WATER POWER SURPRISE.

After it had been reported that President Wilson failed to sign the water power bill recently passed by congress, after ten days delay over the matter, it now comes as a welcome surprise to the west to learn that the president signed the measure before June 11 but for some unknown reason the public was not advised.

This action will open the way for great development in the west. It will open the way for electrification of railroads, irrigation projects, pulp and paper mills, etc. This bill will unlock great natural resources which for years have been withheld from public use through lack of workable legislation. The west has won one victory in its fight for industrial development.

It will now be possible to develop the vast water power resources of Lane county, making it one of the industrial centers of the state.

HAS LABOR WITH HIM.

Senator Harding is deriving much satisfaction from the scores of congratulatory messages he is receiving from labor organizations in Ohio and elsewhere. They all pledge hearty support to the Republican campaign, and demonstrate the absurdity of Mr.

Gompers' claiming to be able to deliver the labor vote to the Democratic or any other candidate.

The farmers alone, the labor unions alone, the banks or manufacturers alone cannot flourish by themselves, but successful industrial conditions depend on the state of prosperity that extends to every citizen in the state.—Ex.

"PEP"

By Our Printer's Devil.

Has this ole town got any pep? Then some guy will refer back about 5 or 10 years to some kind of an event and tell about the pep they had, but that ain't the question. Has your town got any pep now?

"Why, er-r-r, yes, look what Mr. Zeek is doin'." Nope, that ain't the point, either. Has your town got any pep and what are you doin'? Talk about and question your own pep.

If your car hasn't got pep it ain't no good; if a movie hasn't any pep it's bum; if your town hasn't got pep it's rotten. If you haven't got pep your town the same and better put a clothes pin on your nose. If the high school hasn't got pep it spoils the pupils' school days, and if the baseball team hasn't got pep, they'll usually make a failure and so it goes. Pep is a necessity of life—I mean to real people.

If your town is dead, say, "come on, let's pull out of this hole; let's get goin'!" Take up and push every thing the town takes hold of. Just like Skinny Spooners circus; if us guys didn't help him and go to it, it would fall. Never buck a thing unless you've thoroughly investigated it. Like the new sissy fer instance, us fellers were gonna kill him and then after getting more acquainted, we found out that he was a good sport and so it goes—how's your pep?

Let's go! Let's all put on some real pep and put over a real celebration here Saturday, July 3.

CARD OF THANKS.

We wish to thank all those who so kindly helped us in our recent bereavement, and especially for the many beautiful floral offerings. Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Bevere.

trip but are urged to go as far as they can. Banners will be supplied and in each place a short announcement will be made and intensive efforts to sell tickets for the big program.

Attention is called to the fact that those who expect to attend should buy season tickets, as they not only save money for themselves but give a benefit to the local committee for their use in defraying expenses. On all single admissions the committee receives 25 per cent. They also receive all funds from the sale of reserve seat tickets.

Let us furnish your home thru and thru.

Mrs. Love-Home:

You know that home is a "mere shell" if your rooms are not beautifully furnished.

Suppose you make a list of the things you would love to have and show it to your husband after he has made a "good deal" and had a "good meal." He will "come through." Try it.
