When you patronize Springfield's leading bank—the First National—you deal with a city, county, state and national depository. Are you safe? Well, yes, I guess so.

Deafness Cannot Be Cured by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surface.
 We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure sent by circulars free.

In Society

By Dorris Sikes

Nearly a hundred relatives and friends of Mr. and Mrs. Frank U.
 Chase of Pruneville assisted Mr. and Mrs. Chase in the celebration of their silver wedding anniversary last Saturday night.

Under a canopy of white in the center of which was hung a large silver bell the couple, with Rev. J. R.
 Lamar, stood to renew the vows taken 25 years ago, the ring ceremony being used. The bride, as radiant as she was on that day many years ago, wore a becoming gown of silver messaline. Lucile Wylie played the "Grand Marche Nuptiale" as the party took their places.

Following the ceremony a wedding lunch was served. The bride's cake which was contained in a large silver basket, graced the center of the table.

Mr. and Mrs. Chase were the recipients of many handsome gifts.

Mr. and Mrs. Chase, who for many years have been active members of the First Baptist church here, were married by Rev. J. Franklin Day, then pastor of the church in Springfield, but now located at Colfax, Wash. Rev.
 Day was unable to be present for the occasion on Saturday night. Reverend Lamar, who did officiate, is also a former pastor of the church here. Mr. and Mrs. Chase have six children, Harold, Gladys, Elmo, Clarence, Meryl and Carol.

Among the guests who were present 25 years ago and again on Saturday night, besides the many relatives were Mrs. Palmer Ayers, of Norkenzie, formerly of Springfield, and Mrs. Ella Walker, whose home is here.

A complete surprise to their friends and relatives here and in Eugene was the wedding on last Tuesday in Corvallis of Miss Jean C. Fischer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl E. Fischer of this city, to Glen Ward, son of Mrs. Emma Ward of Eugene. Both are students at University of Oregon.
 Mrs. Ward having entered there as a sophomore from O. A. C. about a month ago. Mr. Ward is a junior at the university and manager of the Rex Floral company in Eugene.

They will make their home in Eugene and continue their school work.

Superintendent and Mrs. F. B. Hamlin were hosts for a very enjoyable party for the Ecobian Sunday school class of the Methodist church of which the former is teacher, at their home last Saturday night. After an interesting and varied program of games refreshments were served.

Those present were Misses Helen Coffman, Ruth Scott, Amelia Breune, Chloé Woolley, Grace Male, Nina Boesen and Dorris Sikes, and Gordon Byrne, Winifred May, Norman Byrne, Randall Scott, Harry Woolley, Milton Coffman and Oswald Olson.

A few of the friends of Mr. and Mrs. F. G. McElhoney were invited to spend the evening at their home in Pruneville Tuesday night. Those invited were Dr. and Mrs. W. H. Pollard, Dr. and Mrs. N. W. Emery, Mrs.
 Bernice Van Valzah and R. W. Smith.

Springfield public school teachers were guests last Saturday night of Supt. and Mrs. F. B. Hamlin at their home on West D street. Those pres-

LATE MRS. TOTTEN WAS FORMERLY MRS. LA RUE

To many of her friends she was Mrs. J. J. Totten was better known as Mrs. Barbara La Rue. Mr. La Rue who was a millwright died in 1880.
 Before her marriage to Judge J. J.
 Totten in Springfield in 1910. Mrs.
 Totten had lived in the Glasgow river country and in Eugene, she was especially well known for her kindness as a nurse among her neighbors, and was respected and loved wherever she lived. She was a leader in her community.

After their marriage here, Mr. and Mrs. Totten moved to Newport in hopes that the climate would benefit Mrs. Totten's health, and in 1918 they moved to South Pasadena, Cal., where they had since made their home.

The only daughter of Mrs. Totten was Mrs. Lydia Ross, by her former marriage, and who died about a year ago in Washington. A granddaughter, Miss Greta Barber, who lives at Elma, Lane county, is the only blood relative living here. Miss Barber was present at the funeral. She leaves, however, a sister in Rocky Ford, Colo., a brother and three nieces in Idaho.

Mrs. Totten was born in New York state Oct. 5, 1845. She had always been an active member in the church, the local lodge, the grange and the G.
 A. R. circle.
 Judge J. J. Totten was justice of the peace in Springfield in 1911. He formerly practiced law in Nebraska.
