You'll laugh.
You'll cry.
You'll cuss—maybe.
It's nothing to wear.
It's nothing to eat.
It's nothing to drink.
It's not a story.
It's not an auto.
It's not an aeroplane.
You can't see it.
You can't feel it.
But you can absorb it as it has power.
But wait till next issue.
ISN'T IT FUNNY?

the Willing Workers served a big dinner to the church and friends, having as their guests C. F. Swander, W. F. Turner and Mrs. Louisa Kelly, the missionary team. At 8 o'clock the world outlook of missions was presented by the team. Mrs. Kelly gave a most interesting and educational talk on the great number of foreign fields. Mr. Swander spoke on the work at home, in the United States and in Oregon. Mr. Turner presented the "every-mombr canvass" as the means of adequately supporting all fields. Everyone was entertained and blessed by attending the meeting. About 200 were present.

Word has been received in this city that the sister of Mrs. C. F. Eggimann, Mrs. Percy Fernandez of San Francisco, is much better. Mrs. Fernandez had recently underwent a serious operation and was in a critical condition when Mrs. Eggimann was called to her bedside last Monday. Mrs. Eggimann leaving here on the midnight train for San Francisco.

HOLIDAY VACATION DATES SET BY SCHOOL BOARD

Routine business matters occupied much of the time of the school board members last Wednesday evening at their regular monthly meeting.

Dates for the holiday vacation period for the Springfield schools were decided upon. Vacation will commence Christmas day and school will convene again January 5, giving 11 days freedom to teachers and pupils.

A town is judged largely by its banks. The First National Bank of Springfield is one of this town's greatest assets. Are you helping to make it stronger by your patronage?

"Let's Go!" the battle cry of the boys, will be heard at the conference of the older boys to be held in Albany Dec. 5, 6 and 7. A large attendance of boys from all over the state is expected at Albany. This is the sixth and last of the series of boys' conferences held in the northwest this year.

DEFENDS LABOR

A long portion of the message is devoted to a discussion of the condition and rights of labor. "A definite program to bring about an improvement in the conditions of labor," and "bring about a genuine democratization of industry" is recommended. "The only way to keep men from agitating against grievances is to remove the grievances. The seed of revolution is repression.

"The establishment of the principles regarding labor, laid down in the covenant of the league of nations, offers us the way to industrial peace and conciliation. No other road lies open to us. . . Governments must recognize the right of men to bargain collectively for humane objects. . . Labor no longer must be treated as a commodity.

"The right of individuals to strike is inviolate and ought not to be interfered with by any process of government, but there is a predominant right and that is the right of the government to protect all of its people and to assert its power and majesty against the challenge of any class."

"There are those in this country who threaten direct action to force their will upon a minority. . . It makes little difference what minority it is, whether capital or labor, or any other class, no sort of privilege will ever be permitted to dominate this country.

"Those who would propose any other methods of reform than orderly processes are enemies of this country. Let those beware who take the shorter road of disorder and revolution."
