In Society

By Doris Leah Sikes.

Grandma Van Valzah was hostess for one of the most enjoyable afternoons spent by members of the Pine Needle club at the last meeting of that body. Mrs. Merritt Huntley was a special guest and the club members present were Mrs. Chas. Dority, Mrs. Mary Magill, Mrs. E. J. Reynolds, Mrs. Hannah Hill, Mrs. Karl Girard, Mrs. C. A. Peterson, Mrs. Al Montgomery, Mrs. O. F. Kizer, Mrs. Will Darling, Miss Mary Roberts and Mrs. Nina McPherson.

Ladies of Needlecraft held their regular meeting last week at the home of Mrs. Ethel Bally. Plans were made at that time for a line party at the Rex theatre which was held Wednesday evening. Mrs. Bally had as her special guests Mrs. Bernice Van Valzah, Grandma Van Valzah and Mrs. Riley Snodgrass. Club members present were: Mesdames R. L. Drury, O. H. Jarrett, W. H. Pollard, George Catching, D. W. Crites, C. E. Fischer, F. B. Hamlin and Carl Olson.

The senior class were guests of the Junior class at a beautiful reception at the high school Wednesday evening. Cartoon slides were shown featuring the senior class and the faculty in 1920. Each senior had to put on a stunt, in which three senior boys made the hit of the evening. Games were played during the evening. Refreshments were served in a unique manner and caused much merriment.

A picnic on the Myers' place at Hayden bridge took the place of the regular monthly business and social meeting of the Epworth league of the Methodist church Saturday night. Those who were present were Helen Coffman, Grace Male, Audrey Perkins, Maud Gorrie, Florence Kizer, Marian Spencer, Mildred Newland, Jessie Johnson, Dorris Sikes, Frances Paden, Verdon May, Harry Woolley, Harry Nixon, Glen Wooley, Rev. Berry May 28.

MUCH PAVEMENT LAID IN OREGON IN LAST THREE YEARS

Between April 1, 1917, when the state highway commission had its inception, and April 30, 1920, there was laid in Oregon, approximately 430 miles of paving, 448 miles of macadam and grading totaling 988 miles, according to a report prepared by the highway department. The total estimated cost of these improvements was $25,312,759.46, of which the state paid $18,011,058.55. Contributions of counties amounted to $3,634,595.13, while the government's share of the total expense was $3,667,105.81.

The improvements made in Lane county were as follows: Paving, 17.3 miles; macadam, 9.9 miles; grading, 9.9 miles; estimated cost, $547,130.56; state share $463,910.49; county share, $83,220.07.—Eugene Guard.

P. Mc Laird and family of Jasper left Tuesday morning for Bend. They will make the trip by auto, going by way of Portland and the Columbia highway.

OBTAINS LARGE SUM OF MONEY THROUGH FALSE MORTGAGES

A reward of $500 has been offered for the arrest or information leading to the arrest of H. W. Buckingham, a farmer near Coburg, who disappeared a few days ago. He was recently arrested on a charge of sheep rustling. An investigation of his stock showed that he had a far less number of cattle than he claimed to own. It is said that he had obtained from Drury and Wood, bankers of Eugene, more than $11,000 through mortgages on stock he was supposed to have. The reward is offered by the banking firm.

The Grandoldope

By Mrs. C. F. Eggmann.

We notice that Ben Conlee is painting the town; Don't be alarmed, it's nothing serious. He's now painting that queer building on Fourth and Main. We see that Sandy and his master tread the path to the local telephone office quite often—Wonder why? We also noticed that summer being in cold storage it is no time to sport straw hats. We noticed at the fire yesterday that an open nozzle gives more water than the closed one at a recent fire.

HERE COMES THE BRIDE

June blooms on the horizon again—and with it the bride. Most important is the veil and flowers—to the bride at least. Despite the fact that the bride in the recent Vanderbilt wedding at New York wore a veil in the original Oriental style—completely covering the face—fashioners insist the crown of orange blossom with parted drape of chiffon is best—as shown above. The huge bouquet is of course—
