2000 STUDENTS NEXT FALL ESTIMATE OF DEAN STRAUB

University of Oregon, Eugene, June 8.—At least 2000 students for the University of Oregon next fall is the prediction of Dr. John Straub, dean of the college of literature, science and the arts, as a result of his observations while visiting in various parts of the state lately. Dean Straub, who has the reputation of never having missed an estimate of this sort, says he may raise the figure to 2500 before commencement.

Broom Factory at Roseburg.

Roseburg, Ore., June 9.—Down in the Rogue River valley people don't have to buy brooms any more. They can slip over into a handy corn patch and help themselves to at least the "makings." Corn raised in that section yields 1000 pounds of broom material of the finest quality. The Rogue River Broom company, which has been in operation one year, is probably the fore-runner of a whole chain of such factories.

Save Your Engine and Your Money

We consider it both unwise and uneconomical to use less than the best grade of gasoline in your engine. Poor "Gas" is a sure forerunner of engine trouble—in addition to giving fewer miles per gallon service—therefore being more expensive in the long run.

We recommend and handle the Standard and Union grades of gas. The man at the curb will give you instant service. Give it a trial and convince yourself.

The Mikado Coming to Chautauqua

Among all the English Light Operas there is no question of the great popularity of the Mikado. It is colorful and keenly humorous—the lines are clever, the costuming beautiful and the tunes mighty catchy. The Chautauqua management has been greatly impressed with the splendid success of the Davis Light Opera Company through the East during the past several years, and so determined to bring them to the western audiences this summer. The Company will give the entire opera on the second night—not merely a short cutting. The Mikado holds a place in our affections because of its many charming songs and situations. You remember the plot is concerning Ko Ko, the Lord High Executioner of the town of Titipu, his charming ward Yum Yum, the Mikado and his disguised son, Nanki Poo, and the Court Horror, Katisha. Besides these, there are many lesser characters. Probably the best known songs are "Three Little Maids are We" and "The Flowers That Bloom in the Spring—Tra La."

All in all, the second night at Chautauqua will be a program such as you will live over and enjoy many months to come.
