FAY IONE LATHAM
(Mrs. Leland W. Porter)

Reader and Impersonator.

Recently head of Department of Expression and Dramatic Art Montana Wesleyan University, and with chautauqua and lyceum experience.

Mrs. Leland Porter delighted her hearers with a splendid interpretation of "The End of the Task," one of the short stories found in Bruno Lessing's book, "The Children of Men." Mrs. Porter's rendition of the story was vivid and real, portraying alternately the joy and pathos found in the lives of the extreme poor. As a reader, Mrs. Porter's work is characterized by animation, ease and naturalness and her experience on the chautauqua and lyceum platforms has given her poise and authority.—Daily Capital Journal, Salem, Ore.

"She is a reader of rare ability, the possessor of a delightful personality, accompanied by a deep heart sincerity."—Mrs. Anna McPherson Edworthy, state superintendent W. C. T. U., Des Moines, Ia.

Deafness Cannot Be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.
