joy there was in getting the old reliable to rattle.

You started at seven, and at one you got the first back fire. Such muscle as we have was heaped on our bones, layer by layer, through the chill months, and the only callouses a lot of us display came from caressing the handle of the family flivver in December.

To date the Ford has been a regular institution, a different institution: one that required energy and intelligence to start, and a high degree of endurance to keep going.

But with self starters, and real springs, and, maybe, even a cushion two inches thick, and a tire bigger than a bicycle tire, the old Ford is so civilized and humanized that all the sporting joy of running it will be lost forever.

LIBERTY OF THE 1776 BRAND

The people reap what they sow. If they install bad leadership they reap the harvest of bad laws and high taxes.

The people pay the price of incompetent leadership and all kinds of business and industries suffer from them.

But for intelligence applied to government the world would lapse into anarchy and perhaps into barbarism.

The state and the nation, nay even the city or county, rise no higher than the character of their leaders.

The country and its industries and development depend on sound permanent policies and honest leadership.

The country is watching the experiment in state Socialism in North Dakota under the guise of a farmer's movement.

We tried some of the same experiments in 1892 under the name of the Populist movement led by Sockless Jerry Simpson.

We have the rule of the Bolshevik in Russia and the I. W. W. pleads for one union and the democratization of industries.

We had the Knights of Labor and the Farmer's Alliance and the Dennis Kearney Sandlot party in the past thirty years.

But they have all gone their way and the mournful procession of false prophets, quack doctors and demagogue reappears.

But liberty and free institutions of the 1776 brand survive and the noble statue in her honor still lights New York harbor.

GET THE HABIT

Modern methods of banking are typical of America's democratic way of doing business. Rich and poor alike keep their money in the same bank and the dollar check drawn by the girl clerk in a department store on her small account, is honored just as quickly and with as little question as a check drawn by John D. on his account.

A deposit in a bank is the basis of credit for any man or woman. It establishes a personal relation between the depositor and the bank, which may be of value in many ways to the depositor. If he will ask his banker's advice before investing his savings in numerous schemes which are afloat today seeking to get his money, he will in many instances be saved severe losses.

The banking habit is a good one to cultivate. It raises you in your own estimation and sense and confidence in your ability to do things.

A bank depositor and a home owner are not good material for the Bolshevik and socialist agitator and herein lies America's safety today.
