Mrs. Phoebe, dean of women of O. A. C. spoke to the students as usual Thursday afternoon on the "Cause of the Crisis in Higher Education in Oregon," which culminates in the campaign for the millage tax law.

"Bookkeepin' Jangle."
This week's news! The "square table" is getting to be a regular "twogee" board. It wobbles all over and it keeps the boys busy following it up with their chairs. Its getting weak in the legs, too.

In Society

The Kensington club was delightfully entertained at the home of Mrs. O. B. Kessey last Friday afternoon. The afternoon was spent in fancy work. Light refreshments were served by the hostess.

The members present were Mrs. S. W. Emery, Mrs. Fred Brossler, Mrs. Henry Koff, Mrs. Dunlap, Mrs. H. W. Whitney, Mrs. Elia Sutton, Mrs. W. F. Walker, Mrs. L. May, Mrs. T. J. Moore, Mrs. C. E. Wheaton and Mrs. Margaret Morris. Guests at the morning were Mrs. M. M. Peery.

The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. C. A. Swartz Friday, April 5, 1929.

A very pleasant time was spent last Tuesday evening in the form of a surprise party at the home of Mrs. W. Whitney at their home on Fifth and D streets.

The evening was spent in playing "500" in which Mr. Swartz received first prize while Mr. Peery had the honor of having the lowest score.

Those enjoying the evening were Mr. and Mrs. H. Whitney, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Swartz, Mr. and Mrs. Elia Sutton, Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Brossler, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Clark, J. R. Buntin of Wagon, Wally Stearns, Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Peery and Mrs. Elia Sutton.

Honoring Mr. Buntin of Wagon, Mr. Fred Kelly entertained a number of friends with a "luncheon" last Wednesday evening. Mrs. Buntin received the first prize which the prize was awarded to Harry Buntin. At a late hour the guests were taken into the dining room where a 100 course luncheon was served by the hostess assisted by

NAVY BLUES RULE IN WOMEN'S SUIT WORLD

Navy blue has always been considered a staple color in suits. This year it is the leading color predominating in both the cotton and wool. Navy blue and blue and navy blue are the materials used in the two models shown above. Note the open seams, double patch pockets and the striped pockets. The opening of the pockets has been followed by very recently. On the left is a navy blue, double patch pocket and the right is a navy blue, double patch pocket with a light blue lining.
