Mr. Orville Dean and Miss Freda Augusta Dillard, both of Springfield, were united in marriage last Friday afternoon at Eugene by Rev. E. V. Stivers.

R. A. Gallier, recently discharged from the navy, was a visitor at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Dippel this week. Mr. Gallier is a cousin of Mrs. Dippel. His home is at Bandon, Oregon.

Dr. Gilbert, the new pastor of the Methodist church at Medford, stopped over in the city last Sunday and was a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. O. B. Kessey, friends and former neighbors back in Iowa.

Demand Eggmann's bread from your grocer.

Mr. and Mrs. John Lamberty and daughter, from Albany, visited last Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. N. A. Rowe. They went from here to Wendling to visit for a few days at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Tibbe.

Glen Anderson has sold his ranch of sixty acres of improved bottom land to George Flatt, from Kansas. Mr. Flatt was here in June and bought a portion of the place and returned October 4th and purchased the balance of it. He has now taken possession. Mr. Anderson moved into town last week and plans to stay here at least for the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. John McCay left on Tuesday for Wilbur, near Roseburg, where they will make their home. Mr. McCay, who had been employed as a bridge carpenter on the Southern Pacific for the past eighteen years, was appointed postmaster for Wilbur. In connection with the postoffice, he will put in a stock of general merchandise. Mrs. McCay is a sister of Mrs. G. W. Orr, of this city.

At a business meeting held by the Needlecraft Club last week at the home of Mrs. D. W. Crites officers for the ensuing term were elected as follows: President, Mrs. William Dawson; secretary and treasurer, Mrs. S. T. Long. The next meeting of the club, with initiation of new members, was set for yesterday evening at the home of Mrs. C. E. Fischer, on Emerald Heights.

Rev. and Mrs. Danford left Tuesday evening for Ashland, which city the former will make his headquarters as district superintendent of the M. E. church. Rev. J. H. Ebert, the new minister, failed to reach here in time to conduct last Sunday's services, as announced, but he will preach both morning and evening the coming Sunday. The members of the Methodist church will give a reception to Rev. Ebert in the church parlors this (Friday) evening.

G. W. Orr, mechanic at the Mohawk Lumber Company's mill, at Donna, had the misfortune to fracture a bone in his left foot while working at the mill forge last Wednesday. Mr. Orr had just finished making a loading tonga when the bracket of the forge gave way and the 127 pounds of steel dropped on his foot. He was brought to Springfield for treatment, and, although able to get around, will probably be incapacitated for heavy work for several weeks.

Read what Dr. Dippel has to say about "Devitalized Teeth" on page 3 of this issue.

The meeting at the Christian church will close in another week. Such subjects as "The Lost Christ", "A Model Conversion", "A Man's Work in a Man's Way", "The Five Kingdoms", "The Secret of Happiness", will be discussed.

Wanted—House and lot in Springfield; don't care how far out, but price must be right. Answer with description of property. Address Box 103, Springfield, Oregon.

Mrs. S. A. Gay left last Saturday to spend a few days at Reedsport and to find out if living quarters are there obtainable. Mr. Gay, who recently went from here to Timber, Oregon, to break in a new man as log scaler for the Southern Pacific, is now stationed at Reedsport, with the probability of being there for some time.

C. W. Tague, until recently editor of the News, and Mrs. Tague left last Sunday for California. They plan to stop for a few weeks in San Francisco and Oakland and then go to Ontario, near Los Angeles, where Mr. Tague has accepted the position of secretary and manager of the chamber of commerce.

To Trade—All-round good stock farm for a small acreage or good Springfield property. Address Box 350, Springfield, Oregon.

Say, Mr. Springfield resident, transfer that banking account from Eugene to the First National Bank of Springfield. Boost for Springfield in practice as well as in words. If not, why not?

There was a good turn-out at the entertainment given by the L. L. L. last Saturday evening in the Woodmen hall, not only of local and visiting members, but of the public generally, both ladies and gentlemen. The programme, consisting of several snappy boxing bouts by local boys and visitors, a wrestling match by local talent, and vocal and piano music, was well handled throughout, and highly appreciated by all.

D. Powell, who in partnership with S. Haley, has had under lease for the past two years the Sarah E. Makinson ranch (better known as the Greene place), which was sold recently to the Davis brothers, from California, is preparing to leave within a couple of weeks for Klamath county, where he has leased a ranch for next season. Mr. Haley will also leave to make his home at Klamath Falls. They will dispose of their livestock and farm machinery at an auction sale to be held at the ranch next Wednesday.
