YOUTH HAS MUSICAL GENIUS Charter No. 8941.

Willy Ferrero, 13 Years Old, and American Born, la Capable Leader of Orchestra.

Willy Ferrero, 13, who leads 100plece orchestras in selections of Wagner. Beethoven, Rossini, Grieg and others, is an American and was born in Portland, Me. The child has attracted the attention of Europe since he was 4 years old, but it was only recently that his American birth was revealed by his parents, who are Italians.

The lad was taken to Italy whither his parents were returning to take up. their residence in their old home in Turin. When Willy was 4 he began his musical career, feating an orchestra in the Felies Bergere in Paris. A year later he appeared in the Costanza theater, Rome, where for the first time he fed an orchestra of 100 pieces.

The child took his orchestra before Emperor Nichelas in 1913 and conducted two concerts for the monarch. In the same year his orchestra was filling an engagement in Lendon, and he was commanded to appear before Queen Alexandra at Marlborough house. He appeared before Pope Penedlet XV in 1916. In April, 1915, just before Italy's declaration of war, Willy was presented with the gold medal by the Italian minister of education after he had made a successful appearance in the Augusteum, where he had conducted an orchestra and chorus aggregating 500 participants.

NATIONAL HEROES OF FRANCE

Lazare Hoche and Ferdinand Foch Are Names to Be Forever Held in Grateful Memory.

Marshal Foch is taking a particular satisfaction at this time of the consummation of a great victory to pay homage to the fame of Lazare Hoche, the famous young general who escaped the Revolutionary guillotine eventually to command that army of the Sambre-et-Meuse which, though at first disorganized, badly fed and badly equipped, performed the brilliant seven months' campaign which established the reputation of French arms on both sides of the Rhine. To this day at Weissenthurm stands a monument to its memory and that of its brilliant young chief. No wonder Marshal Foch takes pleasure in recalling Lazare Hoche to his countrymen. Of Hoche it is said that he once proudly wrote to the minister for war of his day. "Je suis la patrie," The French of the present century would throw up their bats at such a sentiment as enthusiastically as the contemporaries of Hoche and Rouget de Lisie. With the great mass of them, though they do not perhaps express it so tersely. Foch is "la patrie" in the sense that he certainly stands for them as "a Victoire" personified.

He Saw Very Well.

I had employed a piano tuner for several years who was blind, writes a correspondent. One day he brought another man when he came to tune the plane, asking my permission to teach him some things about plane tuning. I left them in the parlor by themselves and when they had finished, I was dressing to go out.

Knowing they were blind and rather than keep them waiting, I went in to pay the tuner in rather scant attire. I remarked to the stranger. "It is nice for you blind people that there is work like this for you to do." "Oh, madam," he replied, "I'm not blind; in fact, I see very well." I nearly died and fied from the room.
