An ideal remedy for Constipation
It would be used in both the m y and the mouth. More than other remedies "Hall's Catarrh Cure" is very strong so it can be immediately after supper. They do not take
and will be gentle in effect.

How's this?

We offer One Hundred Dollars
Reward for any case of Catarrah
that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrah Cure.

New Fresh Entertain Assembly. The beginners freshman class entertained the high school Tuesday morning with a play entitled "The Bashful Boy." Those busy little freshmen gathered pennants, screens, tables, and other furnishings for their stage setting. Besides the play which lasted fifteen minutes, Ivan Cowart favored us with a violin solo, accompanied by Miss Winifred Long on the piano. The cast of the play included Ivan Cowart, Gurney Howard, Grayden Lewis, Lydia Edwards, Cleoast Bryan, Winifred Long, Anna Mulligan and Mabel Humphrey. These present besides the student body and faculty were Mrs. Edwards, Cowart and Mrs. Humphrey.

Simple Explanation

A freshman is one who knows nothing about anything that he hasn't had.

A sophomore is one who knows something but doesn't know what he knows.

A junior is one who knows half what he thinks he knows.

A senior is one who knows and does what he knows.

This was written written recently especially for the benefit of the new chewers. By R. Lee.

Chew, chew, chew, chew.

Chew, chew, chew, chew.

Impossibly moving their jaws.

Forever working their jaw.

Pop, pop, pop, pop.

Snap, snap, snap, snap.

The way they pull out their gum
Makes chills run up my back.

Working and working and working.

Painfully chewing away.

And ohming and popping and pulling.

Two after day after day.

The energy every day wasted
In chewing this sticky mess.

That over the ears is pasted
In every doggone place.

This horridious entomachous quip is.
And the sage son ask "How to stop
your jaws though boy, if you know it
The things they'll make it goes."

"Backergie's Jingle"

Dear Father, D. F. Pollard, here's
the book I've been about this week.

Book Pollard! That's a dandy, each book makes you bigger, better!

Hah! Look! "With authors he don't talk with him."

George Shirmer is thinking about going to pictures with a woman in the long hair. He says "I'm not thinking about that yet, for the truth is yet to come."

Alma Holmberg chose to a regular gang of ink, glue and paint, looks like Billings' "Hamlet" (Navy). The true self.

Joe Davis has just introduced from a parents' picnic some and much fun and a pleasant-constituting game
among his sons.

Note: Not much doing this week.
Will have a bit speed next week and a little poetry by our poet, R. J.

Yours truly, Jim O'Shea.

A Freshman's Diary.

Foreword: Before this little dia logue is out before the critical eye
of the public kind reader let me call your attention to a few facts. This little story which will appear in the newspaper weekly is originally clipped
out of the deck of an innocent book clipped by a sharp-edged reporter and then submitted to the editor. You will take notice of the continual pinch
of three terrible misdeeds and also mention all other things that would naturally enter into the making of a shameless swine in a literary composition. Let us proceed.

As we say, you day after day
are the sort of fat谈论者 who are always chattering in your
